This Public Bill originated in the House of Repre-SENTATIVES, and, having this day passed as now printed, is transmitted to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

House of Representatives,

13th October, 1949.

Right Hon. Mr. Nash

LAND AND INCOME TAX AMENDMENT

ANALYSIS

Title.

1. Short Title.

2. Application of this Act.

3. Removing doubt as to definition of "proprietary company".

4. Special exemption in case of case of aggregation of incomes husband and wife.

Extending period for allowance of special depreciation on buildings and plant. Repeal.

6. Deduction from farmer's assessable income of expenditure on trees planted for shelter or to prevent erosion, &c.

7. Spreading of income derived from sale of timber from farms.

8. Spreading of excess income derived on sale of live-stock where unduly low standard values adopted.

9. Sale of trading stock for inadequate consideration.

A BILL INTITULED

An Act to Amend the Land and Income Tax Act, 1923. Title. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority 5 of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Land and Income Tax Short Title. Amendment Act, 1949, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Land and Income Tax Act, 1923 See Reprint (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

of Statutes, Vol. VII, p. 271

2. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Act shall Application 10 apply with respect to the tax for the year of assessment that commenced on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-nine, and for every subsequent year.

Removing doubt as to definition of proprietary company ". 1939, No. 34

3. (1) Section twenty-one of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1939, is hereby amended, as from the passing thereof, by inserting, after subsection one, the following subsections:

"(1A) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection one of section twenty-three of this Act, where a company is not under the control of any one person, the company shall be deemed to be under the control of not more than four persons if there is any one group of persons not exceeding four in number by whom more 10 than one-half of the shares or more than one-half of the voting power in the company is held, or who have by any other means whatsoever control of the company, notwithstanding that there may also be another group of persons not exceeding four in number by whom more than one- 15 half of the shares or more than one-half of the voting power in the company is held, or who have by any other means whatsoever control of the company, or that there may be two or more such other groups.

"(1B) Where a nominee of any person holds any shares or voting power in a company or has by any other means whatsoever any power of control in the company, then, for the purposes of this section, those shares or that voting power or that power of control shall be deemed to be held by that person, and in every such case that person 25 and his nominee or that person and all his nominees shall be deemed to be one person.

"(1c) In this section the term 'person' includes a company and a local or public authority."

(2) The said section twenty-one is hereby further 30 amended, as from the passing thereof, by omitting from subsection one the words "or by whose nominees".

4. (1) Section thirteen of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1939, is hereby amended by repealing subsection five, and substituting the following sub- 35 sections:-

"(5) In computing for the purposes of an assessment under the last preceding subsection (hereinafter referred to as an aggregate assessment) the taxable income of any taxpayer (being a married man), the Com- 40 missioner shall allow, instead of the special exemptions provided for by section seventy-four of the principal

Special exemption in case of aggregation of incomes of husband and wife. 1939, No. 34

5

Act, section four of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1932-33, and section two of the Land and 1932-33, No. 40 Income Tax Amendment Act, 1933, a special exemption 1933, No. 43

of four hundred pounds, of which—

5

10

15

"(a) There shall be allowed against the assessable income an amount equal to the sum of the amounts that would have been allowable by way of special exemption under paragraph (a) of subsection six of this section against the assessable income of the married man and against the assessable income of his wife if separate assessments had been made;

"(b) The balance shall be allowed against the nonassessable income.

"(5A) Subject to the last preceding subsection, the Commissioner, in computing the taxable income of any taxpaver for the purposes of an aggregate assessment, shall allow all other special exemptions and all deductions under section eighty-one of the principal Act to which the taxpayer and his wife, or either of them, would have been entitled if they had been assessed for incometax otherwise than in accordance with this section."

(2) The said section thirteen of the Land and Income 1939, No. 34 25 Tax Amendment Act, 1939, is hereby further amended by repealing paragraph (a) of subsection six, and substituting the following paragraph:—

"(a) Instead of the special exemption provided for in the case of a taxpaver (being a married man) by subsection five of this section, the 30 married man and his wife shall each be entitled to a special exemption of two hundred pounds, which in each case shall be allowed against the assessable income so 35 far as that income extends and as to the excess (if any) over the assessable income shall be allowed against the non-assessable income:"

(3) The said section thirteen is hereby further 40 amended by omitting from paragraph (b) of subsection six the words "subsection five", and substituting the words "subsection five A".

1945, No. 37

Extending period for allowance of special depreciation on buildings and plant. 1945, No. 37 1948, No. 78 Repeal.

Deduction from farmer's assessable income of expenditure on trees planted for shelter or to prevent erosion, &c. (4) Section ten of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1945, is hereby consequentially amended by repealing paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection one.

5. (1) Section fifteen of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1945, (as amended by section fourteen of the Finance Act (No. 2), 1948) is hereby further amended by omitting from subsection one the words "nineteen hundred and fifty", and substituting the words "nineteen hundred and fifty-one".

(2) Section fourteen of the Finance Act (No. 2), 10

1948, is hereby consequentially repealed.

6. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section eighty of the principal Act, the Commissioner may, in calculating the assessable income derived by any taxpayer from the business of farming, allow as a 15 deduction any expenditure incurred by the taxpayer during the income year in planting or maintaining trees planted to provide shelter or to prevent erosion or otherwise for agricultural or pastoral purposes, or in erecting or maintaining fences to protect any such trees.

(2) If any question arises as to whether any trees have been planted to provide shelter or to prevent erosion or otherwise for agricultural or pastoral purposes, a certificate of a duly authorized officer of the Department of Agriculture or of the New Zealand 25 Forest Service as to the purpose for which the trees were planted shall be final and conclusive evidence thereof for the purposes of this section and of the next succeeding section.

Spreading of income derived from sale of timber from farms.

- 7. (1) Where a taxpayer derives income in any 30 income year from the sale of timber from trees planted to provide shelter or to prevent erosion or otherwise for agricultural or pastoral purposes on farming land owned or occupied by the taxpayer, the Commissioner may, upon application made in writing by or on behalf of the taxpayer not later than twelve months after the end of that income year, apportion that income between that income year and any number of subsequent years not exceeding four, and in every such case the amount of income so apportioned to any income year shall be deemed to have 40 been derived in that year.
- (2) Any apportionment made under this section may be at any time cancelled by the Commissioner, and in every such case the whole of the income so apportioned shall be deemed to have been derived in the income year 45 immediately preceding the year in which the apportionment is cancelled, except to the extent to which the income has been apportioned to and assessed for any earlier income year.

- (3) For the purposes of this section the term "timber" shall be deemed to include standing timber, and the term "sale" shall be deemed to include any disposition by way of a licence or easement, or the grant of any right of taking any profits or produce from land.
- 10 (4) This section shall not apply in any case where the business of the taxpayer includes the sale of timber.
- 8. (1) This section applies in every case where the spreading of Commissioner is satisfied that, upon the sale or other disposition of a substantial part of the live-stock of a of live-stock 15 farming business from which a taxpayer derives assessable income, the assessable income derived by the tax-values adopted. payer during the income year in which the sale or other disposition took place is, by reason of the adoption of a standard value in respect of the live-stock that was 20 less than the true value thereof at the date of the sale or other disposition, increased to an amount that substantially exceeds the average assessable income of the taxpaver.

(2) In any case to which this section applies the 25 Commissioner, upon application in that behalf made in writing by or on behalf of the taxpayer not later than twelve months after the date of the sale or other disposition, may—

(a) Amend the standard value adopted by the tax-30 payer in respect of that live-stock as at the commencement of that income year, and as at the end of any number of earlier income years not exceeding three, by such amounts as he deems just and equitable; and 35

(b) At any time, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section sixteen of the principal Act, amend accordingly any assessment or assessments of the taxpayer.

(3) For the purposes of this section the average 40 assessable income of any taxpayer shall be deemed to be the average annual amount of the assessable income derived by the taxpayer from the farming business concerned during the three income years immediately preceding the year in which the sale or other disposition excess income derived on sale where unduly low standard took place or during the period in which the taxpayer has derived assessable income from that business, whichever period is the shorter.

(4) If any question arises as to whether any sale or other disposition of live-stock is a sale or other disposition of a substantial part of the live-stock of a farming business for the purposes of this section, it shall be determined by the Commissioner, and his decision shall be final.

Sale of trading stock for inadequate consideration.

9. (1) Where any trading stock is sold or otherwise 10 disposed of without consideration in money or money's worth or for a consideration that is less than the market price or the true value thereof on the day of the sale or other disposition, the following provisions shall apply, namely:—

(a) The trading stock shall be deemed for the purposes of the principal Act to have been sold at and to have realized the market price of the day of the sale or other disposition, but, where there is no market price, shall be 20 deemed to have been sold at and to have realized such price as the Commissioner determines:

15

(b) The price which under this section the trading stock is deemed to have realized shall be taken 25 into account in calculating the assessable income of the person selling or otherwise disposing of the trading stock:

(c) The person acquiring the trading stock shall, for the purpose of calculating his assessable 30 income, be deemed to have purchased the trading stock at the price which under this section the trading stock is deemed to have realized.

(2) It shall be grounds for objection to an assessment 35 of income-tax that any determination of the Commissioner made for the purposes of this section is erroneous in fact.

(3) For the purposes of this section the term "trading stock" includes anything produced or manu- 40 factured, and anything acquired or purchased for purposes of manufacture, sale, or exchange; and also includes live-stock; but does not include land.

(4) Section sixteen of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1939, is hereby amended as follows:— 1939, No. 34

5

10

(a) By inserting in subsection seven, after the words "section five of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1926", the words "or section nine of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1949 ":

(b) By inserting in subsection eight, after the words section five of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1926", the words "and of section nine of the Land and Income Tax Amendment Act, 1949 ".