A BILL INTITULED

An Act in supplement of "The to amend the several Naval and Title. Military Settlers' and Volunteers' Land Acts, -1891."

WHEREAS the Commissioners of Crown Lands in various land Preamble. 5 districts have, under the authority of sections four and six of "The Naval and Military Settlers' and Volunteers' Land Act, 1891" (herein referred to as "the said Act"), reported to the Governor that, having inquired into claims of all persons who, under the authority of the aforesaid sections of the said Act, have advanced any such claims,

10 they have found that the several persons mentioned in the Schedule to this Act had respectively substantiated such claims, and to the extent in the said Schedule expressed; and it is expedient to make provision for the settlement of such claims by the issue of certificates for remission of money in the purchase of land, as provided in the 15 said Act: And whereas it is also expedient to extend the provisions of the Acts heretofore passed in relation to naval and military settlers:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

20 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Naval and Military Short Title. Settlers' and Volunteers' Land Act, 1892." It shall be deemed to be incorporated with the said Act.

New clauses.

2. The paragraph following is hereby added to subsection two Persons to whom of section two of "The Naval and Military Settlers' and Volunteers, Act applies. 25 Land Act, 1889," and shall be construed and take effect as if it had been originally enacted in the said subsection: No. 153—2.

30

All persons who retired from Her Majesty's Naval or Military Service with a good character for the purpose of settling in New Zealand at any time before the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and who have so settled and resided in any part of New Zealand whether or not any law was in force within such part of New Zealand authorising grants of land to naval and military settlers on retiring from the service for the purpose of settling in New Zealand; and to.

3. Section eight of the last-mentioned Act is hereby repealed, 10 and the following substituted:

8. Every Commissioner, after inquiry into any claim brought before him, shall transmit the papers in such claim, together with his recommendation thereon, to the Minister of Lands,

If, after examination, the said Minister shall dissent from 15 the Commissioner's recommendation upon any such claim, he may remit the papers in the claim for further consideration by the Commissioner; and if he shall approve any recommendation, and it be in favour of the claimant, the Minister shall report accordingly to the Governor, stating in such report that the 20 claimant has proved his claim, according to the category in section two in respect whereof he claims, to a certificate entitling him, according to his rank on retirement or discharge from service, as the case may be, to the remission of money in the purchase of land in any part of the colony.

All such reports of the Minister shall be submitted by the Governor to Parliament at the session next after the receipt

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in section ten of the Act last-mentioned,—

(1.) All persons who retired from Her Majesty's Naval and Military Service with a good character, for the purpose of settling in New Zealand, and have obtained a grant of land in respect of so settling, shall nevertheless be entitled to an additional grant of land in respect of any subsequent 35 service rendered by them in any New Zealand Force, if they would have been entitled to such last-mentioned grant had they not obtained a previous grant of land in respect of their retirement as aforesaid; and,

(2.) All persons as aforesaid who have received a grant of land 40 in respect of their service in any New Zealand Force shall, notwithstanding such grant, be entitled to obtain an additional grant of land in respect of their retirement from Her Majesty's Naval or Military Service for the purpose of settling in New Zealand, if they would have 45 been entitled to such last-mentioned grant had they not obtained a previous grant of land in respect of their service in a New Zealand Force as aforesaid.

5. Notwithstanding the expiration of the time limited for sending in claims to land under "The Naval and Military Settlers' and 50 Volunteers' Land Act, 1889," and "The Naval and Military Settlers' and Volunteers' Land Act, 1891," any claims may be heard which are sent in on or before the thirty-first day of March, one thousand Persons entitled to further grant.

6. The two Acts herein last above mentioned shall henceforth Previous Acts be read and take effect subject to the insertions, alterations, and amendments thereof required by this Act.

2. 7. The Governor may grant to the several persons mentioned in Remission certifi-20 the Schedule to this Act, and to such persons as may, under the foregoing sections of this Act, be reported to the Governor as having substantiated their claim thereto, certificates for the remission of money in the purchase of land in manner provided by section two of the said Act, and subject to all the provisions thereof, saving that every 25 certificate which is issued under the authority of this section shall be barred unless exercised on or before the thirty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

3. 8. All certificates for the remission of money, issued under this Conditions of occu-Act, shall be subject to the provisions following:

(1.) Every remission certificate shall be available for the purchase of land in any part of the colony.

(2.) The original grantee of any remission certificate shall be entitled to exercise such certificate to its full extent in the selection of land, notwithstanding any limitation as to area mentioned in any Land Act for the time being in force; but, if entitled to select less than two hundred acres under the original certificate, may exercise a transferred certificate up to that limit.

(3.) The transferee of any one or more such certificates shall not exercise such certificate or certificates in the selection of land in excess of two hundred acres inclusive of any land he may have selected as original grantee of a certificate. and subject in every case to all limitations of area mentioned in any such Land Act as aforesaid.

(4.) As soon as all the claims aforesaid within any land district are satisfied, if there remain any allotments of land set apart for the purposes of this Act which are not required for such purposes, the Governor may declare the same to be open for disposal under the Land Act in such manner as he may think fit.

Section eight of the said Act is hereby repealed.

pation of land acquired under tificates.

Governor may group sections of land for selection by holders of certificates.

Exchange of certificates for debentures.

4. 9. When any block of land is declared open for settlement under the Land Act, the Governor may set apart as many allotments therein as there may be original applications from holders of remission certificates issued under the said Act or this Act desirous of settling together in such block to form a special settlement therein.

5. 10. (1.) The original grantee of any unexercised remission certificate issued under the said Act or this Act may, upon application to the Commissioner of Crown Lands in any land district, and on surrender of such certificate, receive debentures to be issued under this Act for the amount of the remission money stated in the said certifi- 10 cate in lieu thereof; and

(2.) Any person named in the Schedule to this Act who has not received a remission certificate under this Act, upon application to the Commissioner of Crown Lands of the land district in respect whereof the remission certificate to which such person is entitled is 15 authorised to be issued, may receive debentures to be issued under this Act in substitution of any such certificate to which he is entitled as aforesaid to an amount of the remission money to which he would be entitled under such certificate.

Debentures may be issued for redemption of scrip.

6-11. The Colonial Treasurer may, when so authorised by an Order 20 in Council in that behalf, create and issue debentures from time to time, but for such amount only as may be necessary to effect the exchanges and substitutions authorised under the last preceding section.

Nature and currency of debentures. Debentures shall—

25(1.) Be in such form as shall be prescribed by the Colonial Treasurer, shall be signed by the Colonial Treasurer and by the Controller and Auditor-General, and be for not less than fifteen pounds nor more than one hundred pounds;

(2.) Be payable to bearer at such place or places within the 30 colony as shall be named in the debenture, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding four pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, payable half-yearly, and shall have a currency not exceeding seven years;

(3.) Be numbered consecutively throughout the whole series of 35

debentures issued under this Act;

(4.) On presentation of a debenture at the prescribed times when any interest thereon is due, such interest shall be payable at any post-office money-order office within the colony, or at such other place or places within the 40 colony, as the Colonial Treasurer may prescribe.

7. 12. The sum of money named in any debenture issued under the authority of this Act, and all interest thereon, shall be a charge upon and paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

8. 13. When any debentures issued under this Act become due, the 45 Colonial Treasurer, if he think fit, and on being so authorised by an Order in Council in that behalf, may renew such debentures, or any of them, by the creation and issue of new debentures for the like amount, which shall have a currency not exceeding seven years from the date of their issue.

50

9.14. The Governor in Council may from time to time declare all or any of the debentures issued under this Act to be convertible into stock created or issued under "The New Zealand Consolidated Stock Act, 1877," and "The Consolidated Stock Act, 1884."

Debentures and interest charged on Consolidated Fund.

When due, debentures may be renewed.
