2. (1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section fifteen, and substituting the following section:—

Property may be disposed of
for other charitable purposes.

“ 15. In any case where property is held upon trust for a particular charitable purpose and it is impossible or impracticable or inexpedient to carry out that purpose, or the amount available is inadequate to carry out that purpose, or that purpose has been effected already, or that purpose is illegal or uncertain, then the property so held or any part or residue thereof may be disposed of for some other charitable purpose, or a combination of such purposes, in the manner and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained.”

(2) The provisions of the said section as so substituted shall apply with respect to trusts created before or after the passing of the principal Act.

(3) Section four of the Religious, Charitable, and Educational Trusts Amendment Act 1928 is hereby consequentially repealed.
