

Hon. Sir P. A. Buckley.

JURIES ACT AMENDMENT.

ANALYSIS.

Title.
1. Short Title.

2. Discharge of jury after six hours.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Juries Act, 1880."

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Juries Act Amendment Act, 1893." Short Title.

10 2. Section one hundred and fifty-seven of "The Juries Act, 1880," is hereby amended by the substitution of the words "six or more hours" for the words "twelve or more hours"; and the said section shall, from and after the passing of this Act, take effect with the substitution hereby required as if the same had been originally enacted therein. Discharge of jury after six hours.

By Authority: SAMUEL COSTALL, Government Printer, Wellington.—1893.

The Governor, under the provisions of section five of the said Act, may do all such things in relation to any exchange of land, or the taking of land compulsorily, as he is authorised by the said section to do in relation to the purchase of any land under the said Act.

New clause.

5

2A. The last-preceding section shall be read subject to the limitations and conditions following, that is to say,—

(1.) No land shall be taken compulsorily under this Act from any person not owning more than one thousand acres of first-class land, or two thousand acres of second-class land, or five thousand acres of pastoral land in one complete estate; and 10

(2.) Any person owning more than one thousand acres of first-class land, or two thousand acres of second-class land, or five thousand acres of pastoral land shall have the right to select any part of such land not exceeding the last-mentioned areas respectively, which shall be excepted from being taken compulsorily under this Act: Provided that such owner shall make his selection of the land to be excepted as aforesaid within three months from the date of the posting of a registered letter addressed to the said owner containing a notification from the Board that the Governor intends to take the said owner's land, or part thereof, under the authority of the said Act or this Act. 15 20 25

3. Notwithstanding any right accrued or reserved to any lessee or licensee of pastoral land under "The Nelson Crown Lands Leasing Act, 1867," or "The Marlborough Waste Lands Act, 1867," to purchase such land or any part thereof, the Governor, by notification in the Gazette, may declare any such land to be required for any of the purposes mentioned in section two of this Act; and after the publication of any such notification no sale of any land described therein shall be made by any Commissioner of Crown Lands until notice has been given to the Minister of such intended sale, who, if he thinks fit, may at any time within twelve months after the receipt of such notice acquire for Her Majesty, under the provisions of this Act, such land or any part thereof. 30 35

New paragraph.

Subject, nevertheless, that the lessee shall be entitled to compensation for any loss he may sustain by reason of such acquisition, and that such compensation shall be ascertained in the manner provided by "The Public Works Act, 1882." 40

4. Section twenty-one of the said Act is hereby amended by the substitution in the citation of "The Land Act, 1885," of the figures "1892" in place of "1885." 45

Governor may prohibit sale of pastoral land in Nelson and Marlborough.

Section 21 of previous Act amended.
