AN ACT to make further Provisions respecting Part of the Wellington City Reserves. [5th October, 1872.]

WHEREAS by "The Wellington City Reserves Act, 1871," it is amongst other things enacted that the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington should convey the whole of the land comprised in the First Schedule thereto annexed to the Mayor Councillors and Burgesses for the time being of the City of Wellington, to hold the same to the said Mayor Councillors and Burgesses and their successors upon such trusts and for such purposes of public utility to the City of Wellington and its inhabitants as should in and by the deed or deeds of conveyance thereof be expressed and declared:

And whereas it is by the said Act also enacted that the Superintendent might, with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, appropriate any part of the land described in the Second Schedule to the said Act to the purposes of a Lunatic Asylum for the Province of Wellington and of grounds to be annexed thereto, and might convey the same to Trustees for the purposes of such Asylum in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the said Superintendent, with the advice and consent aforesaid, should seem meet:

And whereas it is expedient that the Superintendent should in lieu of the powers aforesaid have the powers hereinafter mentioned:

Wellington City Reserves.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be “The Wellington City Reserves Act, 1872.”

Superintendent may convey land to Trustees for Collegiate purposes.

2. The Superintendent of the Province of Wellington may, with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, appropriate any part of the land described in the First Schedule to this Act to the purposes of a Collegiate Institution, affiliated or to be affiliated to the New Zealand University, and of grounds to be annexed thereto, and may convey the same to Trustees for the purposes of such Institution in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the said Superintendent, with such advice and consent as aforesaid, shall seem meet.

Superintendent may convey land to Trustees for purposes of Lunatic Asylum.

3. The said Superintendent may, with the advice and consent aforesaid, appropriate the residue of the said land described in the First Schedule to this Act, not appropriated under the authority lastly hereinbefore given, to the purposes of a Lunatic Asylum and of grounds to be annexed thereto, and may convey the same to Trustees for the purposes of such Asylum, in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the said Superintendent, with such advice and consent as aforesaid, shall seem meet.

Superintendent may set apart land for the purposes of a Signal Station.

4. The said Superintendent may, with the advice and consent aforesaid, set apart and appropriate for the purposes of a Signal Station in connection with the Harbour of Wellington, the piece or parcel of land described in the Second Schedule to this Act, and may by deed declare the same to be vested in him as such Superintendent as aforesaid for that purpose, in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the said Superintendent shall seem meet.

Superintendent may set apart land for the purposes of a Hospital.

5. The said Superintendent may, with the advice and consent aforesaid, set apart and appropriate for the purposes of a General Hospital, and of grounds to be annexed thereto, the land described in the Third Schedule to this Act, and may by deed either declare the same to be vested in him as such Superintendent as aforesaid, or may convey the same to Trustees for that purpose, in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the said Superintendent, with such advice and consent as aforesaid, shall seem meet. That the appropriation aforesaid shall be subject to the vested right, if any, of all persons and bodies politic or corporate which at the date of the passing of this Act exist under any deed or instrument appertaining or relating to the said land.

Superintendent may take soil &c. from lands described in Fourth Schedule.

6. The said Superintendent may take from any convenient part of the piece or parcel of land described in the Fourth Schedule to this Act, soil stone or other materials to be applied in reclaiming from the sea certain lands now vested in the said Superintendent, by virtue of a certain grant from the Crown dated the twentieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and may employ therein servants and workmen, with horses and carriages, and may by any instrument under his hand authorize them from time to time to enter upon any convenient part of the said land, and dig and remove therefrom, for the purposes of such reclamation as aforesaid, any soil stone or other materials: Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect existing rights to compensation possessed by the present lessees of such land or owners of adjacent lands: Provided also, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize any such reclamation, but only to authorize the doing of the acts hereinbefore specified for the purpose of reclaiming from the sea any lands which the Superintendent may otherwise be lawfully empowered to reclaim from the sea.

Wellington City Reserves.

7. Section six of "The Wellington City Reserves Act, 1871," is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof it is hereby enacted, that the said Superintendent may, with the advice and consent aforesaid, appropriate any part of the land described in the Second Schedule to the said Act, not exceeding twenty acres thereof, for the purposes of an Orphanage and Hospital and of grounds to be annexed thereto, and may convey the same to Trustees for the purposes of such Orphanage and Hospital, in such manner and subject to such conditions as to the said Superintendent, with the advice and consent aforesaid, shall seem meet: Provided that nothing herein contained shall authorize the granting of such land for the purposes of a denominational Orphanage and Hospital.

Repeal of section 6 of "The Wellington City Reserves Act, 1871," and fresh provisions in lieu thereof.

8. And whereas by a proviso contained in section four of "The Wellington City Reserves Act, 1871," it is enacted that of the moneys to be derived from the lands described in the First Schedule of the said Act, one-half shall be devoted to the ornamentation and utilization of the lands referred to in the said Act: And whereas it is expedient that a certain proportion of such moneys should be specially devoted to such of the lands described in the Second Schedule to the said Act as may under the provisions of that Act be conveyed to the Board of Governors of the Botanic Gardens: It is hereby enacted, that of the said half of moneys a proportion not less in amount than one-third thereof shall be annually paid by the Treasurer of the said Corporation to the Board of Governors of the Botanic Gardens, to be expended in accordance with the proviso above referred to in the ornamentation and utilization of the lands so to be conveyed to the said Board.

Portion of moneys to be spent on Botanic Gardens.

9. And whereas by the second proviso to section four of the said Act the other half of the said moneys is devoted to the making and maintenance of roads in the Town Belt: Be it enacted that a road along the harbour, beginning at the northern end of Kent Terrace and passing by Clyde Quay, Oriental Terrace to the Town Belt, is hereby declared to be a road to the making and maintenance of which such funds may be devoted.

Moneys to be applied to the maintenance of a road by Clyde Quay.
