AN ACT to enable the Trustees of the Wellington Hospital and the Governors of the Wellington College to exchange certain Lands. [30th October, 1876.] Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Wellington Hospital and College Reserves Exchange Act, 1876." Short Title.
2. The Trustees of the Wellington Hospital Reserves may exchange with and convey to the Governors of the Wellington College the piece of land described in the First Schedule hereto, to be held by them, the Governors of the Wellington College, upon and for the like trusts as the reserves vested in them for the purposes of the Wellington College. Trustees of Wellington Hospital may exchange land in First Schedule with Governors of Wellington College.
3. The Governors of the Wellington College may exchange with and convey to the Trustees of the Wellington Hospital the piece of land described in the Second Schedule hereto, to be held by the Hospital Trustees upon and for the like trusts as the reserves vested in them for the purposes of the Wellington Hospital. Governors of Wellington College may exchange land in Second Schedule with Hospital Trustees.
4. The Trustees for the time being of the Wellington Hospital Reserves, or the Governors of the Wellington College, shall from and after the passing of this Act have no power to sell any of the lands belonging to the said Hospital and College respectively, and shall have no power to lease the same for a longer period than forty-two years; Trustees and Governors may not sell lands nor lease lands except under certain conditions.

Wellington Hospital and College Reserves Exchange.

and every such lease shall be made without taking premium or foregift, and without power of renewal; but nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to invalidate any contract made prior to the twenty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.
