A BILL INTITULED

An Act to protect undercover Police Officers from disclosure of their true identity in criminal proceedings

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in 5 Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Protection of Undercover Police Officers Act 1986.

No. 33—2

*Price $1.50
incl. GST $1.65*

Amendments to Evidence Act 1908

2. Sections to be read with Evidence Act 1908—This section and the next 2 succeeding sections shall be read together with and deemed part of the Evidence Act 1908* (in those sections referred to as the principal Act). 5

3. Undercover Police officers—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 13, the following section:

“13A. (1) This section applies in any case where a person is being or is to be proceeded against by indictment— 10

“(a) For any offence that is punishable by imprisonment for life or for a term of at least 7 years; or

“(b) For any other offence against any of the provisions of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975 except sections 7 and 13; or 15

“(c) For conspiracy to commit, or for attempting to commit, an offence described in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this subsection.

“(2) For the purposes of this section the term ‘undercover police officer’, in relation to any proceedings to which this section applies, means a member of the Police whose identity was concealed for the purposes of any investigation relevant to the proceedings. 20

“(3) Where, in any proceedings to which this section applies, it is intended to call an undercover Police officer as a witness for the prosecution, the Commissioner of Police may, at any time before an indictment is presented, file in the Court in which the proceedings are to be held a certificate given under the Commissioner’s hand stating in respect of that witness the following particulars: 25 30

“(a) That during the period specified in the certificate the witness was a member of the Police and acted as an undercover Police officer:

“(b) That the witness has not been convicted of any offence or (as the case may require) that the witness has not been convicted of any offence other than the offence or offences described in the certificate: 35

“(c) That the witness has not been found guilty of an offence of misconduct or neglect of duty under the Police Act 1958 or (as the case may require) that the witness has not been found guilty of any such 40

*R.S. Vol. 2, p. 339

Amendments: 1980, No. 6; 1980, No. 27; 1982, No. 48; 1985, No. 54; 1985, No. 161 offence except the offence or offences described in the certificate:

Struck Out

5 “(d) That, to the best of the Commissioner’s knowledge and belief, the credibility of the witness in giving evidence in any other proceedings has not been the subject of adverse comment by the Judge or other person before whom those other proceedings were held or (as the case may require) the credibility of 10 the witness in giving evidence in any proceedings has not been the subject of any such adverse comment except as described in the certificate.

New

15 “(3A) If, to the knowledge of the Commissioner, the credibility of the witness in giving evidence in any other proceedings has been the subject of adverse comment by the Judge or other person before whom those proceedings were held, the Commissioner shall also include in the certificate a statement of the relevant particulars.

20 “(3B) It shall be sufficient for the purposes of subsections (3) and
(3A) of this section if the certificate includes a statement of the nature of any offence or comment referred to in the certificate and the year in which the offence was committed or the comment was made; and it shall not be necessary to include 25 the venue or precise date of the proceedings or any other particulars that might enable the true name or true address of the witness to be discovered.

“(4) If, in any proceedings to which this section applies, the Commissioner of Police files a certificate under subsection (3) of 30 this section relating to any witness, the following provisions shall apply:

35 “(a) If a witness is subsequently called for the prosecution and attests that, during the period specified in the certificate, he or she was a member of the Police and acted as an undercover Police officer under the name specified in the certificate, it shall be presumed in the absence of proof to the contrary that the certificate has been given in respect of that witness:

40 “(b) It shall be sufficient if the witness is identified by the name by which the witness was known while acting as an undercover Police officer, and, except where leave is given under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the witness shall not be required to state his or her true name or address or to give any particulars likely to lead to the discovery of that name or address: 5

“(c) Except where leave is given under paragraph (d) of this subsection, no barrister, solicitor, officer of the Court, or other person involved in the proceedings shall state in Court the true name or the address of the witness or give any particulars likely to lead to the discovery of that name or address: 10

“(d) No evidence shall be given, and no question shall be put to the witness or to any other witness, relating directly or indirectly to the true name or the address of the witness, except by leave of the Judge: 15

“(e) On an application for leave under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the certificate shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be sufficient evidence of the particulars stated in it. 20

“(5) The Judge shall not grant leave under subsection (4) (d) of this section unless the Judge is satisfied—

“(a) That there is some evidence before the Judge that, if (proved) believed by the jury, could call into question the credibility of the witness; and 25

“(b) That it is necessary in the interests of justice that the accused be enabled to test properly the credibility of the witness; and

“(c) That it would be impracticable for the accused to test properly the credibility of the witness if the accused were not informed of the true name (and) or the true address of the witness. 30

“(6) An application for leave under subsection (4) (d) of this section—

“(a) May be made from time to time and at any stage of the proceedings; and 35

“(b) Shall, where practicable, be made and dealt with in chambers.

“(7) Where the Commissioner of Police gives a certificate under subsection (3) of this section in respect of any witness, the Commissioner shall serve on the accused or any solicitor or counsel acting for the accused, at least 14 days before the witness is to give evidence, a copy of the certificate.” 40

4. Transitional provision—Nothing in section 13A of the principal Act (as inserted by section 3 of this Act) shall apply in any case where the information was laid before the commencement of this Act.

5 Amendments to Crimes Act 1961

5. Sections to be read with Crimes Act 1961—This section and the next 2 succeeding sections shall be read together with and deemed part of the Crimes Act 1961* (in those sections referred to as the principal Act).

10 6. Prosecution may withdraw in certain cases—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 369, the following section:

15 “369A. (1) Where, on an application under section 13A (3) (d) of the Evidence Act 1908, leave is granted to the accused to put any question relating to the identity of a witness called by the prosecutor, the prosecutor may forthwith inform the Judge that the prosecution does not intend to proceed with the indictment, or with any particular count in the indictment.

20 “(2) In such a case the Court shall give judgment that the accused be discharged from the indictment or from that count, and every such judgment shall be deemed to be an acquittal.”

7. Right of appeal in certain cases—Section 379A of the principal Act (as inserted by section 8(1) of the Crimes Amendment Act 1966) is hereby amended by adding to 25 subsection (1) the following paragraph:

“(e) Against the granting of leave on an application under section 13A (3) (d) of the Evidence Act 1908 relating to the identity of a witness, or against the refusal of a Judge to grant such leave.”

30 Amendments to Summary Proceedings Act 1957

8. Sections to be read with Summary Proceedings Act 1957—This section and the next 4 succeeding sections shall be read together with and deemed part of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957* (in those sections referred to as the 35 principal Act).

*R.S. Vol. 1, p. 635

Amendments: 1979, No. 5; 1979, No. 127; 1980, No. 63; 1980, No. 85; 1982, No. 46; 1982, No. 157; 1985, No. 82; 1985, No. 121; 1985, No. 160; 1985, No. 171

*R.S. Vol. 9, p. 583

Amendments: 1982, No. 47; 1982, No. 131; 1982, No. 158; 1985, No. 51; 1985, No. 55; 1985, No. 99; 1985, No. 162; 1985, No. 191

9. Withdrawal of information by informant—Section 157 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection (1), the following subsection:

“(1A) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) of this section, where, on an application under section 13A (3) (d) of the Evidence Act 1908, leave is granted to the defendant to put any question relating to the identity of a witness called by the informant, the informant may forthwith withdraw the information, and leave of the Court shall not be required.” 5

10. Application for leave to question undercover Police officer’s identity to be removed into High Court—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 161, the following section: 10

“161A. Where the defendant applies for leave under section 13 (3) (d) of the Evidence Act 1908, to put any questions relating to the identity of a witness called by the informant, the application shall be removed into the High Court and heard and determined by a Judge of that Court, and no evidence or further evidence shall be taken from that witness pending the determination of that application.” 15 20

11. Undercover Police officer may sign deposition, etc., by assumed name—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 178, the following section:

“178A. Notwithstanding anything in this Part of this Act, any deposition or other written statement of evidence given by an undercover Police officer (within the meaning of section 13A (2) of the Evidence Act 1908) may be given and signed by the officer in the name by which the officer was known during the relevant investigation.” 25

12. On committal, documents to be sent to trial Court— 30
Section 182 of the principal Act (as substituted by section 20 (1) of the Summary Proceedings Amendment Act 1976) is hereby amended by inserting in subsection (1), after the words “the Crimes Act 1961, “, the words “any certificate filed by the Commissioner of Police under section 13A (2) of the Evidence Act 1908 in respect of any witness,”. 35
