A BILL INTITULED

An Act to amend the Niue Act 1966

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same,
5 as follows:

1. Short Title and commencement—(1) This Act may be cited as the Niue Amendment Act 1973, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Niue Act 1966* (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

10 (2) This Act shall come into force on the 1st day of May 1973.

New

(2) This Act shall come into force on a date to be fixed by the Governor-General, by Order in Council.

15 2. Niue Island Assembly—Section 31 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing paragraph (a) of subsection (2), and substituting the following paragraph:

“(a) The Speaker of the Island Assembly; and”.

*1966, No. 38

Amendments: 1968, Nos. 15, 132; 1970, No. 15; 1971, No. 143

No. 4—2

3. Speaker of Island Assembly—The principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting, after section 31, the following section:

“31A. (1) The Speaker of the Island Assembly shall be elected to that office by an absolute majority of the members present and voting at a meeting of the Island Assembly. 5

“(2) Only a person who is qualified for election as an elected member of the Island Assembly may be elected as Speaker.

“(3) If any person elected as Speaker is, at the time of that election, an elected member of the Island Assembly, he shall vacate his office as an elected member when he enters upon the duties of the office of Speaker. 10

“(4) The election of the Speaker shall take place, before the despatch of any other business, at the first meeting of the Assembly after the commencement of this section and after each general election, and, at a meeting of the Assembly called for that purpose, as soon as possible after any vacancy in the office of Speaker has occurred. 15

“(5) Before a person who has been elected Speaker enters upon the duties of his office, he shall take and subscribe before the Clerk of the Island Assembly at a meeting of the Assembly the Oath of Allegiance prescribed in section 33 of this Act, and the provisions of that section shall apply with the necessary modifications as if the references therein to an elected member were a reference to the Speaker. 20 25

“(6) The Speaker may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Clerk of the Island Assembly, and shall vacate his office—

“(a) On the election of a Speaker when the Assembly first meets after a general election; or 30

“(b) If he ceases to be qualified for election as an elected member of the Assembly.”

4. Procedure of Island Assembly—The principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing section 34, and substituting the following section: 35

“34. (1) The Island Assembly shall meet at such places and at such times (not being less than once annually) as the Resident Commissioner from time to time appoints in that behalf. 40

“(2) The Speaker shall preside at every sitting of the Island Assembly that he attends.

“(3) In the absence of the Speaker from any sitting or if no person holds the office of Speaker, the elected members of the Assembly present shall elect one of their number to preside over that sitting.

5 “(4) Every question before the Island Assembly shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the elected members present.

“(5) Every elected member present when any question is put to the Island Assembly shall vote thereon.

10 “(6) The Speaker or elected member presiding over any sitting of the Island Assembly shall not have a deliberative vote or a casting vote.

“(7) No business shall be transacted at any sitting of the Island Assembly if the number of elected members then present
15 is less than 7.

“(8) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Island Assembly may from time to time make Standing Orders for the regulation and orderly conduct of its proceedings and the despatch of business.”

20 5. Consequential amendments and repeals, and transitional provision—(1) The principal Act is hereby further amended in the manner indicated in the Schedule to this Act.

(2) Paragraphs (a), (b), and (d) of subsection (3) of section 4 and section 8 of the Niue Amendment Act 1971 are 25 hereby consequentially repealed.

(3) Until the remuneration, allowances, and other benefits and privileges of the Speaker of the Island Assembly are prescribed by regulations made under subsection (4) of section 31 of the principal Act (as substituted by section 6 (1)
30 of the Niue Amendment Act 1971), the Speaker shall receive the same remuneration, allowances, and other benefits and privileges as the elected members of the Island Assembly are entitled to receive pursuant to regulations for the time being in force made under the said subsection (4).
