INDICTABLE OFFENCES SUMMARY JURISDICTION
AMENDMENT BILL.

MEMORANDUM.

THE object of this Bill is to extend to Justices of the Peace the power now possessed by Magistrates of committing to the Supreme Court for sentence persons pleading guilty to charges of indictable offences. The present law limiting this power to Magistrates is found to be the cause of inconvenience in country districts, and renders necessary a Supreme Court trial in many cases in which the accused is ready to plead guilty in the lower Court.

JOHN W. SALMOND,
Counsel to the Law Drafting Office.
