Clause 1 relates to the Short Title.

Land and Income Tax

Clause 3 amends the Land and Income Tax Act 1954.

Subclause (1) inserts a new section 129CH in that Act to provide for a deduction of notional interest in respect of loans made to employees under an employee share purchase scheme which complies with the conditions set out in subsection (3) of that section.

Subsection (1) of that section is the interpretation section.

Subsection (2) of that section provides that where financial assistance is provided to an employee by way of an interest free loan to enable him to purchase or subscribe to any shares under an employee share purchase scheme, the employing company (as defined) shall be allowed a deduction of an amount equal to the interest that would have been payable if—

- (a) the company had borrowed an amount equal to the amount of the loan at 10 percent per annum; and
- (b) Repayments made by the employee in respect of his loan had been repayments made by the company in respect of the amount so borrowed; and
- (c) The interest had been calculated with monthly rests.

No deduction is to be allowed in respect of any period of a loan in excess of 5 years.

Subsection (3) of that section provides that, in order that any scheme may be approved under the section as an employee share purchase scheme, the Commissioner is to be satisfied that the scheme complies with the provisions of this subsection. These provisions are:

- (a) Shares are to be made available to employees at a price not exceeding the market price:
- (b) The shares that any employee may purchase are to be so limited that the amount of the consideration for any shares acquired by him at any date does not, when added to the amount of the consideration for any other shares acquired by him within 3 years before that date, exceed $1,560:

- (d) Any minimum period of service which may be required before an employee becomes eligible to participate in the scheme shall not exceed 3 years or an accumulative period that is equivalent to 3 years service:
- (e) All loans made under the scheme to any employee for the purchase of or subscription to any shares shall be free of interest and all other charges:
- (f) Where any loan is to be of a minimum amount, that amount shall not exceed $624:
- (g) Repayments of the loan are to be made by regular equal instalments at intervals of not more than 1 month over a period of not less than 3 years or more than 5 years, but any employee may elect to repay all or any part of a loan prior to the due date:
- (h) During the restrictive period (as defined in subsection (1)) the shares are to be held by the trustee of the scheme on behalf of the employee but the employee shall not be able to assign or charge those shares. All dividends received by the trustee during the restrictive period are to be paid to the employee:
- (i) At the end of the restrictive period—
  - (i) Where the restrictive period ends otherwise than on cessation of employment, the shares are to be transferred to the employee or, at the option of the employee, are to be purchased by the trustee at the market price:
  - (ii) Where the restrictive period ends due to the death of the employee, the shares are to be transferred to the trustee of the deceased employee's estate or, at the option of the trustee of the estate, are to be purchased by the trustee of the scheme at the market price, subject, in either case, to the repayment of all loans outstanding in respect of those shares:
  - (iii) Where the restrictive period ends due to cessation of the employment of the employee due to sickness, accident, or redundancy, the shares are to be transferred to the former employee or, at the option of the employee, are to be purchased by the trustee at the market price, subject, in either case, to the repayment of all loans outstanding in respect of those shares:
  - (iv) Where the restrictive period ends due to the cessation of the employment of the employee otherwise than due to sickness, accident, redundancy, or death, the trustee is to purchase the shares at the market price at the date of cessation, subject to the repayment of all loans outstanding in respect of those shares:
  - (v) The purchase price payable for the shares by the trustee is not to exceed the price for which those shares were purchased or subscribed for by the employee:
- (j) Any employee may withdraw from the scheme after giving 3 months notice on the same terms as if he had ceased employment at the date of the withdrawal and subparagraphs (iv) and (v) of paragraph (i) above applied.

(k) In cases of hardship the trustee, with the consent of the employee, is to have a discretion to vary the terms on which any loans have been made to the employee, and to allow the employee to withdraw from the scheme forthwith on the same basis as if he had ceased to be employed otherwise than due to sickness, accident, redundancy, or death.

Subclause (2) amends section 88c of that Act to exempt from income tax any benefit received by any employee in respect of any shares acquired under an employee share purchase scheme.

Subclause (3) amends section 153B of that Act to make it clear that an employee share purchase scheme is not a unit trust for the purposes of that section.

Unit Trusts

Clause 5 makes it clear that an employee share purchase scheme is not a unit trust for the purposes of the Unit Trusts Act 1960.
