AN ACT to amend "The Interpretation Act, 1868." Title.
[26th September, 1872.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Interpretation Act Amendment Act, 1872." Short Title.

2. The Clerk of Parliaments instead of the Clerk of the Executive Council as provided by "The Interpretation Act, 1868," shall insert in this Act and every Act to be hereafter passed, immediately after the title thereof the day month and year when the same shall have been assented to by the Governor in Her Majesty's name; and when any Act shall have been reserved by the Governor for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, then the day month and year on which the Governor, by Speech Message or Proclamation, shall have signified that Her Majesty has assented to such Act; and every such date shall be taken to be a part of the Act and to be the date of its commencement, when no other commencement shall be therein provided. Clerk of Parliaments to indorse on Acts day &c. of assent.
