AN ACT to amend "The Arms Act, 1860." Title.
 [19th August, 1873.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Arms Acts Amendment Act, 1873." Short Title.

2. Every person convicted of any offence punishable under "The Arms Act, 1860," as altered and continued by any Act now in force, by penal servitude, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be kept in penal servitude for any such term as is authorized by the said Act, as altered and continued by any Act now in force, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour. Court may sentence certain offenders against "Arms Act, 1860," to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, instead of penal servitude.

3. In the sixty-second section of "The Arms Act, 1860," the word "two" is hereby substituted for the word "three" where the same occurs in the said section. "Two" substituted for "three" years as term of imprisonment which may be awarded to persons convicted of misdemeanour under "The Arms Act, 1860."

4. The words "without a license in the Form A in the said Schedule" shall be omitted from the thirty-second section of the said Act. Thirty-second section of said Act amended.
