This Public Bill originated in the House of Representatives, and, having this day passed as now printed, is transmitted to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

House of Representatives. 22nd August, 1907.

Hon. Mr. Carroll.

MAORI LAND SETTLEMENT ACT AMENDMENT.

ANALYSIS

1. Short Title. 2. Further borrowing-powers.

3. Power to acquire undivided interests. 4. Statement to be laid before Parliament.

A BILL INTITULED

An Acr to amend the Maori Land Settlement Act, 1905.

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as 5 follows:-

1. This Act may be cited as the Maori Land Settlement Act Short Title. Amendment Act, 1907, and shall form part of and be read together with the Maori Land Settlement Act, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. (1.) In addition to the sums authorised by section twenty- Further borrowingthree of the principal Act, the Colonial Treasurer may, in the manner powers. provided by that section, raise a further sum of fifty thousand pounds.

(2.) The moneys so raised may be expended in the purchase of 15 land in accordance with the provisions of the principal Act or this Act without further appropriation than this Act.

3. (1.) Notwithstanding anything in the principal Act to the Power to acquire contrary, the Governor may from time to time acquire under the undivided interests. provisions of that Act any undivided interest or part of any undivided 20 interest owned by a Maori in any land owned by Maoris, and may pay for the same, notwithstanding that the other undivided interests in the same land have not been acquired or paid for.

(2.) The provisions of this clause shall be deemed to have been in operation from the date of the passing of the principal Act.

4. Within twenty days after the close of each financial year, if Statement to be laid Parliament is in session, or, if not, then within twenty days after the before Parliament. commencement of the first ensuing session, the Minister shall lay before both Houses of Parliament a statement (duly certified by the Controller and Auditor-General) giving particulars of the moneys

30 expended under the authority of this Act or the principal Act during such financial year.