A BILL INTITULED

An Act to establish a Parliamentary Service and a Parliamentary Service Commission, to abolish the Legislative Department, to incorporate the General Assembly Library into the Parliamentary Service, and to provide for matters incidental thereto

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title and commencement—(1) This Act may be cited as the Parliamentary Service Act 1985.

Struck Out

(2) Except as provided in section 67 (2) of this Act and in subsection (3) of this section, this Act shall come into force on the 1st day of July 1985.

(3) Sections 44 to 46 of this Act shall come into force on the date appointed for the commencement of sections 67 to 77 of this Act.

New

(2) This Act shall come into force on the 1st day of September 1985.

2. Interpretation—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“Employee”, in relation to the Parliamentary Service, means a person employed therein, whether on the permanent staff (including any person employed on probation) or temporarily or as a wage worker; but does not include a person engaged under a contract of service entered into under section 39 of this Act:

“Officer”, in relation to the Parliamentary Service, means an employee of the Parliamentary Service other than a person employed on probation or a temporary salaried employee or a wage worker or a person engaged under a contract of service entered into under section 39 of this Act:

“Parliamentary Service Commission” or “Commission” means the Parliamentary Service Commission established by section 5 of this Act:

“State services” means all instruments of the Crown in respect of the Government of New Zealand, whether Departments, corporations, agencies, or other instruments; but does not include the Governor-General, members of the Executive Council, Ministers of the Crown, or members of Parliament:

“State Services Commission” means the State Services Commission as constituted under section 3 of the State Services Act 1962.

Parliamentary Service

3. Parliamentary Service—(1) There is hereby established a service to be called the Parliamentary Service.

(2) The Parliamentary Service is not an instrument of the Executive Government of New Zealand.

4. Duties of Parliamentary Service—(1) The principal duties of the Parliamentary Service shall be to provide to the House of Representatives and to members of the House of Representatives such administrative and support services as may be necessary or desirable.

10

(2) The Parliamentary Service may, with the approval of the Parliamentary Service Commission, provide administrative and support services for—

(a) Any instrument of the Crown in respect of the Government of New Zealand, whether a Department, a corporation, an agency, or other instrument;

(b) Any visitor to New Zealand who is a member or an officer of a legislature of another country or of an international parliamentary organisation.

(3) The Parliamentary Service shall have such other duties as are conferred or imposed on it by or under this Act or any other enactment.

(4) Nothing in this section limits the provision to the House of Representatives and to members of the House of Representatives of administrative and support services by any instrument of the Crown in respect of the Government of New Zealand, whether a Department, a corporation, an agency, or other instrument.

25

Parliamentary Service Commission

5. Parliamentary Service Commission—(1) There is hereby established a commission to be called the Parliamentary Service Commission.

30

(2) The Parliamentary Service Commission shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall be capable of acquiring, holding, and disposing of real and personal property, of suing and being sued, and of doing and suffering all such acts and things as bodies corporate may do and suffer.

35

6. Functions and powers of Parliamentary Service Commission—(1) The general functions of the Parliamentary Service Commission shall be—

40

- (a) To exercise budgetary control over the Parliamentary Service:
 - (b) To determine the size and organisation of the Parliamentary Service and the services to be provided by the Parliamentary Service:
 - 5 (c) To supervise the administration of the services performed by the Parliamentary Service.
- (2) The Parliamentary Service Commission shall have such other functions as are conferred or imposed on it by or under 10 this Act or any other enactment.

New

(2A) The Parliamentary Service Commission shall have power to make such grants as it considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

- 15 (3) The Parliamentary Service Commission shall have such other powers as are conferred on it by or under this Act or any other enactment and such other powers as may be reasonably necessary to enable it to carry out its functions.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsections (1) to (3) of this 20 section, the Parliamentary Service Commission shall have no role in relation to—

- (a) Business transacted at meetings of the House of Representatives or meetings of Committees of the House of Representatives; or
- 25 (b) Any other proceedings in Parliament.

Struck Out

7. Membership of Parliamentary Service Commission—

(1) Subject to section 10 of this Act, the Parliamentary Service Commission shall consist of—

- 30 (a) The Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall be the Chairman of the Commission;
- (b) The Leader of the House of Representatives;
- (c) The Leader of the Opposition or a member of the House of Representatives nominated from time to time by 35 the Leader of the Opposition;
- (d) Three other members of the House of Representatives, who shall be appointed from time to time by resolution of the House of Representatives.

(2) Past service is no bar to nomination or appointment as 40 a member of the Parliamentary Service Commission.

(3) The powers of the Parliamentary Service Commission shall not be affected by any vacancy in its membership.

Struck Out

8. Vacation of office by nominated or appointed members—(1) A member of the Parliamentary Service Commission who holds office by virtue of a nomination under section 7 (1) (c) of this Act shall vacate office as a member of the Commission— 5

(a) If the Leader of the Opposition revokes the nomination of that member or nominates, in the stead of that member, another member of the House of Representatives: 10

(b) If the General Assembly is dissolved or the House of Representatives expires:

(c) If, before the General Assembly is dissolved or the House of Representatives expires, that member ceases to be a member of the House of Representatives. 15

(2) A member of the Parliamentary Service Commission who holds office under section 7 (1) (d) of this Act shall vacate office as a member of the Commission—

(a) If the House of Representatives rescinds the resolution by which the member was appointed or resolves to appoint to the Commission, in the stead of that member, another member of the House of Representatives: 20

(b) If the General Assembly is dissolved or the House of Representatives expires: 25

(c) If, before the General Assembly is dissolved or the House of Representatives expires, that member ceases to be a member of the House of Representatives.

(3) A member of the Parliamentary Service Commission who holds office by virtue of a nomination under section 7 (1) (c) of this Act or by virtue of an appointment under section 7 (1) (d) of this Act may, by writing addressed to the Chairman of the Commission, at any time resign the office. 30

New

7. Membership of Parliamentary Service Commission— 35
(1) Subject to section 10 of this Act, the Parliamentary Service Commission shall consist of—

(a) The Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall be the Chairman of the Commission:

New

- (b) The Leader of the House of Representatives or a member of the House of Representatives nominated from time to time by the Leader of the House of Representatives:
- 5
- (c) The Leader of the Opposition or a member of the House of Representatives nominated from time to time by the Leader of the Opposition:
- (d) Four other members of the House of Representatives to be appointed from time to time by resolution of the House of Representatives, of whom at least 2 shall be members of the Opposition.
- 10
- (2) Any person who holds office as a Minister of the Crown or as a Parliamentary Under-Secretary shall not be appointed under subsection (1) (d) of this section as a member of the Parliamentary Service Commission.
- 15
- (3) Past service is no bar to nomination or appointment as a member of the Parliamentary Service Commission.
- (4) The powers of the Parliamentary Service Commission shall not be affected by any vacancy in its membership.
- 20

- 8. Vacation of office by nominated or appointed members—(1) A member of the Parliamentary Service Commission who holds office by virtue of a nomination under section 7 (1) (b) or section 7 (1) (c) of this Act shall vacate office as
- 25 a member of the Commission—
- (a) If the person by whom that member was nominated revokes the nomination of that member or nominates, in the stead of that member, another member of the House of Representatives:
- 30 (b) If the General Assembly is dissolved or the House of Representatives expires:
- (c) If, before the General Assembly is dissolved or the House of Representatives expires, that member ceases to be a member of the House of Representatives.
- 35 (2) A member of the Parliamentary Service Commission who holds office under section 7 (1) (d) of this Act shall vacate office as a member of the Commission—
- (a) If the House of Representatives rescinds the resolution by which the member was appointed or resolves to appoint to the Commission, in the stead of that member, another member of the House of
- 40 Representatives:

New

- (b) If the member is appointed as a Minister of the Crown or as a Parliamentary Under-Secretary:
- (c) If the General Assembly is dissolved or the House of Representatives expires: 5
- (d) If, before the General Assembly is dissolved or the House of Representatives expires, that member ceases to be a member of the House of Representatives.
- (3) A member of the Parliamentary Service Commission who holds office by virtue of a nomination under section 7 (1) (b) or section 7 (1) (c) of this Act or by virtue of an appointment under section 7 (1) (d) of this Act may, by writing addressed to the Chairman of the Commission, at any time resign the office. 10

9. Deputies—(1) Where the Speaker of the House of Representatives is incapable of acting by reason of illness, absence, or other sufficient cause or where there is a vacancy in the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives, any member of the House of Representatives appointed by resolution of the House of Representatives to be Acting Speaker shall have and may exercise all the powers, functions, and duties of the Chairman of the Parliamentary Service Commission. 15 20

(2) Any person who is a member of the Parliamentary Service Commission may from time to time by writing under the hand of that person appoint another member of the House of Representatives to attend meetings of the Parliamentary Service Commission as the deputy of that person and may, from time to time and in like manner, cancel any such appointment. 25

(3) Where any person attends any meeting of the Parliamentary Service Commission in the capacity of a deputy appointed under subsection (2) of this section by the Speaker or Acting Speaker of the House of Representatives, that person shall act as the chairman of that meeting. 30

(4) No acts done by the Parliamentary Service Commission while an Acting Speaker of the House of Representatives is acting for or in the place of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall in any proceedings be questioned on the ground that the occasion for the Acting Speaker to act for or in the place of the Speaker had not arisen or had ceased. 35

(5) No appointment under subsection (2) of this section and no act done by a member of the House of Representatives appointed under that subsection in that member's capacity as a deputy so appointed, and no act done by the Parliamentary Service Commission while any deputy is acting as such, shall in any proceedings be questioned on the ground that the occasion for the deputy's so acting had not arisen or had ceased.

(6) The powers conferred by this section may not be exercised, and no deputy shall hold office, at any time while the Parliamentary Service Commission is constituted under section 10 of this Act.

10. Membership of Parliamentary Service Commission after dissolution of General Assembly or expiration of the House of Representatives—(1) On a dissolution of the General Assembly or expiration of the House of Representatives, the Parliamentary Service Commission shall, until the first meeting of the House of Representatives after the general election of its members, consist of—

(a) The person holding the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives at the time of the dissolution or expiration, or, if there was at that time a vacancy in the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives or if the person holding that office at that time dies, the person holding the office of Chairman of Committees at the time of the dissolution or expiration:

Struck Out

(b) The Leader of the House of Representatives:
 (c) The Leader of the Opposition.

New

(b) The Prime Minister or a Minister of the Crown nominated from time to time by the Prime Minister:
 (c) The Leader of the Opposition or a member of the House of Representatives nominated from time to time by the Leader of the Opposition.

(2) The Chairman of the Parliamentary Service Commission shall be the person holding office as a member of the Commission under subsection (1) (a) of this section.

11. Meetings—(1) Meetings of the Parliamentary Service Commission shall be held at such times and places as the Commission or its Chairman from time to time appoints.

(2) The Chairman, or any 3 members, may at any time call a special meeting. Where the membership of the Commission is determined by section 10 of this Act, any member of the Commission may at any time call a special meeting. 5

(3) At all meetings of the Parliamentary Service Commission the Chairman, if present, shall preside. If the Chairman is absent and none of the members present is a person already authorised by or under this Act to act as Chairman, the members present shall appoint one of their number to be chairman of that meeting. 10

(4) All questions arising at any meeting of the Parliamentary Service Commission shall be decided by a majority of the valid votes recorded thereon. 15

(5) At any meeting of the Parliamentary Service Commission the Chairman or other person presiding shall have a deliberative vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, shall also have a casting vote. 20

12. Quorum—(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, at all meetings of the Parliamentary Service Commission 4 members shall form a quorum.

(2) At all meetings of the Parliamentary Service Commission that are held while the Commission consists of the persons specified in section 10 of this Act, 2 members shall form a quorum. 25

13. Committees—(1) The Parliamentary Service Commission may from time to time appoint competent persons, whether members of the Commission or not, to be a committee or committees to assist the Commission on such matters within the scope of its functions as are referred to them by the Commission. 30

(2) The power conferred by subsection (1) of this section includes the power to appoint a committee consisting in whole or in part of persons employed in the Parliamentary Service and having as its function or as one of its functions the function of consulting with, and giving advice to, the Parliamentary Service Commission on any matter affecting the staff of the Parliamentary Service. 35 40

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act and to any general or special directions of the Parliamentary Service Commission, any committee appointed under this section may regulate its procedure in such manner as it thinks fit.

14. Delegation of powers—(1) The Parliamentary Service Commission may from time to time, either generally or particularly, delegate any of its powers to any of its members or to any other person or persons.

5 (2) In any case where the Commission has, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, delegated any of its powers to any person, that person may, with the prior approval in writing of the Commission, delegate such of those powers as the Commission approves to any other person or to the holder
10 for the time being of any specified office in the Parliamentary Service.

(3) Subject to any general or special directions given by the Commission, the person to whom any powers are so delegated may exercise those powers in the same manner and with the 15 same effect as if they had been conferred on that person directly by this Act and not by delegation.

(4) Every member of the Commission and every other person purporting to act pursuant to any delegation under this section shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be presumed to 20 be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(5) Any delegation under this section may be made to a specified person or to persons of a specified class, or to the holder or holders for the time being of a specified office or of specified classes of offices.

25 (6) Every such delegation shall be revocable in writing at will and no delegation shall prevent the exercise of any power or function by the Commission.

(7) Any such delegation shall, until it is revoked, continue in force according to its tenor, notwithstanding any changes in 30 the membership of the Commission.

15. Procedure of Parliamentary Service Commission—Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Parliamentary Service Commission may regulate its procedure and exercise its functions in such manner as it thinks fit.

35 16. Power of Government Departments and Government agencies to provide services or supplies for Parliamentary Service Commission and members of House of Representatives—Any Government Department or Government agency may from time to time, at the request of the Parliamentary Service Commission, enter into contracts or arrangements for the execution or provision by the Department or agency for the Parliamentary Service Commission or for members of the House of Representatives of any work or service, or for the supply to the Parliamentary Service Commission or members of the House of Representatives of any goods, stores, or equipment, on and subject to such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon. 5

17. Employment of experts—The Parliamentary Service Commission may commission any person, who in its opinion 10 possesses expert knowledge or is otherwise able to assist it in connection with the exercise of its functions, to make such inquiries or to conduct such research or to make such reports as may be necessary for the efficient carrying out of any of its functions. 15

18. Annual report—As soon as practicable after the end of each year ending with the 31st day of March, the Parliamentary Service Commission shall prepare and lay before the House of Representatives a report of its operations during that year. 20

Clerk of the House of Representatives

19. Clerk of the House of Representatives—(1) There shall from time to time be appointed, as an officer of the House of Representatives, a Clerk of the House of Representatives.

(2) The Clerk of the House of Representatives shall be 25 appointed by the Governor-General on the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(3) No person shall be appointed or reappointed as Clerk of the House of Representatives after that person has attained the age of 65 years. 30

(4) No person shall be deemed to be employed in the service of Her Majesty for the purposes of the State Services Act 1962 by reason of that person's appointment as Clerk of the House of Representatives.

(5) Nothing in the State Services Act 1962 shall apply to the 35 Clerk of the House of Representatives.

20. Functions of Clerk of the House of Representatives—

(1) The functions of the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall be—

(a) To note all proceedings of the House of Representatives:

5 (b) To carry out such duties and exercise such powers as may be conferred on the Clerk of the House of Representatives by law or by the Standing Orders and practices of the House of Representatives.

(2) In carrying out the functions specified in subsection (1) of 10 this section, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall be assisted (particularly in relation to the duties required to be performed at the Table of the House of Representatives) by a Deputy Clerk of the House of Representatives and by such other Clerks as are necessary.

15 (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5) of this section, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, in carrying out the duties and exercising the powers conferred on the Clerk of the House of Representatives by the Standing Orders and practices of the House of Representatives, be under the control of the Speaker
20 of the House of Representatives.

(4) If during any period (other than the period between a dissolution of the General Assembly or an expiration of the House of Representatives and the first meeting of the House of Representatives after the general election of its members)
25 there is no Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, during that period, be, in relation to the carrying out of the duties and the exercising of the powers referred to in subsection (3) of this section, under the control of—

30 (a) Any Acting Speaker appointed by resolution of the House of Representatives; or

(b) If paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply, the Chairman of Committees.

(5) On the dissolution of the General Assembly or the
35 expiration of the House of Representatives, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, until the first meeting of the House of Representatives after the general election of its members, be, in relation to the carrying out of the duties and the exercising of the powers referred to in subsection (3) of this 40 section, under the control of—

- (a) The person holding the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives at the time of the dissolution or expiration; or
- (b) If, at the time of the dissolution or expiration, there is no Speaker of the House of Representatives, the person holding the office of Chairman of Committees at the time of the dissolution or expiration; or
- (c) If, after the dissolution or expiration, the person holding the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives at the time of the dissolution or expiration dies, the person holding the office of Chairman of Committees at the time of the dissolution or expiration.

New

20A. Supervision of other persons—The Clerk of the House of Representatives shall supervise the work of the following persons:

- (a) The Deputy Clerk of the House of Representatives:
- (b) The Clerks required for the purposes of section 20 (2) of this Act:
- (c) The employees of the Parliamentary Service who act as secretaries of select committees or as advisory staff to select committees,— which persons shall be under the control of the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

21. Clerk of the House of Representatives to hold no other office—The person holding the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives shall not be capable of being a member of Parliament, and shall not, without the approval of the Speaker of the House of Representatives in each particular case, hold any office of trust or profit, other than that person's office as Clerk of the House of Representatives, or engage in any occupation for reward outside the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives.

22. Salary and other conditions of employment of Clerk of the House of Representatives—(1) There shall be paid to the Clerk of the House of Representatives a salary at such a rate as the Higher Salaries Commission from time to time determines.

(2) There shall be paid to the Clerk of the House of Representatives such travelling and other allowances and expenses as are from time to time approved by the Parliamentary Service Commission.

- 5 (3) The entitlement of the Clerk of the House of Representatives to holidays and annual and special leave shall be the same as that applying, by virtue of any determination made under the State Services Conditions of Employment Act 1977, to the Clerks at the Table appointed under section 32
10 (2) (a) of this Act.

Struck Out

(4) For the purposes of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956 service as the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall be deemed to be Government service.

- 15 (5) Where any person who is appointed to the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives is, at the date of that person's appointment, an officer of the State services, the period of that person's service as Clerk of the House of Representatives shall be deemed to be continuous service in that branch of the State 20 services in which that person was employed at that date for the purposes of—

- (a) The Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956:
(b) Appointment to any position in the State services on the 25 termination of that person's service as Clerk of the House of Representatives:
(c) Entitlement to leave of absence.

- 23. Tenure of office of Clerk of the House of Representatives—(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4) of this section, the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall hold 30 office during good behaviour.

- (2) The Clerk of the House of Representatives may at any time resign the office by writing addressed to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or to the Governor-General if there is no Speaker or the Speaker is absent from New Zealand, 35 and shall so resign the office on attaining the age of 65 years.

(3) The Clerk of the House of Representatives may at any time be removed or suspended from office by the Governor-General, upon an address from the House of Representatives, for disability, bankruptcy, neglect of duty, or misconduct.

(4) At any time when the House of Representatives is not in session, the Clerk of the House of Representatives may be suspended from office by the Governor-General for disability, bankruptcy, neglect of duty, or misconduct proved to the satisfaction of the Governor-General; but any such suspension shall not continue in force beyond 2 months after the beginning of the next ensuing session of the House of Representatives. 5

24. Delegation of powers of Clerk of the House of Representatives—(1) On the occurrence from any cause of a vacancy in the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives (whether by reason of death, resignation, or otherwise), and in the case of absence from duty of the Clerk of the House of Representatives (from whatever cause arising), and so long as any such vacancy or absence continues, the Deputy Clerk of the House of Representatives or any other person for the time being performing, pursuant to the Standing Orders of the House of Representatives or by direction of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the duties of the Clerk shall have and may exercise all the functions, duties, and powers of the Clerk of the House of Representatives. 10 15 20

(2) The fact that the Deputy Clerk or any other person exercises any function, duty, or power of the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be conclusive evidence of the authority of the Deputy Clerk or other person to do so. 25

Other Officers of the House of Representatives

24A. Appointment of Deputy Clerk of the House of Representatives, other Clerks at the Table, and Serjeant-at-Arms—(1) There shall from time to time be appointed, as officers of the House of Representatives,— 30

(a) A Deputy Clerk of the House of Representatives and such other Clerks as are required, in the opinion of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, for the purposes of section 20 (2) of this Act: 35

(b) A Serjeant-at-Arms.

(2) The officers specified in subsection (1) of this section shall be appointed by the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

New

(3) The Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, before making any appointment under subsection (2) of this section, consult with both the Speaker of the House of Representatives
5 and the other members of the Parliamentary Service Commission.

(4) The Clerk of the House of Representatives shall, in making any appointment under subsection (2) of this section, have regard both to the provisions of subsections (4) and (5) of section 28
10 of the State Services Act 1962 and to any views expressed in the course of any consultation conducted pursuant to subsection (3) of this section in relation to that appointment.

Government Service of Clerk and Other Officers of House of Representatives

15 24B. Government service—(1) For the purposes of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956, service as the Clerk of the House of Representatives or as an officer of the House of Representatives appointed under section 24A of this Act shall be deemed to be Government service.

20 (2) Where any person who is appointed to the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives or as an officer specified in section 24A (1) of this Act is, at the date of that person's appointment, an officer of the State services, the period of that person's service as Clerk of the House of Representatives or 25 as an officer appointed under section 24A of this Act shall be deemed to be continuous service in that branch of the State services in which that person was employed at that date for the purposes of—

- (a) The Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956;
- 30 (b) Appointment to any position in the State services on the termination of that person's service as Clerk of the House of Representatives or as an officer appointed under section 24A of this Act;
- (c) Entitlement to leave of absence.

35 (3) No person shall be deemed to be employed in the service of Her Majesty for the purposes of the State Services Act 1962 by reason of that person's appointment as the Clerk of the House of Representatives or as an officer of the House of Representatives appointed under section 24A of this Act.

27. Appointment of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service—(1) The General Manager of the Parliamentary Service shall be appointed by the Governor-General on the recommendation of a committee consisting of— 15

(a) The Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall be the chairman of the committee constituted under this subsection: 20

(b) One other member of the Parliamentary Service Commission nominated for the purpose by the Parliamentary Service Commission:

(c) The Chairman of the State Services Commission:

(d) Two permanent heads appointed by the Prime Minister from the panel of permanent heads referred to in section 29 (1) (c) of the State Services Act 1962. 25

(2) Where any member of the panel of 12 permanent heads referred to in section 29 (1) (c) of the State Services Act 1962—

(a) Is an applicant for the position of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service; or 30

(b) Being one of the panel, has ceased to be a permanent head,—

that member of that panel shall not be eligible for appointment in accordance with subsection (1) (d) of this section. 35

(3) The committee constituted under subsection (1) of this section may examine applicants and seek advice from such sources as it considers relevant and necessary.

(4) At any meeting of the committee constituted under subsection (1) of this section, all matters shall be decided by a majority of the votes recorded thereon: 40

Provided that any matter which may be decided by the committee may be decided by means of a minute signed by all members of the committee.

5 (5) The committee constituted under subsection (1) of this section shall—

(a) Have power from time to time to invite such other persons as it thinks fit to assist in its deliberations:

10 (b) Except as otherwise specified in this section, regulate its own procedure.

28. Obligation to advertise vacancy in office of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service—No appointment shall be made to the office of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service unless the vacancy has been notified in 15 the Public Service Official Circular.

29. Prohibition on appeals in respect of appointment of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service—Notwithstanding anything in section 64 (1) of the State Services Act 1962, no appeal by any officer of the Public Service or of 20 the Parliamentary Service shall lie against the promotion or appointment of any officer of the Public Service or of the Parliamentary Service to the office of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service.

30. Salary of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service—(1) There shall be paid to the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service a salary at such rate as the Higher Salaries Commission from time to time determines.

30 (2) Nothing in Parts II to VIII of the State Services Conditions of Employment Act 1977 shall apply in respect of the position of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service.

31. Delegation of powers by General Manager of the Parliamentary Service—(1) The General Manager of the Parliamentary Service may from time to time, by writing signed by the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service, either
35 generally or particularly, delegate to such person or persons employed in the Parliamentary Service as the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service thinks fit all or any of the powers exercisable by the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service under any enactment including any powers delegated
40 to the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service under any enactment, but not including this present power of delegation:

Provided that the General Manager shall not delegate any power delegated to the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service by the Parliamentary Service Commission without the written consent of the Parliamentary Service Commission, or any power delegated to the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service under the State Services Act 1962 without the written consent of the State Services Commission. 5

(2) Subject to any general or special directions given or conditions attached by the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service, the person to whom any powers are delegated under this section may exercise those powers in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred on the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service directly by this section and not by delegation. 10

(3) Every person purporting to act pursuant to any delegation under this section shall be presumed to be acting in accordance with the terms of the delegation in the absence of proof to the contrary. 15

(4) Any delegation under this section may be made to a specified officer or employee or to officers or employees of a specified class, or may be made to the holder or holders for the time being of a specified office of class of offices. 20

(5) Every delegation under this section shall be revocable at will, and no such delegation shall prevent the exercise of any power by the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service. 25

(6) Any such delegation shall, until revoked, continue in force according to its tenor, notwithstanding the fact that the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service by whom it was made may have ceased to hold office, and shall continue to have effect as if made by the successor in office of that General Manager of the Parliamentary Service. 30

31B. Functions of Deputy General Manager of Parliamentary Service—

(1) Subject to the control of the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service, the Deputy
5 General Manager of the Parliamentary Service shall perform such general official duties (including the exercise of functions, duties, and powers of the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service) as are for the time being assigned to the Deputy General Manager of the Parliamentary Service by 10 the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service.

(2) On the occurrence from any cause of a vacancy in the office of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service (whether by reason of death, resignation, or otherwise) and in the case of absence from duty of the General Manager of the 15 Parliamentary Service (from whatever cause arising), and so long as any such vacancy or absence continues, the Deputy General Manager of the Parliamentary Service shall have and may exercise all the functions, duties, and powers of the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service.

(3) The fact that the Deputy General Manager of the 20 Parliamentary Service exercises any function, duty, or power of the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service shall be conclusive evidence of the authority of the Deputy General Manager of the Parliamentary Service to do so.

25 Acting General Manager of Parliamentary Service

31C. Acting General Manager of Parliamentary Service—

(1) On the occurrence from any cause of both a vacancy in the office of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service and a vacancy in the office of Deputy General Manager of the 30 Parliamentary Service (whether by reason of death, resignation, or otherwise) and in the case of the absence from duty of both the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service and the Deputy General Manager of the Parliamentary Service (from whatever cause arising), and from time to time while both
35 vacancies exist or while the holders of both offices are absent from duty, the functions, duties, and powers of the General Manager of the Parliamentary Service may be exercised and performed by any other person, being an employee of the Parliamentary Service or of the Public Service, for the time
40 being directed by the Chairman of the Parliamentary Service Commission to exercise and perform them, whether the direction has been given before the vacancies occur or before the absence from duty of the holders of both offices occurs or while the vacancies or either of them continue or while the absence from duty of the holders of both offices or either of them continues. 5

(2) No such direction and no acts done by any employee of the Parliamentary Service or of the Public Service acting pursuant to any such direction shall in any proceedings be questioned on the ground that the occasion for the direction had not arisen or had ceased, or on the ground that the employee of the Parliamentary Service or of the Public Service had not been appointed to any position to which the direction relates. 10

(3) Nothing in section 33 of the State Services Act 1962 shall apply in respect of a vacancy in the office of General Manager of the Parliamentary Service or a vacancy in the office of Deputy General Manager of the Parliamentary Service or in the case of the absence from duty of either or both of the holders of those offices. 15 20
