BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Samoa Amendment Act 1959, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Samoa Act 1921 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

PART I

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

2. Commencement—This Part of this Act shall come into force on the first day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.

3. Executive government vested in the Crown—The executive government of Western Samoa is hereby declared to be vested in Her Majesty the Queen in right of the Government of New Zealand.

Cf. 1957, No. 22, s. 4

4. High Commissioner of Western Samoa—(1) There shall be a High Commissioner of Western Samoa, who shall be appointed by the Governor-General, and shall in the exercise of his powers and the discharge of his functions be subject to the general control of the Minister of Island Territories of New Zealand.

(2) The High Commissioner shall be a member of the Council of State in accordance with the provisions of section eight of this Act.

(3) The High Commissioner shall also be the representative in Western Samoa of the Government of New Zealand, and as such representative he shall exercise such functions, powers, and authorities as will enable him to give effect to the responsibilities of the Government of New Zealand in relation to Western Samoa and in particular to the responsibilities of the Government of New Zealand in relation to the external affairs and defence of Western Samoa and to any land vested in the Crown in right of the Government of New Zealand.

(4) The High Commissioner shall be paid out of the Samoan Treasury such salary and allowances as may be fixed from time to time by the Minister of Island Territories of New Zealand.

Cf. 1957, No. 22, s. 5

5. Deputy High Commissioner of Western Samoa—(1) The Governor-General may from time to time appoint a fit person to be Deputy High Commissioner of Western Samoa.

(2) While the office of High Commissioner is vacant, the Deputy shall, without further authority or appointment, assume and exercise all the powers and authorities and perform all the functions of the High Commissioner, and all the provisions of the principal Act and its amendments (including this Act) and of any regulations thereunder and of any Ordinance and of any other enactment or law in force in Western Samoa with respect to the High Commissioner shall extend and apply to the Deputy accordingly.

(3) The authority of the Deputy to act as aforesaid shall continue until a new High Commissioner has been appointed and has assumed the duties of his office in Western Samoa.

Cf. 1957, No. 22, s. 6

6. Sickness or absence of High Commissioner—(1) If at any time the High Commissioner is incapable by reason of sickness or otherwise of performing the office of High Commissioner, or is or proposes to be absent from Western Samoa, or is or proposes to be absent from Apia, he may, by instrument in writing, authorise the Deputy High Commissioner to act on his behalf during the period of that incapacity or absence.

(2) Any such instrument may limit, in such manner as the High Commissioner thinks fit, the authority of the Deputy with respect to the matters to which that authority extends.

(3) Subject to any limitations so expressed in the instrument, the Deputy so authorised may exercise all the powers and authorities and perform all the functions of the High Commissioner, and all the provisions of the principal Act and its amendments (including this Act) and of any regulations thereunder and of any Ordinance and of any other enactment or law in force in Western Samoa with respect to the High Commissioner shall extend and apply to the Deputy accordingly.

(4) Any such instrument may be at any time revoked by the High Commissioner.

(5) No such instrument, and no act done in pursuance thereof by the Deputy, shall be questioned or invalidated on the ground that the occasion for the instrument or for the exercise of the powers and authorities or the performance of the functions of the Deputy had not arisen or had ceased, and no act done by the High Commissioner shall be questioned or invalidated on the ground that any such instrument was still in force.

Cf. 1957, No. 22, s. 7

7. *Fautua—(1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, appoint Samoans to be Fautua.

(2) The manner of recommending Samoans for appointment as Fautua, and the terms and conditions of their appointment, and the number of Fautua that may from time to time be appointed may be prescribed by the Governor-General by Order in Council or, where there is no such Order in Council or so far as any such Order in Council does not extend, by Ordinance.

Cf. 1957, No. 22, s. 9

(a) All the functions, powers, and authorities conferred on the High Commissioner by the principal Act or its amendments or by any regulations thereunder or by any Ordinance or by any other enactment or law in force in Western Samoa; and

(b) The functions, powers, and authorities conferred upon the Council of State by this Act or by any Ordinance.

(4) The Council of State shall not exercise the functions, powers, and authorities which may be exercised by the High Commissioner as representative of the Government of New Zealand in accordance with the provisions of section four of this Act.

(5) All functions, powers, and authorities exercised by the Council of State under this section shall be exercised as far as may be on advice in accordance with the constitutional conventions for the time being applicable to the exercise of similar functions, powers, and authorities in the United Kingdom by Her Majesty.

(6) Every member of the Council of State shall, before entering on the duties of his office, take and subscribe before the Chief Judge of the High Court of Western Samoa an oath in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Act, or make before the said Chief Judge an appropriate affirmation instead of that oath.

Cf. 1957, No. 22, s. 10

9. Delegation of powers by Council of State—(1) The Council of State may from time to time, either generally or particularly, delegate any of the functions, powers, and authorities conferred on it by subsection three of section eight of this Act to any Minister:

Provided that no function, power, or authority conferred by the Samoa Amendment Act 1957 or this Act shall be so delegated.

(2) Every such delegation shall be made by Order of the Council of State acting on the advice and with the consent of the Executive Council, and shall be revocable in like manner.

(3) Where any Minister purports to act pursuant to any delegation under this section, he shall be presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation in the absence of proof to the contrary.

10. Personal staff of the Council of State—(1) Except as provided in subsection two of this section, the appointment, terms of service, disciplinary control, termination of appointment, and dismissal of the staff of the Council of State, and of the personal staff of its members (other than the High Commissioner), shall be matters for the Council of State acting in its discretion.

(2) The Council of State, if it so desires, may appoint to its staff, or to the personal staff of one of its members other than the High Commissioner, such public servants as it may select, acting in its discretion but after consultation with the Prime Minister of Western Samoa, from a list submitted by the Public Service Commission of Western Samoa; and the provisions of subsection one of this section (except so far as they relate to appointment) shall apply in relation to a person so appointed as respects his service on the staff of the Council of State or the personal staff of one of its members (other than the High Commissioner), but not as respects his service as a public servant.

(3) One of the members of the staff of the Council of State shall be appointed as Secretary to the Council of State.

11. Remuneration of Fautua and staff of the Council of State—There shall be paid out of money to be appropriated by the legislative assembly—

- (a) The salaries and allowances of the Fautua at such rate or rates as may be fixed by Ordinance:
- (b) The salaries and allowances of the staff of the Council of State, and of the personal staff of its members other than the High Commissioner, at such rate or rates as may be fixed from time to time by the Council of State:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to any person appointed to any such staff under subsection two of section ten of this Act.

(4) Decisions taken at any meeting of the Council of State shall require the affirmative vote of at least two members of the Council of State, and shall be authenticated by an instrument under the hand of the High Commissioner and at least one other member of the Council of State.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the principal Act or this Act, if any person or authority, in accordance with the provisions of subsection five of section eight of this Act, tenders advice to the Council of State as to the exercise of any function, power, or authority of the Council of State, and if the Council of State does not, within seven days after the date on which the tendering of that advice comes to the notice of the Secretary to the Council of State, decide either to accept that advice or to take some other action in relation thereto which it is entitled to take in accordance with that subsection, the Council of State shall be deemed to have accepted that advice; and an instrument under the hand of the High Commissioner to that effect shall operate as the exercise of the function, power, or authority concerned in accordance with that advice.

(6) The members of the Council of State shall be provided with:

- (a) Copies of the agenda and minutes of the Cabinet and of all other papers laid before the Cabinet at the time when they are circulated to Ministers; and

  - (d) At least one member of the Cabinet shall be a European elected member of the Legislative Assembly:
  - (e) Appointments under this subsection shall be made by the Council of State by instrument under the Seal of Western Samoa.

14. Vacation of office—(1) The Council of State shall terminate the appointment of the Prime Minister—

- (a) If the Prime Minister ceases to be a member of the Legislative Assembly for any reason other than a dissolution thereof; or

- (b) If the Legislative Assembly passes a motion in express words of no confidence in the Government or if the Government is defeated on any question or issue which the Prime Minister has declared to be a question or issue of confidence:

Provided that, if in the event of such motion or defeat the Prime Minister so requests, the Council of State may dissolve the Legislative Assembly instead of terminating the appointment of the Prime Minister; or

- (c) If the Prime Minister resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Council of State; or
(d) If the Prime Minister is absent from Western Samoa without written permission given by the Council of State.

(2) The office of any other Minister shall become vacant—

- (a) If the appointment of the Prime Minister has been terminated; or

(e) If the Minister is absent from Western Samoa without written permission given by the Council of State acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister.

(3) Whenever, by reason of illness or absence from Western Samoa with the written permission of the Council of State, the Prime Minister is temporarily prevented from discharging his functions in Western Samoa, the Council of State may, by instrument under the Seal of Western Samoa, appoint another Minister to discharge the functions of the Prime Minister until such time as the Prime Minister is capable of again discharging those functions or has vacated his office.

(4) The powers conferred on the Council of State by subsection three of this section shall be exercised by it acting in its discretion if in its opinion it is impracticable to obtain the advice of the Prime Minister owing to the Prime Minister's illness or absence, and in any other case shall be exercised by the Council of State acting on the advice of the Prime Minister.

(a) Declare a Minister to be by reason of illness temporarily incapable of discharging his functions as a Minister:

(b) Suspend a Minister during the period of any investigation or inquiry into the conduct of that Minister.

(6) Any Minister in respect of whom action has been taken under subsection five of this section shall not discharge any of the functions of his office or sit or vote in the Cabinet until the Council of State, acting on the advice of the Prime Minister, has revoked the aforesaid instrument under the Seal of Western Samoa.

15. Official oath—Every Minister shall, before entering on the duties of his office, take and subscribe before the Council of State an oath in the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act or make before the Council of State an appropriate affirmation instead of that oath.

Each Minister shall have an original vote and, if upon any question the votes are equally divided, the Minister presiding may exercise a casting vote.

(5) A decision of the Cabinet shall be recorded in minutes which shall, under the hand of the Secretary to Cabinet, be communicated within twenty-four hours after its being made to the Secretary to the Council of State.

(6) Subject to the provisions of subsection seven of this section, a decision of Cabinet shall not take effect until the expiration of seven days after the date of the meeting at which it was made, unless it takes effect in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-two of this Act.

(7) In any case in which the issue involved in a decision of Cabinet is, in the opinion of a majority of the Ministers present and voting at the meeting at which that decision is taken, of extreme urgency, that decision shall take effect on the expiration of twenty-four hours after the time when the minutes in which the decision of Cabinet is recorded are communicated to the Secretary to the Council of State under the provisions of subsection five of this section, unless a meeting of the Executive Council is sooner summoned in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-two of this Act.

(3) If on consideration by the Executive Council of a decision referred to that Council under the provisions of subsection one of this section any two members of the Council of State oppose that decision or request any amendment thereto, Cabinet shall thereupon be summoned in accordance with the provisions of section sixteen of this Act and requested to reconsider the decision concerned.

(4) If Cabinet after such reconsideration reaffirms its original decision or accepts the amendment requested by the two members of the Council of State, the original decision or the decision as so amended, as the case may be, shall forthwith take effect as a decision of Cabinet and as a decision of the Executive Council.

(5) If Cabinet, after reconsideration as aforesaid, adopts a decision which incorporates an amendment to its original decision, other than the amendment requested by the two members of the Council of State under subsection two of this section, the decision as so amended shall operate as a new decision of Cabinet and the provisions of subsections five, six, and seven of section seventeen of this Act, and of this section shall apply to that decision.

27. Public Service Commission—(1) There is hereby established a Commission to be known as the Public Service Commission of Western Samoa.

(2) The Commission shall consist of not more than three persons, who shall be appointed by the Council of State on the advice of the Executive Council:

Provided that the person holding office as Public Service Commissioner of Western Samoa immediately before the commencement of this Act shall become a member of the Commission at the commencement of this Act.

(3) One of the members of the Commission shall be appointed by the Council of State, on the advice of the Executive Council, as the Chairman of the Commission.

(4) Every member of the Commission shall be appointed for a term of not more than three years but may from time to time be reappointed for a term of not more than three years.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the rights, whether as to superannuation or the term of appointment or otherwise, of any person holding office at the commencement of this Part of this Act as the Public Service Commissioner or as Samoan Assistant Public Service Commissioner.

(6) No person shall be eligible for appointment or re-appointment as a member of the Commission if he has attained the age of sixty years.

(7) Unless he sooner vacates his office, every member of the Commission shall continue in office until his successor comes into office, notwithstanding that the term for which he was appointed may have expired or that he has attained the age of sixty years.

(8) In the event of the incapacity of any member of the Commission by reason of illness or absence or any other cause, the Council of State, on the advice of the Executive Council, may appoint a deputy to act for that member during his incapacity, and any such deputy shall, while he acts as such, be deemed for all purposes to be a member of the Commission. No appointment of a deputy as such, and no acts done by the Commission when any deputy is acting as such, shall in any proceedings be questioned on the ground that the occasion for his appointment had not arisen or had ceased.

(9) The powers of the Commission shall not be affected by any vacancy in the number of its members.

28. Salaries of members of Commission—The Chairman of the Public Service Commission, and each other member of the Commission, shall be paid such salaries as may from time to time be appropriated by the Legislative Assembly of Western Samoa.

29. Functions of the Commission—(1) The Public Service Commission shall be responsible for—

- (b) The gradings and salaries to which officers and employees should be appointed, promoted, or transferred; and
- (c) Discipline, dismissals, leave conditions, working conditions, staff training, departmental organisation, and working methods in the Western Samoan Public Service.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section thirty of the Samoa Amendment Act 1949, the Commission shall, in the exercise of its functions and powers, comply with the general policy of the Government of Western Samoa relating to the Western Samoan Public Service, and shall comply with such policy directions as may from time to time be given by the Executive Council to the Commission.

(3) Every reference in the principal Act or any other Act or Ordinance or regulation or document to the Public Service Commissioner or to the Assistant Commissioners shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the Commission or the members of the Commission, as the case may be.

30. Meetings of Commission—(1) Meetings of the Public Service Commission shall be held at such times and places as the Commission or the Chairman from time to time appoints.

(2) At all meetings of the Commission two members shall form a quorum, except when there are less than two members of the Commission in office.

(3) At any meeting of the Commission, the Chairman shall have a deliberative vote, and in the case of an equality of votes shall have a casting vote.

(4) All questions before the Commission shall be determined by a majority of the valid votes recorded thereon.

32. Delegation of powers—(1) The Public Service Commission may from time to time, either generally or particularly, delegate any of its powers to any of its members or to any other person or persons; and may delegate to the Board of Directors of the Western Samoa Trust Estates Corporation such of its powers in relation to the appointment and control of employees of the Corporation or any particular class of those employees as the Commission thinks fit.

(2) Subject to any general or special directions given by the Commission, the person to whom any powers are so delegated may exercise those powers in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred on him directly by this section and not by delegation.

(3) Every person purporting to act pursuant to any delegation under this section shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(4) Any delegation under this section may be made to a specified person or to persons of a specified class or to a Board of Directors or to the holder for the time being of a specified office.

(5) Every such delegation shall be revocable at will, and no such delegation shall prevent the exercise of any power by the Commission.

(6) Unless and until any such delegation is revoked, it shall continue in force according to its tenor. In the event of any member of the Commission ceasing to hold office, the delegation shall continue to have effect as if made by the Commission as it is for the time being constituted; and, in the event of any member of any such Board of Directors ceasing to hold office, the delegation shall continue to have effect as if made to that Board of Directors as it is for the time being constituted.

33. Protection of status—Where any person who is appointed to be a member of the Public Service Commission was employed in the Western Samoan Public Service or the New Zealand Government service immediately before he was appointed to be a member of the Commission, that person shall, unless he was removed from office under section thirty-four of this Act, be eligible for any position in the service in which he was employed as if he retained the status in that service which he had immediately before he was so appointed:

Provided that, where any higher status in the New Zealand Government service is conferred on any such person after he became a member of the Commission, he shall, unless he is so removed from office, be eligible for any position in that service as if he had that higher status.

34. Removal from office—(1) On the advice of the Executive Council, any member of the Commission may be removed or suspended from office by the Council of State for misbehaviour or incompetence, or for engaging without the approval of the Council of State during his term of office in any paid employment or any business or profession outside the duties of his said office or of any other office in the Western Samoan Public Service or the New Zealand Government service held by him concurrently during his said term of office.

(2) On the advice of the Executive Council, the Council of State may restore as a member of the Commission any person who is suspended from his office as aforesaid.
