1966, No. 88

An Act to amend the Superannuation Act 1956

[20 October 1966

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Amendment Act 1966, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Superannuation Act 1956 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Interpretation—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 72, the following section:

“72A. In this Part of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“‘Judge of the Maori Land Court’ means any person who for the time being holds that office under section 16 of the Maori Affairs Act 1953, except a person appointed to that office for a specified period of less than five years:

“‘Magistrate’ means a person who for the time being holds that office under section 5 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1947; and includes a person who has held office continuously as a Magistrate under section 10 of that Act from the commencement of this section and who is not in receipt of a retiring allowance from the Fund.”

3. Election to surrender proportion of retiring allowance and receive cash payment—(1) Section 91 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from subsection (2A) (as inserted by section 7 (3) of the Superannuation Amendment Act 1963) the words “on that date”, and substituting the words “on the earliest day on which the contributor would be entitled to a retiring allowance under this Act if he was living and had retired”.

(2) Section 91 of the principal Act is hereby further amended by adding the following subsection:

“(5) Except as provided in subsection (1A) of this section (as inserted by section 14 of the Superannuation Amendment Act 1962) any sum which a contributor is entitled to receive under this section instead of a proportion of a retiring allowance shall become payable on the date on which the contributor becomes entitled to the retiring allowance:

“Provided that where any contributor dies on or after the date on which his election becomes effective but before a retiring allowance becomes payable, he shall for the purposes of this subsection be deemed to have become entitled to a retiring allowance on the date of his death.”

(3) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and sixty-six.
