1977, No. 11

An Act to amend the Trade and Industry Act 1956

[29 July 1977]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Trade and Industry Amendment Act 1977, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Trade and Industry Act 1956 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Minister of Overseas Trade and Minister of Regional Development may exercise powers of Minister—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 2, the following section:

“2A. Any right, power, discretion, or authority that may be exercised by the Minister of Trade and Industry under this Act may also be exercised, at any time and in his own name, by the Minister of Overseas Trade or the Minister of Regional Development severally; and, where any such right, power, discretion, or authority is so exercised by the Minister of Overseas Trade or the Minister of Regional Development, all the provisions of this Act that would apply in respect thereof if that right, power, discretion, or authority had been exercised by the Minister of Trade and Industry shall apply (with all necessary modifications) in respect thereof as if every reference in those provisions to the Minister of Trade and Industry were a reference to the Minister of Overseas Trade or the Minister of Regional Development, as the case may be.”

(2) Section 2 of the principal Act is hereby consequentially amended by inserting in the definition of the term “Minister”, after the word “means”, the words “, subject to section 2A of this Act,”.

3. Control of imports—interpretation—Section 16A (2) of the principal Act (as inserted by section 2 of the Trade and Industry Amendment Act 1973) is hereby amended by inserting, after the expression “Part VIII,”, the expression “Part X,”.

This Act is administered in the Department of Trade and Industry.
