AN ACT to amend the Public Health Act, 1908.

Title.

[3rd December, 1910.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Health Amendment Act, 1910, and shall form part of and be read together with the Public Health Act, 1908. Short Title.

2. (1.) By-laws made under section one hundred and eight of the Public Health Act, 1908, may prescribe the minimum frontage and area of land on which a dwellinghouse may be erected in the district or any specified part thereof. Additional power as to by-laws.

(2.) Nothing in this section shall apply to any allotment of land shown on a plan of subdivision deposited at any Lands or Deeds Registration Office or approved by the local authority prior to the passing of this Act.

3. In districts in which no sewerage system exists, the local authority, in lieu of raising a separate rate as mentioned in section sixty of the principal Act, may levy an annual fee on the occupier of every property on which a dwellinghouse is erected in the district, or any defined part thereof. Annual fee for removal of refuse, &c.

4. Section ninety-one of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the words "this section" from subsection two thereof, and substituting the words "the last preceding section." Section 91 of principal Act amended.
