1967, No. 116

An Act to amend the Reserves and Domains Act 1953

[23 November 1967]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Reserves and Domains Amendment Act 1967, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Reserves and Domains Act 1953 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Change of purposes or revocation of reservation—Section 18 of the principal Act (as amended by section 2 (2) of the Reserves and Domains Amendment Act 1965) is hereby further amended by adding the following subsection:

“(7) For the purposes of subsection (5) of this section, where any public reserve in any county (including any town district forming part of a county) or in any road district was vested in Her Majesty under the provisions of section 13 of the Land Subdivision in Counties Act 1946 or section 16 of the Land Act 1924 or section 17 of the Land Laws Amendment Act 1920 or was purchased out of money in the Land for Settlements Account or the Land Settlement Account under the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 14 of the Land Subdivision in Counties Act 1946 and was later vested in the Corporation of the county or road district as a public reserve, other than a reserve for road or access-way or service-lane purposes, then the title of the Corporation to that reserve shall be deemed to have been derived by the Corporation otherwise than from the Crown.”

3. General penalty for offences—Section 90 of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the words “and, where the offence is a continuing one, whether by a person or a body corporate, to a further fine not exceeding ten dollars for every day on which the offence has continued”.

This Act is administered in the Department of Lands and Survey.
