A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to place certain Restrictions on Immigration into New Zealand.

WHEREAS the Bill intituled "The Asiatic Restriction Act, 1896," has not been assented to by Her Majesty, and it is expedient to make other provision for restricting immigration into New Zealand in certain cases :

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Immigration Restriction Act, 1899."

2. This Act shall not apply to—

- (1.) Any person possessed of and named in a certificate in the form numbered one in the Schedule hereto, signed by the Colonial Secretary, or any officer, whether in or outside of New Zealand, whom the Governor in Council authorises to grant such certificates ; nor to
- (2.) Any person of a class for whose immigration into New Zealand provision is made by law, or by a scheme approved by the Governor in Council ; nor to
- (3.) Any person or class of persons exempted from this Act by the Governor in Council ; nor to
- (4.) Her Majesty's land and sea Forces ; nor to
- (5.) The officers and crew of any ship of war of any Government ; nor to
- (6.) Any person being one of the officers or crew of any mercantile vessel : Provided that he is not discharged in New Zealand, and also that he is on board the vessel when she is cleared outwards, and leaves New Zealand with her ; nor to (7.) Any person duly accredited to the Government of New Zealand by or under the authority of the Imperial or any other Government.

Persons prohibited from landing in New Zealand.

3. Except in so far as is otherwise provided in the subsequent sections of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any person of any of the following classes (hereinafter called "prohibited immigrant") to land in New Zealand, that is to say:—

Natal Act, sec. 3, altered and extended.

(1.) Any person who, when asked so to do by an officer appointed under this Act by the Governor, fails to himself write out and sign, in the presence of such officer, in the characters of any language of Europe, an application in the form numbered two in the Schedule hereto, or in such other form as the Colonial Secretary from time to time directs either generally for all cases or specifically in specific cases:

(2.) Any idiot or insane person:

(3.) Any person suffering from a contagious disease which is loathsome or dangerous:

(4.) Any person who, not having received a free pardon, has within two years next preceding the date on which he lands been convicted in any country of any offence involving moral turpitude which, if committed in New Zealand, would be punishable by imprisonment for two years or upwards, not being a mere political offence.

Certain persons may land if deposit made and certificate thereafter obtained.

Natal Act, sec. 5, altered.

4. Any person appearing to be a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of section three of this Act, but not coming within the meaning of subsections two, three, or four of that section, may lawfully land in New Zealand upon the following conditions, that is to say:—

(1.) He shall, before landing, deposit with an officer under this Act the sum of one hundred pounds:

(2.) He shall, within the period of fourteen days after landing, obtain from the Colonial Secretary or a Stipendiary Magistrate a certificate that he does not come within the prohibition of this Act:

(3.) If within such period he duly obtains such certificate, such deposit shall be returned to him and he shall cease to be subject to this Act, but if not, then by force of this Act such deposit shall be forfeited to Her Majesty, and he shall be deemed to be a prohibited immigrant who has unlawfully landed in New Zealand:

Deposit forfeited if certificate not granted.

Provided that the forfeiture of his deposit shall be deemed to be in satisfaction of the penalty of one hundred pounds hereinafter prescribed, and also that no liability shall attach to the vessel, its master or owners, by reason of his having landed, except the liability for the expenses of his removal from New Zealand, and of his detention and maintenance in New Zealand pending such removal, as hereinafter prescribed.

Status of wife and child.

Natal Act, sec. 7, altered.

5. In any case where any person, not being a prohibited immigrant, lands in New Zealand accompanied by his wife or such of his children as are under the age of eighteen years, such wife or children shall not be deemed to be prohibited immigrants.

Former resident may be exempted.

6. In any case where any person when landing in New Zealand satisfies an officer under this Act that he is or formerly was domiciled in New Zealand, and also that he does not come within the meaning of subsections two, three, or four of section three of this Act, he shall not be deemed to be a prohibited immigrant.

Natal Act, sec. 5, altered.

7. In every case where any prohibited immigrant unlawfully lands in New Zealand the following provisions shall apply:—

Penalties and costs in respect of unlawful landing of prohibited immigrant.

(1.) He is liable to a penalty of one hundred pounds.

(2.) Irrespective of such penalty, he is also liable to be removed from New Zealand, and, pending such removal, to be detained in prison or other safe custody for any period not exceeding six months:

Natal Act, secs. 4 and 8, altered.

Provided that upon the aforesaid penalty of one hundred pounds being paid, he may at any time be released from detention for the purpose of being removed from New Zealand, or upon his finding two approved sureties, each in the sum of fifty pounds, that he will leave New Zealand within one month.

(3.) The master and owner of the vessel by which he was brought to New Zealand are jointly and severally liable—

(a.) To a penalty of one hundred pounds in respect of each such immigrant; and also

(b.) To defray the expenses incurred by the Government in respect of such immigrant's removal from New Zealand, and of his detention and maintenance in New Zealand pending such removal:

Provided, however, that in the case of a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of subsection three or subsection four of section three hereof no proceedings shall be taken against such master or owner after the expiration of three months from the date of the arrival of such vessel in any New Zealand port.

8. In any case where prohibited immigrants are transhipped from one vessel to another for the purpose of being brought to New Zealand, the provisions of this Act shall apply to both such vessels, their masters and owners, in like manner as if such immigrants had been brought to New Zealand by both such vessels.

Liability where prohibited immigrants transhipped.

"Alien Immigration Restriction Bill, 1897," clause 11, altered.

9. No vessel shall be cleared out of any port of New Zealand unless and until all the provisions of this Act relating to such vessel, its master and owner, have been duly complied with, nor until all penalties and other moneys payable by such master or owner have been fully paid, or have been duly secured by bond in manner hereinafter provided.

No vessel to be cleared out until Act complied with.

"Alien Immigration Restriction Bill, 1897," clause 13.

10. In any case where the Commissioner of Customs is of opinion that the master or owner of any vessel has committed any offence, or made any default, or is liable for the payment of any penalty or other moneys under this Act, the following special provisions shall apply:—

Vessel may be detained if Act not complied with.

"Alien Immigration Restriction Bill, 1897," clause 14; also Natal Act, sec. 8, altered.

(1.) The Commissioner may by writing under his hand authorise any person, being an officer of Customs or member of the Police Force, to detain such vessel.

(2.) Such detention may be either at the port or place where such vessel is found, or at any port or place to which the Commissioner orders such vessel to be brought.

(3.) For the purposes of such detention, the person authorised to effect the same shall be entitled to obtain in the customary manner such writ of assistance or other aid and assistance in and about the detention of or other lawful dealing with the vessel as would be available in the case of vessels or goods seized under any Act relating to the Customs. 5

(4.) Such detention shall be for safe custody only, and shall be discontinued if a bond with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the Commissioner is given by the master or owner for the full payment of all penalties and other moneys then payable or that may thereafter be adjudged to be payable under this Act in respect of any such offence, default, or liability (including the costs incurred in and about the detention of the vessel). 10 15

11. If default is made by the master or owner of any vessel in paying or in securing by bond as aforesaid the full payment of any penalty or other moneys payable under this Act by such master or owner, then the following provisions shall apply:—

(1.) Such vessel may be seized and sold under the provisions for seizure and sale of vessels or goods contained in any Act relating to the Customs, and for that purpose the provisions of subsection three of the last-preceding section hereof shall mutatis mutandis apply. 20

(2.) The proceeds of such sale shall be applied: first, in payment of the costs incurred in and about the detention, seizure, and sale of the vessel; secondly, in payment of all penalties and other moneys payable under this Act as aforesaid by the master or owner, and the surplus (if any) shall be paid to the owner or other person lawfully entitled thereto. 25 30

12. Upon the conviction of any prohibited immigrant under any of the foregoing provisions of this Act, whereby he is adjudged to pay a sum of money, the Court, if it sees fit, may order that such sum or any part thereof shall be payable at some future day, not being longer than three months from the date of such order, provided that security to the satisfaction of the Court is given for the payment of the amount mentioned in and at the time fixed by any such order. 35

13. For the purposes of the removal from New Zealand of prohibited immigrants, the following provisions shall apply:— 40

(1.) The Colonial Secretary, or any person authorised by him, may make a contract with the master, owner, or agent of any vessel for the passage of any such immigrant to the port or place whence he came, or to any port or place or near to his country of birth. 45

(2.) Upon the contract being made, such immigrant may, with his personal effects, be placed on board such vessel by any officer under this Act, or by any officer of police, and the master shall keep such immigrant on board, and (if necessary) under custody, until the vessel has sailed. 50

(3.) If the immigrant appears to be destitute, the officer placing him on board may supply him with such sum of money

In default of payments due under Act vessel may be sold.
