AN ACT to correct the Descriptions of the Boundaries of the Electoral Districts for the election of Members of the House of Representatives.

[14th November 1871.]

WHEREAS many errors have been discovered in the descriptions of the boundaries of the Electoral Districts set forth in the Schedule to "The Representation Act 1870" hereinafter referred to as "the said Act" and it is expedient to correct the same by amending the said Act in the manner hereinafter provided:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Representation Act Amendment Act 1871."

2. The Schedule to this Act annexed is hereby substituted in the said Act for the Schedule thereto annexed. The Schedule to this Act annexed is herein referred to as "the substituted Schedule."

3. The said Act shall be construed and read as if the substituted Schedule had been originally annexed to the said Act in lieu of the Schedule thereto annexed. Wherever in the said Act the expressions "the Schedule to this Act" or "the said Schedule" occur the said Act shall be deemed to refer to the substituted Schedule. Wherever in the said Act reference is made to the First Part of the Schedule to the said Act the said Act shall be deemed to refer to the First Part of the substituted Schedule and wherever in the said Act reference is made to the Second Part of the Schedule to the said Act the said Act shall be deemed to refer to the Second Part of the substituted Schedule.

Maps to be prepared.

4. The Colonial Secretary shall cause properly authenticated maps of the Electoral Districts as defined in the said substituted Schedule to be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Registration and Returning Officers to remain in office for Districts as re-defined.

5. Immediately upon the passing of this Act the Registration and Returning Officers appointed to or acting for each of the Electoral Districts as constituted by the said Act shall become and be Registration Officers for that one of the Electoral Districts as defined in the substituted Schedule which bears the same name as the Electoral District to or for which at the time of the passing of this Act he was appointed or acting and immediately on the passing of this Act such Registration Officers shall respectively prepare new Electoral Rolls for the districts as defined in the said substituted Schedule.

Mode of forming new rolls.

6. For the purpose of forming such new Electoral Rolls the name of every elector registered on the roll for the time being in force of any Electoral District as constituted before the passing of this Act shall be placed on the new Electoral Roll of that one of the Electoral Districts as defined in the said substituted Schedule in which the tenements or hereditaments in respect whereof he is so registered are situate.

Publication and effect of new rolls.

7. Upon such new Electoral Rolls being so formed by each officer as aforesaid the same shall forthwith be transmitted by such officer to the Colonial Secretary and shall be published in such convenient manner as the Governor shall direct and from the day of such publication the Electoral Roll so formed for each District as defined in the substituted Schedule shall be the Electoral Roll to be used for such District for all purposes until a revised Electoral Roll for the same shall be in force under the provisions of the law for the time being for the registration of electors.

Each sitting Member for District constituted by the said Act to be Members for Districts as defined in substituted Schedule and bearing same name.

8. Each person who at the time of the passing of this Act is a Member of the House of Representatives for any Electoral District constituted by the said Act shall upon the passing of this Act be deemed to be and be a Member of the said House for that one of Electoral Districts as defined in the substituted Schedule which bears the same name as the Electoral District for which he at the time of the passing of this Act is such Member.
