of the trusts, purposes, and objects in and for which the land hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter described in the Schedule hereto was granted, it is desirable to vest the said land in Trustees, and to provide for the management of the said land :

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be “The Tapanui Agricultural and Pastoral Exhibition Reserve Act, 1877.” Short Title.

2. The lands described in the Schedule hereto shall be and are hereby absolutely vested in John Fry Kitching, David McKellar, James Rodgers, John Francis Herbert, and Francis William Mackenzie, all of the Tapanui District, in the Provincial District of Otago, settlers, under the name of “The Tapanui Agricultural and Pastoral Reserve Trust,” and such Trust shall be a corporation, and have all the powers, rights, and privileges of incorporated bodies. Lands vested in Trustees.

3. The District Land Registrar of Otago shall, on the deposit with him of a copy of the Act, grant a certificate of title to the said land vested by this Act to the said “Tapanui Agricultural and Pastoral Reserve Trust.” Land to be transferred.

4. The said land shall be held by the said Tapanui Agricultural and Pastoral Reserve Trust for the inhabitants of Tapanui as a site for the exhibition of stock, produce, and agricultural implements, and it shall not be lawful for the said Trust to sell or aliene the said land, nor to lease the same for any term of years longer than three years, and in every such lease it shall be expressly provided that at least once in every year the Trust shall permit the said land to be used for an exhibition of stock, produce, and agricultural implements. Trusts in which the lands are to be held.

5. All rents, issues, and profits received from the letting of the said land by the said Trust shall be expended in improving the said land, in providing proper accommodation for, and in granting premiums for and otherwise encouraging, the exhibition of stock, produce, and agricultural implements. Rents how appropriated.

6. If any member of the said Trust shall, by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor or to the said “Tapanui Agricultural and Pastoral Reserve Trust,” resign or shall be absent from the Provincial District of Otago for twelve months, or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent within the meaning of any Bankrupt or Insolvency Act, or take the benefit of any Act for the relief of debtors, or shall be convicted of any felony, he shall cease to be a member of the said Trust, and the Governor may, in case of any such vacancy, or in case of the death of any member, appoint another or others in his place. New Trustees how appointed.
