A BILL INTITULED

An Act to amend "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876,"

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Municipal Corporations Short Title.

Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1884, No. 1."

2. The Council may at any time and from time to time, and in Council may amend manner provided in section forty-six of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876" (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), amend 10 any burgess list by the addition or erasure of names of persons who have acquired or parted with their qualification respectively, and whether such burgess list is for the time being in force or not:

Provided that this section shall not authorize the insertion on any such list of any defaulter's name which appears at the time on the 15 defaulter's list, and that no amendment of any such list shall be made at any time within one month from prior to the day appointed for any ordinary election, nor after the creation of any vacancy, which shall make an extraordinary election necessary, until such elections respectively have been concluded and made.

New clause.

3. Whenever, in the opinion of the Council, damage to public or private property within the borough is likely to arise from the overflow of any stream by reason of any rocks, stones, gravel, timber, or other impediment to its flow, it shall be lawful for the Resident Magistrate, upon the application of the Council, and after such linguity as he may think necessary, to grant an order authorizing the Council to apply the borough funds in or towards the removal of No. 96-3.

such impediments, and for that purpose to enter upon such stream and upon the adjoining lands, notwithstanding the same may be private lands.

3. Section two hundred and thirty-seven of the said Act is hereby amended by the insertion, in the eighth line, between the words "the Council" and the words "and the Council," of the following words: "and such nuisance may be abated by filling up with earth the land on which the nuisance occurs, to a level not higher than the permanent level of the adjacent streets, if in the opinion of the Council, expressed by resolution, such filling-up shall be the only effectual means of abating such nuisance;" and by the addition of the words "or filled up" at the end thereof.

4. The Council may make drains or channels for carrying off any overflow water from a stream, and may apply the borough funds in or towards the removing from any stream, channel, or watercourse, any stones, gravel, timber, or anything whatsoever which impedes the free flow of the water, and is the cause, or, in the opinion of the Council, may, in the event of freshes or floods, be the cause of damage to any public or private property within the borough.

5. 4. Where it appears that any work which the Council is authorized to execute is for the special benefit of any particular portion of the borough, the Council may, for defraying the expenses incurred in executing such work, by special order distinctly defining such portion, make and levy a separate rate; but the total amount of all such separate rates made for any one year in any part of the borough shall not exceed one shilling in the pound.

No such special order shall be made unless a petition shall be presented to the Council praying that a separate rate may be made and levied, signed by two-thirds of the ratepayers having a majority of votes in such portion of the borough liable to be rated to such separate rate.

The Council shall apply the moneys collected and received from any such portion of the borough respectively by virtue of any such separate rate or rates towards the expense of such works as herein mentioned, or towards recouping themselves the expense of any such works which may have been constructed before such separate rate was resolved on.

Struck out.

6. The Council, with the consent of the burgesses of any particular portion of the borough, to be ascertained as provided by the said Act in relation to a proposal to raise a special loan, may from time to time raise a special loan for the purpose of doing some work or improvement in such part of the borough, and may make and levy a separate rate on such part as a security for such loan and to provide for the payment of interest thereon and the repayment thereof.

In any such case, and for the purpose of ascertaining the consent of the burgesses as aforesaid, and before the poll is taken on the proposal to raise such special loan, the Town Clerk shall make up a separate roll of the burgesses whose names appear on the burgess roll of the borough or any ward thereof in respect of a qualification situate in the particular portion of the borough aforesaid, in the same manner, except as aforesaid, as such Clerk is required by section five of "The Municipal Corporations Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1877," to make up a special roll of burgesses on any proposal to raise a special loan for the entire borough.

Separate rates may be levied for works in part of borough.

Such rate to be made on petition.

How moneys to be applied.

7.5, If at any time after a borough is divided into wards any ward Ward containing shall contain within its limits a less number of ratepayers than twenty-five, such ward shall thereupon cease to be a separate ward of a borough, and shall be merged into and form a portion of such 5 ward of the same borough as the Council shall by resolution declare, and the Councillors for such ward shall thereupon cease to be Councillors of the borough.
