“(6) Where a person has been granted—

“(a) A benefit, or granted a benefit at a rate, that does not take into account any income-related insurance payment; or

“(b) A benefit of a kind referred to in any of sections 61EA, 61G, 69c, and 124 (1) (d) of this Act, or granted such a benefit at a rate, that does not take into account any debt insurance payment or health or disability insurance payment,—

(2) Section 69c (5) of the principal Act (as so inserted) is hereby amended by inserting, after the words “this section”, the words “but subject to section 68A of this Act”.

8. Transitional provisions—(1) In this section,—

“Benefit” includes the granting of special assistance under any welfare programme approved under section 124 (1) (d) of this Act:

“Mortgage security” and “premises” have the meanings ascribed to them in section 61E of this Act:

“Specified period” means the period commencing on the 1st day of January 1994 and ending on the close of the day on which this Act receives the Royal assent;—

and other terms and expressions have the meanings ascribed to them in section 3 of the principal Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, where a beneficiary was granted a benefit at a reduced rate during the specified period by reason of any debt insurance payment or health or disability insurance payment or income-related insurance payment, as the case may be, made to the beneficiary or to some other person on behalf of or for the benefit of the beneficiary or a member of his or her family, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) The Director-General shall calculate the difference between the amount of the benefit paid during that period and the amount of the benefit that would otherwise have been payable if this Act had been in force during that period:
 - (b) Where the result of the calculation is a deficiency in the payment made, the Director-General shall pay the amount of the deficiency to the beneficiary without further appropriation than this section; but may apply the amount of any such deficiency in reduction of the amount of any excess in the payment made of any other benefit affected by this section:
 - (c) Where the result of the calculation is an excess in the payment made, the Director-General shall write off the amount of that excess under the authority of this section to the extent that it is not offset by the amount of any deficiency of payment of any other benefit affected by this section:
 - (d) The Director-General shall also make such adjustments as are appropriate to the rate of the benefit payable after this Act comes into force.
- (3) No beneficiary—
- (a) Who was granted an accommodation supplement and another benefit during the specified period; and
 - (b) Whose rate of accommodation supplement or other benefit during that period was or were affected by reason of any debt insurance payment made to the beneficiary or to some other person on behalf of or for the benefit of the beneficiary, being a payment in respect of the beneficiary's mortgage security over his or her premises,— shall have the total rate of payment that is made to him or her under that accommodation supplement and other benefit reduced by reason only of the coming into force of this Act, but nothing in this subsection shall prevent the Director-General subsequently reviewing the rate of accommodation supplement or other benefit, or both, payable to that beneficiary.

9. Savings—(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, every decision or determination of the Director-General made before the 1st day of January 1994 in assessing or deciding not to assess any debt insurance payment or health or disability insurance payment or income-related insurance payment, as the case may be, as income for any purpose under the principal Act is hereby confirmed and declared to be and always to have been valid.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section affects—

(3) In this section, terms and expressions have the meanings ascribed to them in section 3 of the principal Act.

This Act is administered in the Department of Social Welfare.
