Hon. Mr. Seddon.

PRIVATE BENEFIT SOCIETIES.

ANALYSIS.

	5. Membership not to be condition of employ-
Title.	ment.
1. Short Title.	6. Penalty for making membership a condition
2. Interpretation.	of employment.
3. Benefit societies to register as friendly so-	7. Tables of contributions and surrender values
cieties.	to be certified.
4. Penalty for neglect.	8. Matters to be provided for in rules.

8. Matters to be provided for in rules.

A BILL INTITULED

- AN ACT to regulate Benefit Societies established or assisted by Title. Employers for the benefit of their Workers, and to the Funds whereof such Workers contribute.
- 5 BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :-

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Private Benefit Societies short Title.

- Act, 1896," and it shall form part of and be read together with 10 "The Friendly Societies Act, 1882" (hereinafter called "the principal Act").
 - 2. In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context,—
 - "Employer" means any person or company employing any worker for hire or reward :
 - "Worker" means any person of either sex or any age employed for hire or reward by an employer to perform any species of skilled or unskilled manual work, and includes "workman," as defined by "The Truck Act, 1891":"Private benefit society" means any society of not less than seven persons, established or assisted by an employer (not being a banking company incorporated by any Act of the Imperial or any colonial Parliament or by any royal charter), which offers to his workers, as members of such society, benefits beyond their ordinary hire or reward, and to the funds of which both employer and workers contribute money or money's worth.

3. Every private benefit society now in existence shall, within Benefit societies to three months after the passing of this Act, and every such society societies. hereafter formed shall, within one month after its formation, become 30 registered as a friendly society under the principal Act, in manner by that Act prescribed.

15

20

25

No. 5-2.

Interpretation.

57%

Penalty for neglect.

Membership not to be condition of employment. Penalty for making membership a condition of employment.

Tables of contributions and surrender values to be certified.

Matters to be provided for in rules.

4. If any private benefit society neglects to so register as aforesaid within the period aforesaid, the employer establishing or assisting such society, and every officer thereof, is liable to a penalty of not less than ten shillings, nor more than two pounds, for every day during which such neglect continues.

5. No employer shall in any way make membership of a private benefit society a condition of the employment by him of any worker.

6. Any employer who directly or indirectly, by himself, his agent, manager, clerk, or foreman, makes or attempts to make membership of a private benefit society a condition of employment, 10 or dismisses any worker because of his refusal to join such society, is liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than ten pounds: and for the purposes of this section the act of such agent, manager, clerk, or foreman is to be deemed the act of the employer. 15

New clause.

6A. Members to have the option of remaining members of the said society after leaving the service of such employer.

7. No private benefit society shall be entitled to register unless all tables of contributions and surrender values under which it works are certified to as sufficient by some competent actuary, approved by 20 the Governor, and are sent to the Registrar with the application for registry.

8. The rules of every private benefit society, in addition to making provisions in respect to the matters referred to in subsection one of section eleven of the principal Act, shall also make 25provision in respect of the matters following, that is to say:-

- (1.) Status and rights of employer.
- (2.) Scale and method of contributions by employer and by other members.
- (3.) Benefits assured to members.
- (4.) Purposes to which funds may be devoted.
- (5.) Permitting or prohibiting admission of honorary members.
- (6.) Surrender value to members withdrawing from the society.
- (7.) Dissolution of the society in the event of the employer ceasing to contribute, or otherwise.

By Authority: JOHN MACKAY, Government Printer, Wellington.-1896.

30

1)

 $\mathbf{5}$