1906, No. 61.

AN ACT to amend "The Public Health Act, 1900."

Title.

[29th October, 1906.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Public Health Act Amendment Act, 1906"; and it shall form part of and be read together with "The Public Health Act, 1900" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act").

Short Title.

2. (1.) Two or more District Boards or Hospital Boards may combine in providing and maintaining a sanatorium for persons suffering from consumption.

Boards may combine for sanatorium for consumptives.

(2.) The expenses incurred in providing and maintaining such sanatorium shall be apportioned amongst the Boards concerned in such proportions as they agree on at a meeting of the Boards, or of delegates appointed by them, to be called by the District Health Officer at such time and place as he directs, or as, in the absence of any agreement being arrived at at such meeting, a Magistrate by order, after hearing the District Health Officer and the Boards, directs.

(3.) In fixing the proportions in which the Boards are to contribute regard shall be had only to the population of each district.

(4.) The sanatorium shall be managed by a joint committee, not exceeding seven, appointed by the contributing Boards from among their members; and representation on the joint committee shall be in proportion to the population of each district.
