(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any lease or in the principal Act or any former Land Act, but subject to section 12 of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall apply with respect to leases granted under the principal Act or any former Land Act and current immediately before the commencement of this Act. 5

2. Renewable lease—(1) Section 63 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (3), and substituting the following subsection:

“(3) The yearly rent payable during the first term of a renewable lease shall be— 10

“(a) For the first 11 years of the term,  $4\frac{1}{2}$  percent of the rental value of the land as determined by the Board, or, where the land is disposed of at auction or by tender, as fixed in the contract: 15

“(b) For the next 2 successive periods of 11 years of the term, at a rent determined in respect of each of those periods in the manner provided in section 132A of this Act.”

(2) Section 63 of the principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting in subsection (4), after the words “subsequent renewal”, the words “and for the second and third periods of 11 years of the term of each renewal lease”. 20

(3) The following enactments are hereby consequentially repealed: 25

(a) Subsection (2) of section 5 of the Land Amendment Act 1950:

(b) So much of the Schedule to the Land Amendment Act 1968 as relates to section 63 of the principal Act.

3. Pastoral lease—Section 66 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (4), and substituting the following subsections: 30

“(4) The yearly rent payable during the first 11 years of the first term of a pastoral lease shall be as determined by the Board. 35

“(4A) The yearly rent payable during the next two successive periods of 11 years of the first term and during each period of 11 years of the first and each subsequent renewal of a pastoral lease shall be determined in the manner set out in Part VIII of this Act for the renewal of renewable leases and for the review of the annual rent during the term of such a lease, and all the provisions of that Part shall, with the necessary modifications, apply, save that 5 instead of determining the rental value of the land for the purposes of the renewal pastoral lease, or any period of 11 years within the first or any subsequent term of a pastoral lease, a fair annual rent shall be fixed."

4. Purchase of improvements during currency of lease or 10 licence—(1) Section 87 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) By omitting from subsection (1) (as amended by section 7 (a) of the Land Amendment Act 1951) the words
15 "at the value as determined by the Board of those improvements at the date of purchase", and substituting the words "at the value at which they are included in the rental value of the land":

(b) By omitting from subsection (3) (as amended by section 7 (b) of the Land Amendment Act 1951) the words
20 "shall be reduced by the amount at which the improvements purchased were included in the rental value".

Struck Out

(2) Section 87 of the principal Act is hereby further 25 amended by adding the following subsection:

"(4) For the purposes of this section, the value at the commencement of the lease of all improvements included in the rental value at the commencement of the lease shall be—

(a) The value as recorded in the schedule to the lease, in 30 any case where in the opinion of the Board the schedule contains a true and complete list of the improvements and a true and complete statement of their value; or

(b) The value as determined by the Board, in any case
35 where in the opinion of the Board the schedule does not contain a true and complete list of the improvements or does not contain a true and complete statement of their value:

"Provided that where, on a revaluation under section 139 of 40 this Act or the corresponding provisions of any former Land Act, the value of those improvements has been reduced, then, for the purposes of this section the value of those improvements as determined on that revaluation shall be deemed to be their value at the commencement of the lease."

(3) Section 7 of the Land Amendment Act 1951 is hereby consequentially repealed.

New

4A. Appeal against decision of Board where improvements purchased during currency of lease—Section 87A of the principal Act (as inserted by section 11 of the Land Amendment Act 1965) is hereby amended by repealing subsections (3) to (6), and substituting the following subsections: 5

“(3) After hearing the appeal, the Land Valuation Committee to which the appeal is referred shall determine the value of the improvements at the value at which they are included in the rental value of the land. Subject to the right of appeal to the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court vested in any party, the purchase price of the improvements shall be fixed in accordance with the value so determined by the Committee. 10 15

“(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (3) of this section, the Land Valuation Committee or the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court shall not determine the value of the improvements to be less than the value of improvements on the land at the commencement of the lease as recorded in the schedule to the lease: 20

“Provided that where, on a revaluation under section 139 of this Act or the corresponding provisions of any former Land Act, the value of those improvements has been reduced, then, for the purposes of this section the value of those improvements as determined on that revaluation shall be deemed to be their value at the commencement of the lease. 25

5. Right of acquisition of fee simple—(1) Section 122 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (5), and substituting the following subsection: 30

“(5) As soon as possible after receipt of the notice, the Board shall cause the following values to be ascertained:

“(a) The value of the improvements which are then in existence and unexhausted on the land included in the lease: 35

“(b) The value at the commencement of the lease of all improvements included in the rental value at the commencement of the lease:

“(c) The value of the land included in the lease exclusive of the improvements referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection: 40

“Provided that, subject to the provisions of this Act,—

5 “(i) In ascertaining the values under paragraphs (a) and (c) of this subsection equal emphasis shall be placed on the value to be ascertained under each paragraph:

“(ii) The values shall be ascertained on an equitable basis, having regard to the relationship between lessor and lessee:

10 “(iii) The sum of the values under paragraphs (a) and (c) of this subsection shall be equal to the capital value of the land:

15 “(iv) The determination of the Board of the value under paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be final and binding on all persons interested therein.”

(2) Section 122 of the principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing subsection (7), and substituting the following subsections:

20 “(7) Subject to the rights of the lessee under subsection (10) of this section, the purchase price of the land shall be the sum of the values under paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (5) of this section, less the value of any goodwill the lessee may have in his lease calculated in accordance with subsection (7A) of this section.

25 “(7A) For the purpose of calculating the value of the goodwill (if any) of the lessee in his lease, the following provisions shall apply:

“(a) The Board shall first ascertain—

30 “(i) The amount of the yearly rent on the purchase price of the land established under subsection (7) of this section (excluding any provision for goodwill) calculated at a percentage of that purchase price, which percentage shall be determined in accordance with subsection (7B) of this section:

35 “(ii) The unexpired term of the lease, which for the purposes of this subsection shall be the unexpired term of the current period of 11 years of the lease, or, where there is no provision in the lease for a review of rent at successive periods of 11 years, the unexpired term of the lease or 11 years, whichever is the lesser:

- “(b) The value of the lessee’s goodwill in the lease shall then be calculated on an actuarial basis as the lessee’s interest in the present value of the excess (if any) of the annual rent, established under sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subsection, 5 over the annual rent payable under the lease for the unexpired term ascertained under subparagraph (ii) of that paragraph. The rate of interest for the purpose of the calculation shall be equal to the percentage of the purchase price adopted in order 10 to ascertain the amount of the yearly rent for the purposes of subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subsection, calculated with half-yearly rests:
- “(c) Where the Board is of the opinion that, in the case of a lease of farm land, the value ascertained under paragraph (c) of subsection (5) of this section 15 includes a potential value for purposes other than farming purposes, the Board shall also ascertain the value of the land as if unaffected by that potential value, and the value so ascertained shall, not- 20 withstanding the provisions of subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subsection, be used for the purpose of calculating the value of the lessee’s goodwill in the lease under this subsection.
- “(7B) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (7A) 25 of this section, the yearly rent shall be calculated—
- “(a) At the percentage or proportion of the rental value prescribed by or under any Act by which the yearly rent was determined for the current term of the lease: 30
- “(b) At  $4\frac{1}{2}$  percent of the rental value, in any case where the yearly rent for the current term of the lease was determined in any other manner or where no specific percentage or proportion was so prescribed.
- “(7c) For the purposes of subsection (7A) of this section, 35 and notwithstanding anything in that subsection or in subsection (7B) of this section,—
- “(a) Where the lessee is a serviceman or discharged serviceman and the yearly rent has been determined pursuant to section 29 of the Statutes Amendment 40 Act 1943 or subsection (5) of section 63 of this Act or the lessee is in receipt of a concession allowed by the Board under section 153 of this Act, then, notwithstanding the provisions of the lease, the percentage or proportion of the rental value of the land and the rental value of the land shall be the percentage or proportion of the rental value of the land and the rental value of the land, respectively, which would become applicable on the transfer, sublease, or other disposition of the lease to any person not being a serviceman or discharged serviceman:

“(b) Where the lessee has been granted any other concession by the Board, no account shall be taken of that concession:

“(c) Where land has been incorporated in a lease pursuant to section 113 of this Act and the current yearly rent payable under the lease has been determined in more than one manner or by more than one percentage or proportion of the rental value of the land, then, subject to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, the yearly rent shall be calculated at  $4\frac{1}{2}$  percent of the rental value of the land.”

(3) Section 122 of the principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing subsection (8), and substituting the following subsection:

“(8) As soon as practicable after the values have been ascertained under subsection (5) of this section, and the value of the lessee’s goodwill (if any) in the lease has been ascertained under subsection (7A) of the section, the Commissioner shall deliver to the lessee a notice in writing informing him of those values, the amount of the value of the goodwill (if any), and the purchase price of the land.”

Struck Out

(4) Section 122 of the principal Act is hereby further amended by adding the following subsection:

“(12) For the purposes of this section, the value at the commencement of the lease of all improvements included in the rental value at the commencement of the lease shall be—

“(a) The value as recorded in the schedule to the lease, in any case where in the opinion of the Board the schedule contains a true and complete list of the improvements and a true and complete statement of their value; or

“(b) The value as determined by the Board, in any case where in the opinion of the Board the schedule

does not contain a true and complete list of the improvements or does not contain a true and complete statement of their value:

“Provided that where, on a revaluation under section 139 of this Act or the corresponding provisions of any former Land Act, the value of those improvements has been reduced, then, for the purposes of this section the value of those improvements as determined on that revaluation shall be deemed to be their value at the commencement of the lease.”

6. Appeal to Administrative Division of Supreme Court—

(1) Section 123 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) By omitting from subsection (1) the words “subsection five”, and substituting the words “paragraphs (a) and (c) of subsection (5) or the value ascertained by the Board pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (7A)”:

(b) By inserting in subsection (1), after the words “said values”, the words “or, as the case may be, the value so ascertained”:

(c) By omitting from subsection (2) the words “subsection five of the last preceding section”, and substituting the words “paragraphs (a) and (c) of subsection (5) of section 122 of this Act or, as the case may be, in paragraph (c) of subsection (7A) of that section”:

(d) By repealing the proviso to subsection (2):

New

5 (c) By inserting in subsection (2), after the words "subsection five", the words "or the value ascertained by the Board pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (7A)".

(2) Section 123 of the principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing the proviso to subsection (2) (as added by section 10 (1) of the Land Amendment Act 1951), and substituting the following provisos:

10 "Provided that, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the Land Valuation Committee or the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court shall not determine the value of the improvements referred to in paragraph (b) of 15 subsection (5) of section 122 of this Act to be less than the value of improvements on the land at the commencement of the lease as recorded in the schedule to the lease:

20 "Provided also that where, on a revaluation under section
139 of this Act or the corresponding provisions of any former Land Act, the value of the improvements referred to in the said paragraph (b) has been reduced, then, for the purposes of this section the value of those improvements as determined on that revaluation shall be deemed to be their value at the commencement of the lease."

25 (3) Section 123 of the principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing subsections (3) and (4) (as added by section 10 (2) of the Land Amendment Act 1951).

35 "(b) The value as determined by the Board, in any case where in the opinion of the Board the schedule does not contain a true and complete list of the improvements or does not contain a true and complete statement of their value:

40 "Provided that where, on a revaluation under section 139 of this Act or the corresponding provisions of any former Land Act, the value of those improvements has been reduced, then, for the purposes of this section the value of those improvements as determined on that revaluation shall be deemed to be their value at the commencement of the lease."

(8) The following enactments are hereby consequentially repealed:

(a) Section 14 of the Land Amendment Act 1950:

(b) So much of the Schedule to the Land Amendment Act 1968 as relates to section 131 of the principal Act.

9. Lessee's election—Section 132 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (1), and substituting the following subsection: 5

“(1) Within 3 months after the receipt of the notice referred to in section 131 of this Act, notice in writing shall be given to the Commissioner by the lessee to the effect—

“(a) That he accepts the offer of a renewal lease and agrees to pay rent based on the values set out in the notice for the first period of 11 years of the term of the lease, and agrees to purchase the improvements at the value and on the terms and conditions determined by the Board in accordance with subsection (3) of section 131 of this Act or to pay interest on the value so determined in the same manner as rent, as the Board may require; or 10

“(b) That he does not desire a renewal lease, and agrees to the value of improvements as ascertained under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the said section 131; or 20

“(c) That he does not desire a renewal lease, but requires the value of the improvements as ascertained under paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of the said section 131 to be fixed by the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court as hereinafter provided; or 25

“(d) That he desires a renewal lease, and requires the values specified in ~~(paragraphs (a) and (c) of)~~ subsection (1) of the said section 131 to be fixed by the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court as hereinafter provided.” 30

10. Review of annual rent under renewable lease—The principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting, after section 132, the following section: 35

“132A. (1) Not earlier than 2 years and not later than 1 year before the end of the first and second periods of 11 years of the term of a renewable lease, the Board shall cause to be ascertained the values specified in ~~(paragraphs (a) and (c) of)~~ subsection (1) of section 131 of this Act in the same manner as if for the renewal of a renewable lease. 40

“(2) As soon as possible after the values have been ascertained under subsection (1) of this section, and not later than 9 months before the end of the current period of 11 years of the term of the lease, the Commissioner shall deliver
5 to the lessee a notice in writing informing him of those values and requiring him within 3 months after the receipt of the notice to advise the Commissioner in writing whether he agrees to pay the yearly rent stated in the notice for the next ensuing period of 11 years or whether he requires
10 the values referred to in subsection (1) of this section to be fixed by the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court as hereinafter provided.

“(3) If the lessee omits to give to the Commissioner within the time limited therefor the notice referred to in subsection
15 (2) of this section, he shall be deemed to have agreed to pay the yearly rent stated in the notice given to him by the Commissioner under that subsection for the next ensuing period of 11 years.

“(4) The yearly rent for the next ensuing period of 11 20 years shall be  $4\frac{1}{2}$  percent of the sum of—

- “(a) The value specified in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 131 of this Act; and
- “(b) The value specified in paragraph (c) of that subsection, as applied for the purposes of this section 25 by subsection (1) of this section.”

11. Appeal to Administrative Division of Supreme Court—

(1) The principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing section 133, and substituting the following section:

“133. (1) Where the lessee requires the values specified in 30 subsection (1) of section 132 or subsection (1) of section 132A of this Act to be determined by the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court as provided in subsection (1) of the said section 132 or subsection (2) of the said section 132A, as the case may be, the Commissioner shall, as soon as 35 possible after the lessee’s notification of his election is received, file in the nearest office of the Court in the district in which the land is situated an application to have the said values determined by the Court. The application shall be accompanied by a copy of the Commissioner’s notification to the 40 lessee pursuant to subsection (6) of the said section 131 or subsection (2) of the said section 132A, as the case may be,

and a copy of the lessee's notice of election pursuant to subsection (1) of the said section 132 or subsection (2) of the said section 132A.

“(2) After hearing the application, the Land Valuation Committee to which the application is referred shall determine the values as required by the lessee or any of those values, as the case may be. Subject to any right of appeal to the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court vested in any party, the rental value of the land for the purposes of any renewal lease or, as the case may be, for the next ensuing period of 11 years of the term of a renewable lease shall be fixed in accordance with the value of the land included in the lease exclusive of improvements as so determined by the Committee and the value of improvements, if any, as ascertained by the Board under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 131 of this Act:

New

“Provided that, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the Land Valuation Committee or the Administrative Division of the Supreme Court shall not determine the value of the improvements referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 131 of this Act to be less than the value of improvements on the land at the commencement of the lease as recorded in the schedule to the lease:

“Provided also that where, on a revaluation under section 139 of this Act or the corresponding provisions of any former Land Act, the value of the improvements referred to in the said paragraph (b) has been reduced, then, for the purposes of this section the value of those improvements as determined on that revaluation shall be deemed to be their value at the commencement of the lease.”

(2) Section 10 of the Land Amendment Act 1951 is hereby further consequentially amended by repealing subsections (3) and (4).

12. Savings—(1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, where—

(a) Under the provisions of the principal Act the Board is required, before the commencement of this Act, to determine values under Part VIII of the principal Act for renewal purposes; or
