AN ACT to amend "The Weights and Measures Act, 1868." Title.
[15th September, 1873.]

WHEREAS by the nineteenth section of "The Weights and Measures Act, 1868," (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act,") it is enacted that there shall be paid to every Inspector appointed as in the said Act provided, such salary and such sums of money, by way of travelling expenses, during his tenure of office, as the Governor may direct, to be paid out of any moneys to be appropriated for the purpose by the General Assembly: And whereas by the fiftieth section of the said Act it is enacted that one-half of all penalties and proceeds of forfeiture under the said Act shall be paid to the Inspector or other person suing for the same, and the other half into the Public Account to the credit of the Consolidated Fund, and that the fees paid to Inspectors shall be accounted for as the Colonial Treasurer shall direct, and be paid to the Consolidated Fund: And whereas it is expedient that in lieu of the said penalties and proceeds of forfeitures being paid as by the said fiftieth section provided, and such fees being accounted for and paid as aforesaid, the same should be made revenue of the Province or County within which the same shall have arisen: Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New

Supplement to the New Zealand Gazette, No. 55, of the 18th September, 1873.

Weights and Measures Act Amendment.

Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be “The Weights and Measures Act Amendment Act, 1873.”

Provision of section 19 of the said Act as to salaries repealed.

2. So much of the nineteenth section of the said Act as provides that there shall be paid to every Inspector who may be appointed under the said Act such salary and such sums of money by way of travelling expenses during his tenure of office as the Governor may direct, to be paid out of any moneys to be appropriated for the purpose by the General Assembly, is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof it is enacted as follows:—

Salaries and travelling expenses of Inspector to be such as directed by Superintendent, and to be paid out of moneys appropriated by Province.

There shall be paid to every Inspector who may have been or shall hereafter be so appointed as in the said Act provided, such salary and such sums of money by way of travelling expenses during his tenure of office as such Inspector as the Superintendent of the Province within which such Inspector is appointed to act may direct; and such sums shall be paid out of any moneys to be appropriated for the purpose by the Provincial Legislature of such Province.

The half penalties and forfeitures payable to informers, and the Inspectors' fees, to be Provincial revenue.

3. All penalties and proceeds of forfeitures under the said Act shall, in lieu of being paid as provided by the fiftieth section of the said Act, be revenue of the Province or County within which the offence in respect of which such penalties and forfeitures shall have been recovered or enforced shall have been committed; and the fees payable to Inspectors, in lieu of being accounted for as in the said fiftieth section of the said Act provided, shall be revenue of the Province or County within which the Inspector to whom the same are paid is appointed to act; and all such penalties proceeds and fines shall be paid to the Provincial Account of such Province.

Act not to apply to offences committed before the passing of this Act.

4. Nothing in this Act shall affect any penalties or other forfeitures recovered or to be recovered in respect of any offence committed before the passing of this Act.

Superintendent may appoint Inspectors of Weights and Measures.

5. The power of appointing Inspectors of Weights and Measures, and of removing such Inspectors from office, vested in the Governor by the nineteenth section of the said Act, is hereby vested in the Superintendent of the Province for or within which any such Inspector shall have been appointed, and such powers shall and may be exercised by such Superintendent, with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, from time to time as occasion shall require: Provided that every Inspector holding office under the said Act shall continue to hold such office until resignation or removal from office, as by the said Act is provided.
