1932-33, No. 44.

AN ACT to enable the Crown to carry out the Trusts accepted by the Crown in respect of certain Lands at Waitangi. Title.
[10th March, 1933.]

WHEREAS by transfer bearing date the first day of March, nineteen hundred and thirty-three, and given by the Right Honourable Charles, Baron Bledisloe, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Dominion of New Zealand, and the Right Honourable Alina Kate Elaine, Lady Bledisloe, his wife, in favour of His Majesty the King, the lands described in the Schedule hereto were transferred to His Majesty the King: And whereas such transfer was in trust for the purposes hereinafter mentioned: And whereas it is desirable that provision should be made to enable the Crown to carry out such trusts as aforesaid: Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Waitangi Endowment Act, 1932-33.

Trusts of Waitangi Endowment.

2. The said lands shall be held by the Crown under the name of the Waitangi Endowment, upon trust generally for afforestation and silvicultural purposes, and in particular upon trust to cultivate and maintain the same as a scenic background to the lands known as the Waitangi National Trust, and upon trust to pay from time to time to the Waitangi National Trust Board, constituted under the Waitangi National Trust Board Act, 1932, for the general purposes of the said Board one-half of the net proceeds of all revenue that may be derived from the development and use for afforestation and silvicultural purposes of the lands comprised in the said transfer :

Provided always that it shall not be encumbent upon the Crown so to cultivate or conduct or manage the said lands as would be necessary if the sole purpose of this trust were the management of the said lands as a source of revenue, but regard shall be had to the obligation hereby imposed of maintaining the said lands as a scenic background for the lands of the Waitangi National Trust.

Powers of Commissioner of State Forests.

3. For the more effectual carrying-out of the said trusts the Commissioner of State Forests shall in respect of the said lands have all the powers of management, control, and disposal of produce (including power to grant leases, licenses, and permits) which are exercisable under the Forests Act, 1921-22, in respect of permanent State forests under that Act.

Expenses of administration.

4. All expenses incurred in the carrying-out of the said trusts or otherwise in the administration of this Act shall be paid out of moneys from time to time appropriated by Parliament for that purpose.

Application of revenue.

5. There shall from time to time, as the Commissioner of State Forests may direct, be paid to the Waitangi National Trust Board one-half of the revenue derived from the said lands after the deduction of the expenses of administration thereof.

Powers of Controller and Auditor-General.

6. Any question arising as to the amount of any revenue arising from the said lands or the propriety of any deduction for expenses of administration shall be decided by the Controller and Auditor-General.

7. There shall be exercisable in respect of the said lands the same powers of sale as are conferred by section three hundred of the Land Act, 1924, in respect of national-endowment land, and for the purpose of adjustment of boundaries with any adjoining landowner the same powers of exchange as are conferred by section three hundred and one of the last-named Act :

Powers of sale
and exchange.

Provided always that no such powers of sale or exchange shall be exercised until after notification to and consultation with the Waitangi National Trust Board :

Provided further that any moneys received or paid on the exercise of any such powers shall be credited to or disbursed from the revenue of the said lands :

Provided also that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer on the said lands the status of national-endowment land under the last-named Act.

8. The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, direct that any lands which are vested in the Crown or of which the Crown may enjoy the right of disposal and which adjoin or are adjacent to the lands described in the Schedule hereto shall be subject to this Act, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall apply to such lands in all respects as if they were part of the lands described in the said Schedule.

Powers to subject other lands to this Act.
