A BILL INTITULED

An Act to amend the Private Investigators and Security Guards Act 1974

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand
5 in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same,
as follows:

No. 22—3

2            *Private Investigators and Security Guards
Amendment*

1. Short Title—(1) This Bill may be cited as the Private Investigators and Security Guards Amendment Act 1978, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Private Investigators and Security Guards Act 1974* (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). 5

New

(2) Section 17 and subsections (2) and (3) of section 22 of this Act shall come into force on the 1st day of April 1979.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, this Act shall come into force on its passing. 10

Interpretation

2. Meaning of “private investigator”—Section 3 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (4), and substituting the following subsection:

“(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this section, no person is a private investigator within the meaning of this Act by reason of the fact that— 15

“(a) He seeks, obtains, or supplies any information—

“(i) For or to the Crown, or any member of the Police, or any local authority; or 20

“(ii) Only as a necessary, usual, or reasonable incident of any other activity by him that is not described in that subsection; or

“(iii) For any purpose relating to the dissemination of news or other information to the public or to any section of the public; or 25

“(iv) For any cultural or historical purpose or for any purpose relating to education, literature, or science; or

“(v) In the course of and for the purposes of engaging in or carrying on any occupation or business in accordance with a practising certificate, licence, permit, or other authority, granted or issued to him under any other enactment; or 30

“(vi) Relating only to the person by whom he is engaged or retained; or 35

“(vii) In the course of and for the purposes of the business of (banking) a bank, or of a credit bureau, or of a debt collecting agency; or

“(b) He carries on any class of the business of a security guard.” 40

3. Meaning of "security guard"—(1) Section 4 (1) of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the words "in return".

(2) Section 4 (1) (d) of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the expression "; or".

(3) Section 4 (1) of the principal Act is hereby further amended by adding the following paragraph:

10                   “(e) Monitors any burglar alarm or similar warning device, or camera or similar device, that is on any premises (referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (d) of this subsection.) that are not owned or occupied by himself or his firm or any of his partners.”

15                   (4) Section 4 (3) of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the word "only".

Security Guards' Licences

4. Security guards to be licensed—(1) Section 16 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection 20 (2), and substituting the following subsection:

                  “(2) No person shall be a security guard unless he is the holder of a security guard's licence for every class of the business of a security guard that he carries on.”

25                   (2) Section 2 (1) of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding to the definition of the term "security guard's licence" the words "to which the licence relates".

5. Application for security guard's licence—Section 18 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection (2), the following subsection:

30                   “(2A) In the case of an application for a security guard's licence, it shall also state—

                  “(a) That the applicant proposes to carry on all of the classes of the business of a security guard specified in section 4 of this Act; or

35                   “(b) Where he does not intend to carry on all of those classes of business, the particular classes that he does propose to carry on.”

6. Objections by persons other than the Police to application for security guard's licence—Section 23 of the principal 40 Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection (2), the following subsection:

4            *Private Investigators and Security Guards
Amendment*

“(2A) In the case of an application for a security guard’s licence, the grounds of objection specified in subsection (2) of this section may relate either to the application as a whole or to any particular class or classes of the business of a security guard that the applicant proposes to carry on.” 5

7. Issue of security guard’s licence—Section 26 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection (1), the following subsection:

“(1A) In the case of an application for a security guard’s licence, the Registrar may grant a licence under subsection (1) of this section either— 10

“(a) For all of the classes of the business of a security guard specified in section 4 of this Act; or

“(b) For any particular class or classes of that business that he specifies in the licence.” 15

8. Registrar to require evidence as to suitability of applicant for security guard’s licence—Section 27 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection (2), the following subsection:

“(2A) The Registrar shall not determine under subsection (1) of section 26 of this Act that the applicant is a proper person to be the holder of a security guard’s licence in respect of any class of the business of a security guard specified in section 4 of this Act unless the Registrar is satisfied as to the matters specified in subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section, as the case requires, so far as they relate to that class of business.” 20 25

9. Effect of security guard’s licence—Section 28 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (2), and substituting the following subsection: 30

“(2) A security guard’s licence, according to its tenor, shall authorise the licensee either—

“(a) To carry on all of the classes of the business of a security guard specified in section 4 of this Act; or 35

“(b) To carry on the particular class or classes of that business that are specified in the licence—

on his own account during the currency of the licence, either by himself or in partnership with any other person or persons who are the holders of security guards’ licences that include that same authority.” 40

10. Amendment of security guard’s licence—(1) The principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting, after section 32, the following section:

“32A. (1) Where the Registrar has under section 26 of this Act granted to any applicant a security guard’s licence that is limited in its effect to any particular class or classes of the business of a security guard specified in section 4 of this Act,
5 the person to whom the licence has been granted may at any time during the currency of the licence apply in writing, in the prescribed form (if any) and with one additional copy, to the Registrar to amend the licence by adding any class or classes of the business of a security guard that he may carry 10 on.

“(2) On an application for the amendment of a security guard’s licence, the Registrar may require the applicant (except where it is a company) to submit to him 2 additional identical photographs of the applicant.

15 “(3) The application shall be heard and determined in the same way as if it were an application for a security guard’s licence, and the provisions of sections 21 to 25, subsections (1), (2), and (3) of section 26, section 27, and section 30 of this Act shall, with any necessary modifications,
20 apply accordingly in respect of the application for the amendment of the licence.

“(4) Where the Registrar grants an application under this section to amend a security guard’s licence he shall, on payment of the prescribed fee (if any), issue to the applicant an 25 amended licence specifying the additional class or classes of the business of a security guard that the licensee may carry on.”

(2) Section 10 (1) of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after the expression “, 27”, the expression “, 32A”.

30 (3) Section 10 (2) of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after the expression “, 25”, the expression “, 32A”.

11. Grounds for cancellation of security guard’s licence—

Section 58 (1) of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after paragraph (a), the following paragraph:

35 “(aa) In the case of a security guard’s licence, where any person specified in subsection (2) of this section has been convicted of any crime involving dishonesty, and the Registrar is satisfied that the licensee is not a proper person to hold the licence.”
