

New Parliament.

Sir G. Grey.

PRINTERS AND NEWSPAPERS REGISTRATION ACT 1868
AMENDMENT.

ANALYSIS.

Title. 1. Short Title.	2. Name and place of abode to be printed. 3. Attorney-General to prosecute. No part of penalty to go to informer.
--------------------------------------	---

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend "The Printers and Newspapers Registration Act, 1868." Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Printers and Newspapers Registration Act 1868 Amendment Act, 1884." Short Title.

2. (1.) This section shall be incorporated with "The Printers and Newspapers Registration Act, 1868," and shall be read in lieu of the twentieth section, Part Three, of that Act, which said twentieth section is hereby repealed.

(2.) If any person who prints for publication or dispersion, whether gratuitously or for money, any paper or book, omit to print therein his name and place of abode, as required by the provisions of "The Printers and Newspapers Registration Act, 1868," or if any person publish or disperse, or assist in publishing or dispersing, whether gratuitously or for money, any paper or book in which the name and place of abode of the printers thereof are not printed as aforesaid, every such person shall, for every copy so published or dispersed by him, but not for more than twenty-five copies in the whole, forfeit and pay a sum of not more than five pounds. Name and place of abode to be printed.

3. Provided that from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person other than the Attorney-General to commence, prosecute, enter, or file any action, plaint, bill, or information against any person or persons for any fine which may be incurred or may have been incurred under the provisions of this Act, or of "The Printers and Newspapers Registration Act, 1868:" Provided also that no part of the penalties incurred in respect of any offence against either of the last-mentioned Acts shall be for the use of any informer. Attorney-General to prosecute. No part of penalty to go to informer.