An Act to amend the Social Security Act 1964

[17 July 1970]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Social Security Amendment Act 1970, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Social Security Act 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

PART I

MONETARY BENEFITS

2. Special provisions in respect of maintenance—Section 61B of the principal Act (as inserted by section 4 (1) of the Social Security Amendment Act 1968) is hereby amended by repealing subsection (4), and substituting the following subsections:

“(4) Notwithstanding anything in the Domestic Proceedings Act 1968, if—

“(a) Any person is required to make periodical payments of sums of money towards the maintenance of any beneficiary or any child or children in the care of the beneficiary in accordance with a maintenance agreement that is for the time being registered under section 55 of that Act; or

“(b) The sums of money payable towards the maintenance of any beneficiary or any child or children in the care of the beneficiary in accordance with a maintenance order made under that Act have been consented or agreed to by both the beneficiary and the person liable to pay the money—and the amount of the sums of money so payable is, in the opinion of the Commission, inadequate for the maintenance of the beneficiary or any child or children in the care of the beneficiary, the Commission may apply to the Magistrate’s Court in which the agreement was registered or which made the order, as the case may be, for a variation of the agreement or order; and, notwithstanding anything in section 85 of that Act, the Court may, after having regard to such of the provisions of that Act relating to the making of maintenance orders as it considers relevant, vary the agreement or order.

“(5) Jurisdiction in respect of any proceedings under subsection (4) of this section shall be exercised by a Magistrate’s Court presided over by a Magistrate appointed under section 7 of the Domestic Proceedings Act 1968 to exercise the domestic jurisdiction of the Court.”

3. Increasing rates of benefits—(1) The principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing the First to Tenth, Twelfth, and Fourteenth Schedules (as substituted by section 7 (1) of the Social Security Amendment Act 1969) and the Fifteenth Schedule (as added by section 19 (3) of the Social Security Amendment Act 1969), and substituting the First to Tenth, Twelfth, Fourteenth, and Fifteenth Schedules set out in the Schedule to this Act.

(2) Section 7 and subsection (3) of section 19 of the Social Security Amendment Act 1969 and the First and Second Schedules to that Act are hereby repealed.

(3) This section and the Schedule to this Act shall be deemed to have come into force on the 15th day of April 1970.

PART II

MEDICAL AND HOSPITAL BENEFITS AND OTHER RELATED BENEFITS

4. Interpretation—Subsection (1) of section 88 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing the definition of the term “specialist medical services”, and substituting the following definition:

“Specialist medical services’ means medical services that involve the application of special skill and experience of a degree or kind that general medical practitioners as a class cannot reasonably be expected to possess; but does not include services that are within any of the following classes:

“(a) Medical services afforded in relation to maternity benefits under this Part of this Act:

“(b) Medical services provided by any medical practitioner to his dependants or his partner or the dependants of his partner or to other persons from whom or in respect of whom he would not be entitled to recover any fees if neither this Act nor the Social Security Amendment Act 1941 had been passed:

“(c) Medical services provided by any medical practitioner under any agreement made by him with a friendly society or branch registered under the Friendly Societies Act 1909:

“(d) Such types of services as are for the time being declared not to be general medical services by regulations made under section 123 of this Act:

“(e) Such services as may, by regulations made pursuant to section 123 of this Act, be declared not to be specialist medical services for the purposes of this Part of this Act, either absolutely or in special circumstances to be defined in the regulations.”

5. Rural practice bonuses—(1) Section 94A of the principal Act (as inserted by section 12 of the Social Security Amendment Act 1969) is hereby amended by adding to subsection (1) the words “Any such notice may at any time in a like manner be revoked in whole or in part or amended.”

(2) The said section 94A (as so inserted) is hereby further amended by inserting, after subsection (1), the following subsection:

“(1A) Every such notice shall come into force on the date specified in that behalf in the notice (which may be a date before or after or the same as the date on which the notice is gazetted) or, where no date is specified, on the date on which the notice is gazetted.”

(3) The said section 94A (as so inserted) is hereby further amended by adding to subsection (3) the words “, and may at any time determine that the said subsection (2) shall no longer apply to any medical practitioner to whom it has been so applied. Every decision of the Minister under this subsection shall take effect on such date as the Minister determines, which may be a date before or after or the same as the date on which the decision is made.”

(4) The said section 94A (as so inserted) is hereby further amended by adding the following subsections:

“(4) Where any area has been declared to be a rural area, or where the Minister has under subsection (3) of this section applied subsection (2) of this section to any medical practitioner, the said subsection (2) shall apply only in respect of general medical services provided on and after the date on which the area became a rural area, or the date on which the application of the said subsection (2) took effect, as the case may require.

“(5) Where any area has ceased to be a rural area, or where the Minister has determined under subsection (3) of this section that subsection (2) of this section shall no longer apply to any medical practitioner, the said subsection (2) shall apply in respect of general medical services provided before the date on which the area ceased to be a rural area, or the date on which the said subsection (2) ceased to apply to the medical practitioner, as the case may require, but not in respect of any general medical services provided on or after that date.”

(5) The Social Security (Rural Area) Notice 1969, and the Social Security (Rural Area) Notice 1969, Amendment No. 1, are hereby validated and declared to have been lawfully made, and shall both be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of October 1969.

(6) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of October 1969.

6. Specialist medical services—(1) Section 97 of the principal Act (as substituted by section 14 of the Social Security Amendment Act 1969) is hereby amended by omitting from subsection (4) the words “the person by whom the fee in respect of those services is paid to the medical practitioner”, and substituting the words “or where any specialist provides any specialist medical services for such a person who has not been referred to him by another medical practitioner, the person by whom the fee in respect of those services is paid to the medical practitioner or specialist”.

(2) The said section 97 (as so substituted) is hereby further amended by adding the following subsection:

“(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, but subject to paragraphs (b) to (e) of the definition of the term ‘general medical services’ in subsection (1) of section 88 of this Act—

“(a) The examination of a patient by an anaesthetist before an operation, without a specific request for the anaesthetist’s opinion on the condition of the patient from the medical practitioner who referred the patient to the anaesthetist; and

“(b) The administration of an anaesthetic by an anaesthetist—shall not be specialist medical services, but shall be general medical services.”

(3) Subsection (1) of this section shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of October 1969.

(4) Subsection (2) of this section shall apply only in respect of medical services provided on or after the date of the passing of this Act.

7. Termination of contracts—Section 122 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting in subsection (1), after the word “behalf”, the words “or fixed by any regulations for the time being in force under this Act,”.

8. Regulations—Section 123 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting in paragraph (h), after the words “general medical services”, the words “or not to be specialist medical services”.
