Title.

AN ACT to provide for the Establishment of Training-ships.

[20th October, 1906.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Training-ships Act, 1906.”

Training-ships.

2. The Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, declare any ship belonging to or under the control of the Government to be a training-ship under this Act.

Officers.

3. The Governor may from time to time appoint such officers and instructors for any such training-ship as he thinks fit.

Regulations.

4. The Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, make regulations—

- (a.) Prescribing the duties of officers and instructors of training-ships;
- (b.) Prescribing what provisions of the Acts affecting the Civil Service shall apply to such officers and instructors, and exempting them or any of them from all or any of the provisions of those Acts;
- (c.) Prescribing the mode and conditions of application by or on behalf of youths for admission to any training-ship, and of their admission thereto, and dismissal and discharge therefrom;
- (d.) Fixing amounts to be paid to or on behalf of youths so admitted;
- (e.) Providing for the maintenance, care, training, and education of youths so admitted;

(f.) Providing for the discipline of all persons on board a training-ship, and for reasonable punishments and penalties for breaches of discipline ; and

(g.) Generally for giving effect to this Act.

5. All expenses incurred under this Act shall be paid out of Expenses. moneys appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.
