1889, No. 20.

AN ACT to enable Local Bodies to make Amended Requisitions in certain Cases. Title.
[16th September, 1889.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Requisitions Validation Act, 1889.” Short Title.

2. Whenever an appeal is made by any local authority against a requisition made on it by a District Board under the provisions of “The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1885,” and the appeal is successful, the District Board may make an amended requisition in accordance with the recommendations (if any) of the Commissioners who heard the appeal, and such amended requisition shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be an original requisition, and shall take the place of the requisition which was appealed against. Amended requisition may be made in cases of appeal.

3. The aforesaid local authority shall, upon receipt of such amended requisition, forthwith pay the amount of the contribution thereby required in manner as provided in section twenty-six of “The Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1885;” and, if necessary for the purpose of raising any rate, as in the said section mentioned, the Governor in Council is hereby empowered to fix all times and to authorise all things to be done under “The Rating Act, 1876,” or “The Rating Act, 1882,” to enable such rate to be made, levied, and collected as nearly as may be in accordance with the provisions of the herein last-mentioned Acts respectively. Local authority to pay in accordance with such requisition.
