 certain Railway and other Public Reserves.

[1st November, 1878.]

WHEREAS the lands described in the Schedules hereto have Preamble.
 been duly reserved for the construction of railways and for other purposes of public utility, and the said reserves are no longer required for such purposes: And whereas all the aforesaid lands are now vested in Her Majesty, and it is expedient that the same should be sold, or appropriated for other purposes respectively:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be “The Public Reserves Short Title.
 Sale Act, 1878.”

2. The lands described in the First Schedule may, at any time Reserves in First Schedule to be sold.
 after the passing of this Act, be sold by the Governor upon such terms as shall be regulated by Order in Council: Provided that such lands shall not be sold at a price less than is provided in “The Crown Lands Sale Act, 1877.”

The lands indicated in the aforesaid Schedule to be sold as town lands shall be so sold accordingly; and of the other lands described in Public Reserves Sale.

the said First Schedule the Governor shall appoint the particular lands which shall be sold upon deferred payments, or as lands of special value, respectively: Provided that all lands to be sold upon deferred payment, or as lands of special value, shall be submitted, in the first instance, to auction.

Reserves in Second Schedule applied to other purposes.

3. The lands described in the Second Schedule, in the first two paragraphs thereof, are hereby set apart as public streets, in extension of Lyndhurst Street and of Brougham Street, in the Town of Westport, respectively.

The lands in the said Schedule, described in the third paragraph thereof, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be vested, without any conveyance or assurance, in the Mayor, Councillors, and Citizens of the Borough of Westport, to be held by them as a site for municipal buildings.
