1903, No. 26.

Title.	AN ACT to provide for the Vesting in the Crown of Waters for Electrical Purposes and for the Utilising of such Waters for those Purposes. [23rd November, 1903.] BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
Short Title.	1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Water-power Act, 1903”; and it shall form part of and be read together with “The Public Works Act, 1894.”
Use of waterfalls, &c., for electrical purposes to vest in the Crown.	2. (1.) Subject to any rights lawfully held, the sole right to use water in lakes, falls, rivers, or streams for the purpose of generating or storing electricity or other power shall vest in His Majesty.
Acquisition of waterfalls for electrical purposes.	(2.) The Governor may from time to time acquire as for a public work any existing rights or any lands necessary for utilising water for the generation or storage of electrical power.
Delegation of powers to local authority.	3. The Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, delegate to any local authority, on such conditions as he thinks fit, the right to use water from any lake, fall, river, or stream for the purpose of generating electricity for lighting or motive power.
Power to grant rights for certain purposes.	4. Notwithstanding anything in this Act, the Minister for Public Works, outside a mining district, may, subject to such conditions as he thinks fit, grant to any person or company the right to use water from any fall, river, or stream for the purpose of— (a.) Generating electricity for lighting, to be used only for the purpose of and in connection with the business of such person or company, and not for the purpose of sale to or use by any other person, company, or corporation; and (b.) Driving any machinery used for any agricultural, industrial, or manufacturing purpose other than the generation or storage of electricity.

5. Nothing herein shall affect the right to the use of water for the irrigation of agricultural or pastoral lands, for the supply of water for stock, or under "The Mining Act, 1898," except the granting of water-rights for the generation of electric power for any other purpose save the applicant's own use : Use of water for mining purposes.

Provided that no application to a Warden for the use of more than forty heads of water shall be granted except with the consent in writing of the Minister of Mines.

6. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to invalidate or restrict any rights or privileges conferred by any existing Act of the General Assembly. Rights under any existing Act reserved.
