

POULTRY BOARD BILL

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THIS Bill consolidates and amends the Poultry Runs Registration Act 1933, and incorporates the provisions of the Poultry-runs Registration Regulations 1934 and their amendment and the Poultry Board Regulations 1949.

The source of each clause is shown at its foot in the form of a reference to the enactment repealed.

Unless in the following notes it is otherwise stated, each clause or sub-clause re-enacts the existing law without material change in the meaning although it may have been redrafted.

Clause 1 relates to the Short Title and commencement. The Bill is expressed to come into force on 1 July 1977.

Clause 2 is the interpretation clause. New and amended definitions include the following:

“Poultry” means hens and ducks not less than 5 months old. The existing age is 6 months:

“Poultry farm” replaces “poultry run”. The existing requirement that at least 25 head of poultry kept for the production of eggs for sale constitutes a poultry farm has been replaced by a requirement to keep at least 100 head of poultry before the occupier of the farm is entitled and required to register the farm:

“Registration year” has been amended to commence on 1 July in any year.

Clause 3 provides for the Bill to bind the Crown. This provision is new.

PART I

THE NEW ZEALAND POULTRY BOARD

Clause 4 establishes the New Zealand Poultry Board. There is no change in the representation on the Board.

Clause 5 provides for the terms of office of the members of the Board. Every member holding office under the Poultry Runs Registration Act 1933 is deemed to hold office under the Bill until the expiry of the term for which he was appointed. To provide for staggered retirements, provision is made for the member appointed on the nomination of the Canterbury-Westland Registered Poultry Farmers Association Incorporated to retire after 2 years instead of 3. Any retiring member may be eligible for reappointment.

Clause 6 provides for the appointment of deputies for members of the Board.

Clause 7 relates to the filling of extraordinary vacancies to the Board.

Clause 8 provides that in July of each year the Board shall elect a Chairman and Deputy Chairman from among its members.

Clause 9 relates to the meetings of the Board.

Clause 10 allows the Board to appoint technical and advisory committees to advise the Board on such matters as may be referred to the committees by the Board. This clause is new.

Clause 11 relates to the remuneration and travelling expenses of the Board.

Clause 12 relates to the functions and powers of the Board. Generally, the Board is to administer the Bill, and to promote, organise, and develop the poultry industry.

Clause 13 relates to the contracts of the Board.

Clause 14 provides that the Board may delegate in writing any of its functions and powers under the Bill to any member, officer, employee, or committee of the Board. This clause is new.

PART II

REGISTRATION OF POULTRY FARMS

This Part substantially re-enacts the registration provisions contained in section 11 of the 1933 Act, and in the Poultry-runs Registration Regulations 1934 and their amendment.

Clause 15 provides that every occupier of a poultry farm shall register that farm for each registration year, and pay the fee prescribed pursuant to clause 16 of the Bill.

Clause 16: Subclause (1) provides that the Board in each year is to prescribe the rate of registration fee by notice in the Gazette after getting the approval of the Minister.

Subclause (2) sets out the maximum fee that may be prescribed. The 1933 Act provides for fixed registration fees, so the flexibility introduced by this subclause is new.

Clause 17 sets out the time in which application for registration and the payment of the fee must be made. The time is within one month after the commencement of a registration year or, if the poultry farm is established during the year or a person becomes the occupier of an unregistered poultry farm during the year, within one month after the establishment of the poultry farm or, as the case may be, so becoming the occupier.

Clause 18 allows the Board to remit the whole or part of the registration fee on the grounds of hardship.

Clause 19 provides for setting up and maintaining of a Register of Poultry Farms. The existing Register of Poultry-runs was set up under the Poultry-runs Registration Regulations 1934.

PART III

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Clause 20 provides for the opening and keeping of bank accounts.

Clause 21 allows the Board to put out surplus money at interest.

Clause 22 allows the Board, with the consent of the Minister of Finance, to borrow money by mortgaging or charging any of its real or personal property.

Clause 23 relates to unauthorised expenditure. The limit has been raised from $100, set in 1949, to $2,000.

Clause 24 relates to the Audit of the Board's accounts.

Clause 25 provides that the Board is to deliver to the Minister a report of its activities for each registration year, together with a copy of the audited accounts of the Board. The report and accounts are to be laid before Parliament.

Clause 26 is new, and provides that the Board is to be exempt from land tax and income tax.

PART IV

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Clause 27 continues the provisions relating to the staff of the Board.

Clause 28 limits the personal liability of the Board, its staff, and its committees. The provision is new.

Clause 29 provides for offences and penalties.

Clause 30 relates to the making of regulations.

Clause 31 consequentially amends the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries Act 1953.

Clause 32 relates to repeals, revocations, and consequential amendments.
