A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Law relating to Native Reserves.

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Native Reserves Act Amendment Act, 1899." Short Title.
- 2. Section seven of "The Native Reserves Act Amendment Act, 1895," is hereby amended by repealing subsection one thereof, and substituting therefor the following provision:— Amendment of "The Native Reserves Act Amendment Act, 1895."
 - "(1.) The new lease shall commence from the day of the date of its execution by the Public Trustee."
- 3. The aforesaid section seven is also hereby further amended by repealing paragraph (b) of subsection two thereof, and substituting therefor the following provision:— Further amendment of same Act.
 - "(b.) In the case of an original lease which expires after the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, the lessee during the continuance of the term makes application in writing to the Public Trustee for the grant of such new lease."
- 4. The term "lessee," in sections six and seven of "The Native Reserves Act Amendment Act, 1895," and in this Act, shall include the lessee, his executors, administrators, and assigns; and "improvements" shall have the same meaning as is given to that word by section three of "The West Coast Settlement Reserves Act Amendment Act, 1893." Term "lessee" shall include executors, administrators, and assigns.
- 5. Subsection five of section seven of "The Native Reserves Act Amendment Act, 1895," is hereby modified as to leases of land other than those of land vested in the Public Trustee by "The West Coast Settlement Reserves Act, 1892," so that only such conditions of that Act shall apply as are incidental to the right of renewal. Only certain conditions of "The West Coast Settlement Reserves Act, 1892," to apply.
