[28th September 1860.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made for obtaining the Opinion of a Superior Court on questions of Law which arise in the exercise of Summary Jurisdiction by Justices of the Peace : Be it enacted by the General Assembly of New Zealand, in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Preamble.

I. The Short Title of this Act shall be the "Summary Proceedings Improvement Act, 1860." Short Title.

II. In the Interpretation, and for the purposes of this Act, the word "Court" shall mean the Supreme Court of New Zealand, and the words "Justice or Justices" shall include a Resident Magistrate. Interpretation of terms.

Summary Proceedings Improvement.

Justices on application of a party aggrieved to state a case for the opinion of Court.

III. After the hearing and determination by a Justice or Justices of the Peace of any information or complaint which he or they have power to determine in a summary way by any Law now in force or hereafter to be made, either party to the Proceeding before the said Justice or Justices may, if dissatisfied with the said determination as being erroneous in point of Law, apply in writing within three days after the same to the said Justice or Justices to state and sign a case setting forth the facts and the grounds of such determination for the opinion thereon of the Court, and such Party, hereinafter called the "Appellant," shall within fourteen days after receiving such case transmit the same to the Court, first giving notice in writing of such Appeal, with a copy of the case so stated and signed to the other Party to the proceeding in which the determination was given, hereinafter called the "Respondent": Provided always that no such determination may be appealed against on the ground of improper admission or rejection of evidence.

Security and notice to be given by the Appellant.

IV. The Appellant, at the time of making such application, and before the case shall be stated and delivered to him by the Justice or Justices, shall in every instance enter into a recognizance before such Justice or Justices, or any one or more of them, or any other Justice exercising the same jurisdiction with or without Surety or Sureties, and in such sum as to the Justice or Justices shall seem meet, conditioned to prosecute without delay such appeal, and to submit to the judgment of the Court and pay such costs as may be awarded by the same; and the Appellant shall at the same time and before he shall be entitled to have the case delivered to him, pay the fees for and in respect of the case and recognizances, according to the Schedule to this Act annexed, which fees may from time to time be varied or abolished by the Governor in Council; and the Appellant, if then in custody, shall be liberated upon the recognizance being further conditioned for his appearance before the same Justice or Justices, or if that is impracticable, before some other Justice or Justices exercising the same Jurisdiction, who shall be then sitting, within ten days after the judgment of the Court shall have been given, to abide such judgment, unless the determination appealed against be reversed.

Justices may refuse a case when they think the application frivolous.

V. If the Justice or Justices be of opinion that the application be merely frivolous, but not otherwise, he or they may refuse to state a case, and shall on request of the Appellant sign and deliver to him a certificate of such refusal: Provided that the Justice or Justices shall not refuse to state a case when application for that purpose is made to them by or under the direction of Her Majesty's Attorney-General for the Colony.

When the Justices refuse the Court may by rule order a case to be stated.

VI. When the Justice or Justices shall refuse to state a case as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Appellant to apply to the Court upon an affidavit of the facts for a Rule calling upon such Justice or Justices, and also upon the Respondent, to show cause why such case should not be stated, and the Court may make the same absolute or discharge it with or without payment of costs, as to the Court shall seem meet, and the Justice or Justices upon being served with such rule absolute, shall state a case

After the decision of Court, Justices may issue warrants.

XI. No Writ of Certiorari or other Writ shall be required for the removal of a conviction, order, or other determination in relation to which a case is stated under this Act, or otherwise for obtaining the judgment or determination of the Court on such case under this Act.
