1968, No. 109

An Act to amend the Superannuation Act 1956

[13 December 1968]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Amendment Act 1968, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Superannuation Act 1956 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Allowance to associate teachers—(1) Subsection (1) of section 2 of the Superannuation Act 1956 (as amended by section 2 (1) of the Superannuation Amendment Act 1963) is hereby further amended by adding to the definition of the term “salary” the words “or any additional salary payable in respect of any period after the thirty-first day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, to any associate teacher or other teacher by reason of the fact that he has students attending his classes for purposes of observation and training as teachers”.

(2) Where at the first day of February, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, any additional salary is payable to any associate teacher or other teacher who is a contributor while he has

students in his classroom for training purposes, that contributor may, at any time before the first day of August, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, elect to contribute to the Fund in respect of the additional salary that he may from time to time receive by reason of the fact that he has students attending his classes for purposes of observation and training as teachers; and where any contributor so elects the principal Act shall be read in relation to that contributor as if subsection (1) of this section had not been passed.

3. Contributions by Judges in respect of temporary service—Section 78 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection (1), the following subsections:

“(1A) Where any person who becomes or has become a contributor under this section at any time after the sixteenth day of November, nineteen hundred and sixty-seven, was, immediately before becoming a contributor, holding office as a temporary Judge under section 11 of the Judicature Act 1908, he may elect to contribute in respect of his period of service as a temporary Judge; and, on payment of such contributions as the Minister of Finance may determine, he shall be deemed for the purposes of section 76 of this Act to have been appointed as a Judge within the meaning of section 75 of this Act on the commencement of his period of service as a temporary Judge.

“(1B) Every election under subsection (1A) of this section shall be made by notice in writing addressed to the Minister of Justice within three months of the Judge becoming a contributor under this section or before the first day of April, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, whichever is the later.”

This Act is administered in the Treasury.
