3. An order so made, or as varied or amended on rehearing, shall have the effect of vesting the land comprised therein in the persons therein declared to be the owners as tenants in fee-simple, in the Effect of order.

relative proportions therein mentioned, and such persons shall, when the title under such order becomes ascertained, be entitled to be registered as proprietors and to have issued to them a certificate of title under "The Land Transfer Act, 1885," or a Crown grant if the antevesting date is prior to the coming into operation of "The Land Transfer Act, 1870," in respect of the land comprised in such order; and from the date of such order, or, if an antevesting date be mentioned therein, from such antevesting date, the original Crown grant, certificate, or order affecting such land shall be deemed to be null and void:

Provided always that, if any such land is subject to a lease, the Court may by the same or a subsequent order declare that such lease shall be and remain valid and subsisting for the benefit of the lessees, subject to such modifications as to the manner of payment of rent, and as to the burden and benefit of the covenants and conditions expressed or implied in such lease, as in the opinion of the Court the justice of the case may require. Any lease in respect of which such order as aforesaid is made shall be for all purposes deemed to be a valid and subsisting lease, subject to such modifications as aforesaid, as if the same had been duly executed by all the persons interested therein.

NATIVE EQUITABLE OWNERS.

Effect of order under "Native Equitable Owners Act, 1886," sections 2 to 5.

4. Any order heretofore made or that may hereafter be made in pursuance of proceedings already commenced under sections two to five, both inclusive, of "The Native Equitable Owners Act, 1886," declaring the persons beneficially entitled to any land subject to the said last-mentioned Act shall be deemed to have the effect of vesting such land in the persons so declared to be entitled for an estate of freehold in fee-simple, as tenants in common, as from the date of the making of such order. And such persons, and the successors of such of them as may be dead, shall, on the production of such order to the District Land Registrar of the proper district, be entitled to be registered as proprietors and to have issued to them a certificate of title under "The Land Transfer Act, 1885," in respect of the said land, antevesting to the date of the order of the Court.

Where the title to the land the subject of such order is a Crown grant, such grant shall, upon the issue of a certificate as aforesaid, be deemed to be null and void as from the date of the making of such order.

When land subject to a lease.

5. Where land subject to "The Native Equitable Owners Act, 1886," is also subject to a lease for an unexpired term of years, any order made or certificate issued as aforesaid shall not prejudice the estate or term of the lessee; but the lessee, after notice of such order or certificate, shall pay any rent to accrue due under his lease to the Natives for the time being registered as the owners of the land comprised in such lease in the proportions in which they appear in the certificate of title to be interested therein; and in case the relative interests shall not be specified, and in so far as the certificate shall not provide to the contrary, the Natives mentioned in the certificate shall be deemed entitled to receive their rent in equal shares.

Whereas, in fulfilment of an engagement entered into by the Government of New Zealand with certain Natives, parties to the deed of purchase known as the "Ngaitahu deed," lands in the South Island of New Zealand were and still are appropriated to and for certain Natives, being the Natives aforesaid or their representatives: And whereas it is desirable that the names of such Natives should be ascertained and determined:

Court may ascertain Natives entitled to benefit of engagement on "Ngaitahu deed."

The Court shall, for the purpose of ascertaining and determining who the Natives were to whom such lands were appropriated as aforesaid, have the like authority to deal with any of such lands which have not already been dealt with in pursuance of proceedings commenced under section six of "The Native Equitable Owners Act, 1886," as it would have if such lands were still lands over which the Native title had not been extinguished, and such lands shall be deemed to be Native land: Provided that the right to ownership of such lands shall be confined to the Natives aforesaid and their representatives.

7. It is also hereby further declared that the Court shall have and may exercise the like jurisdiction in respect of any Native reserves situate in the South Island or in Stewart Island which may be submitted to such jurisdiction by Order in Council, which the Governor is hereby authorised to issue from time to time for the purpose.

Court may exercise jurisdiction in South Island and Stewart Island.

But the Court, in determining the title or interests to any of such reserves, shall give effect to the original intention for which the said lands were respectively set apart.

8. Any lease of land subject to "The Native Equitable Owners Act, 1886," executed before the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, with the formalities required by the law in force at the time when such lease was executed for the execution of a lease by Natives, and having a Trust Commissioner's certificate indorsed thereon in accordance with the law for the time being in force in that behalf, shall be deemed to be an "outstanding interest" within the meaning of "The Land Transfer Act, 1885," and shall be noted accordingly.
