

New Zealand.

ANALYSIS.

Title.
1. Short Title.

2. Governor may transfer reserve in Classes I. or II. to reserve in Class III.
3. Exchange of lands.

1889, No. 24.

AN ACT to amend "The Public Reserves Act, 1881."
[16th September, 1889.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Public Reserves Act Amendment Act, 1889." Short Title.

2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in "The Public Reserves Act, 1881" (herein referred to as "the said Act"), the Governor, by notification in the Gazette, may declare that any land comprised within a reserve in Classes I. or II. which has not been vested in trust in any society, body corporate, or trustees, shall, from a date to be specified in the said Gazette, be appropriated for the purposes of a reserve under that part of Class III. of the said Act which relates to "Reserves for Education, Charitable Purposes, or Recreation," and thereafter the law affecting reserves in the said Class III. shall apply to any land so appropriated as aforesaid. Governor may transfer reserve in Classes I. or II. to reserve in Class III.

3. The Governor may, in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, exchange with any person or body politic or corporate the whole or any portion of any public reserve in Classes I., II., or III., for any other land which the Governor shall deem of equal value therewith, and more suitable for the purposes of the reserve; and the Governor and any such person or body politic or corporate may do or cause to be done all such acts and things, and make, sign, or execute all such instruments, as may be necessary to effectuate any such exchange. Exchange of lands.

All land obtained in exchange by Her Majesty or by any person or body politic or corporate as aforesaid shall be held by Her Majesty or by such person or body politic or corporate respectively for the same objects and purposes and upon the same trusts (if any) as the land given in exchange by Her Majesty or by such person or body politic or corporate was held.

Whenever the estate in any public reserve is vested in any local body, or the control and management thereof is vested in any local authority, no such exchange shall be made or carried into effect without the written consent of the local authority representing such local body, or in whom such control and management is vested, for that purpose first had and obtained.