

Right Hon. Sir J. G. Ward.

PUBLIC SERVICE CLASSIFICATION AND SUPERANNUATION AMENDMENT.

ANALYSIS.

Title.
1. Short Title.
Public Service Superannuation.
2. Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.
3. Section 23 of principal Act amended.
4. Section 30 of principal Act amended.
5. Section 32 of principal Act amended.
6. Section 33 of principal Act amended.
7. Persons affected by Orders in Council under section 47 of Act of 1908 may in certain cases withdraw from fund.
8. Section 48 of amending Act of 1908 amended.
9. Section 16 of Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893, not applicable to contributors to superannuation funds.
	Teachers' Superannuation.
	10. Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.
	11. Education service to include University professors.
	12. Persons now in office as University professors may elect to become contributors.
	13. Section 6 of amending Act of 1908 amended.
	14. Section 32 of amending Act of 1908 amended.
	15. Right of election to become contributors to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund revived.
	16. Section 35 of amending Act of 1908 amended.
	Government Railways Superannuation.
	17. Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act, 1908, and its Amendments. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1910, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). Short Title.

Public Service Superannuation.

2. (1.) In the case of every person who becomes a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund after the commencement of this Act, and who thereafter retires from the Public Service under such circumstances that he is entitled to an annual retiring-allowance from the said fund, his retiring-allowance shall be computed as follows, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section thirty-five of the principal Act:— Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.

No. 164—1.

2 Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment.

For every year of service such contributor shall receive one-eightieth part of his annual salary, and for every fraction of a year of service that contributor shall receive a proportionate part of one-eightieth of that salary, but in no case shall the retiring-allowance exceed one-half of such salary or the sum of three hundred pounds, whichever sum is the lesser. 5

(2.) This section shall not apply to any person who becomes a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund by way of transfer under the provisions of section forty-eight of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, and who at the commencement of this Act was a contributor to any other superannuation fund within the meaning of that section. 10

Section 23 of principal Act amended.

3. Section twenty-three of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the word "March" in paragraph (a), and substituting the word "July." 15

Section 30 of principal Act amended.

4. Section thirty of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a.) By inserting, after the words "ill health," the words "or for any other reason":

(b.) By inserting, after the words "without salary," the words "or at a reduced salary." 20

Section 32 of principal Act amended.

5. Section thirty-two of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting after paragraph (e) thereof the following paragraph:—

"(ee.) If he dies while still in the Public Service and leaves a wife surviving him, the same amount of compensation shall be payable out of the Consolidated Fund to his personal representatives as would have been payable to him if he had retired compulsorily from the Public Service immediately before his death, and no moneys shall be payable out of the fund except the amount of his contributions." 25 30

Section 33 of principal Act amended.

6. Section thirty-three of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting after the words "service of any contributor" the words "or as to the amount of any contributor's salary within the meaning and for the purposes of this Act." 35

Persons affected by Orders in Council under section 47 of Act of 1908 may in certain cases withdraw from fund.

7. (1.) When, by Order in Council under section forty-seven of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, any place or office in the Public Service is declared not to be or to cease to be subject to Part II of the principal Act, any person who at the date of that Order in Council holds any such place or office, and who is a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund in respect of that place or office and not otherwise, may, within twelve months from the date of that Order in Council, elect, with the consent of the Board, to cease to be a contributor to the said fund, and upon such election he shall be entitled to receive a refund of the whole amount contributed by him to the fund, less any sums already received by him therefrom. 40 45

(2.) Any person who at the commencement of this Act is a contributor to the said fund in respect only of a place or office in respect of which an Order in Council under the said section forty-seven has been issued before the commencement of this Act may, within twelve months from the commencement of this Act, elect, with the consent 50 of the Board, to cease to be a contributor to the said fund, and upon such election he shall be entitled to receive a refund of the whole amount contributed by him to the fund, less any sums already received by him therefrom.

5 (3.) Every election under this section shall be in writing under the hand of the contributor, and shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Public Service Superannuation Board.

8. Section forty-eight of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended by
10 omitting from subsection one thereof the words "within one month thereafter," and substituting the words "after an interval not exceeding fourteen clear days in duration."

Section 48 of amending Act of 1908 amended.

9. Section sixteen of the Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893 (relating to compensation for loss of office), shall not have or be
15 deemed to have had any application to any person who becomes or has heretofore become a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund or to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund.

Section 16 of Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893, not applicable to contributors to superannuation funds.

20 Teachers' Superannuation.

10. (1.) In the case of every person who becomes a contributor to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund after the commencement of this Act, and who thereafter retires from the Education service under such circumstances that he is entitled to an annual retiring-
25 allowance from the said fund, his retiring-allowance shall be computed as follows, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section twelve of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908:—

Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.

30 For every year of service such contributor shall receive one-eighth part of his annual salary, and for every fraction of a year of service that contributor shall receive a proportionate part of one-eighth of that salary, but in no case shall the retiring-allowance exceed one-half of such salary or the sum of three hundred pounds, whichever
35 sum is the lesser.

(2.) This section shall not apply to any person who becomes a contributor to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund by way of transfer under the provisions of section forty-eight of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, and who, at the commencement of this Act, was a contributor to any other
40 superannuation fund within the meaning of that section.

11. (1.) The definition of "Education service" in section two of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby extended so as to include service as a professor in any University College—that is to say, in Auckland University 45 College, Victoria College, Canterbury College, or the University of Otago.

Education service to include University professors.

(2.) Section twenty-nine of the said Act is hereby amended by omitting the word "professor" in subsection one thereof, and nothing in that section shall be so construed as to apply to the employment
50 of any person as a professor in any of the aforesaid University Colleges.

4 Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment.

Persons now in office as University professors may elect to become contributors.

12. (1.) Every person who at the commencement of this Act holds office as a professor in any of the University Colleges aforesaid may at any time within twelve months after the commencement of this Act elect to become a contributor to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund. 5

(2.) Every such election shall be made in writing under the hand of the person so electing and delivered to the Secretary of the Teachers' Superannuation Board or to the Minister of Education.

(3.) If any person so entitled to elect to become a contributor does not so elect within the time aforesaid, he shall not at any future time, whether in respect of the same or any other appointment, be entitled to become a contributor to the fund. 10

(4.) If any person who becomes a contributor to the said fund in pursuance of this section thereafter retires from the education service under such circumstances that he is entitled to an annual retiring-allowance, his retiring-allowance shall be computed in the same manner as that of other persons who become contributors to the said fund after the commencement of this Act, save that there shall be added to the said allowance as so computed an annual sum equal to a one-hundred-and-sixtieth part of his annual salary for every complete year of the aggregate period of his service (whether continuous or not) as a professor in any such university college or colleges as aforesaid prior to the commencement of this Act. 15 20

Section 6 of amending Act of 1908 amended.

13. Section six of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended— 25

(a.) By inserting, after the words "ill health," the words "or for any other reason":

(b.) By inserting, after the words "without salary," the words "or at a reduced salary."

Section 32 of amending Act of 1908 amended.

14. Section thirty-two of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended by inserting after paragraph (e) thereof the following paragraph:— 30

"(ee.) If he dies while still in the Government service and leaves a wife surviving him, the same amount of compensation shall be payable out of the Consolidated Fund to his personal representatives as would have been payable to him if he had retired compulsorily from the Government service immediately before his death, and no moneys shall be payable out of the fund except the amount of his contributions." 35 40

Right of election to become contributors to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund revived.

15. (1.) Every person who by virtue of section two hundred and twenty-five of the Education Act, 1908, had at the date of the passing of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, a right to elect to become a contributor to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund may at any time before the first day of July, nineteen hundred and eleven, if he still remains in the Education service, elect, by notice in writing to the Secretary of the Teachers' Superannuation Board, to become a contributor to the said fund on condition of the payment by him into the fund of such sum, computed in the manner prescribed by regulations, and on such further conditions as the Teachers' Superannuation Board, having due regard to the interests of the fund, determines. 45 50

(2.) All sums so payable into the fund by any person so electing shall be fully paid by him before the first day of July, nineteen hundred and eleven, or before such later date as the said Board determines, and in default of such payment by him he shall cease to 5 be a contributor to the fund.

(3.) Every person so becoming a contributor shall be subject to the provisions of Part I of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908.

(4.) The date at which every such person shall be deemed to 10 become or to have become a contributor, and the length of his service prior to that date, and the percentage of his salary to be contributed to the fund shall, subject to regulations, be determined by the Board in fixing the conditions of his admission as a contributor.

15 16. Section thirty-five of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended by inserting after the words "entitled to count" the words "or as to the amount of any contributor's salary within the meaning and for the purposes of this Act."

Section 35 of amending Act of 1908 amended.

20 Government Railways Superannuation.

17. (1.) In the case of every person who becomes a contributor to the Government Railways Superannuation Fund after the commencement of this Act, and who thereafter retires from the service of the Government Railways Department under such circumstances
25 that he is entitled to an annual retiring-allowance from the said fund, his retiring-allowance shall be computed as follows, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section eighty of the Government Railways Act, 1908 :—

Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.

30 For every year of service such contributor shall receive one-eightieth part of his annual salary, and for every fraction of a year of service that contributor shall receive a proportionate part of one-eightieth of that salary, but in no case shall the retiring-allowance exceed one-half of such salary or the sum of three hundred pounds, which-35 ever sum is the lesser.

(2.) This section shall not apply to any person who becomes a contributor to the Government Railways Superannuation Fund by way of transfer under the provisions of section forty-eight of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 40 1908, and who at the commencement of this Act was a contributor to any other superannuation fund within the meaning of that section.

Right Hon. Sir J. G. Ward.

PUBLIC SERVICE CLASSIFICATION AND SUPERANNUATION AMENDMENT.

ANALYSIS.

Title. 1. Short Title. Public Service Superannuation. 2. Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors. 3. Section 23 of principal Act amended. 4. Section 30 of principal Act amended. 5. Section 32 of principal Act amended. 6. Section 33 of principal Act amended. 7. Persons affected by Orders in Council under section 47 of Act of 1908 may in certain cases withdraw from fund. 8. Section 48 of amending Act of 1908 amended. 9. Section 16 of Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893, not applicable to contributors to superannuation funds.	Teachers' Superannuation. 10. Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors. 11. Education service to include University professors. 12. Persons now in office as University professors may elect to become contributors. 13. Section 6 of amending Act of 1908 amended. 14. Section 32 of amending Act of 1908 amended. 15. Right of election to become contributors to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund revived. 16. Section 35 of amending Act of 1908 amended. Government Railways Superannuation. 17. Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.
--	--

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to amend the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act, 1908, and its Amendments. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1910, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act). Short Title.

Public Service Superannuation.

2. (1.) In the case of every person who becomes a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund after the commencement of this Act, and who thereafter retires from the Public Service under such circumstances that he is entitled to an annual retiring-allowance from the said fund, his retiring-allowance shall be computed as follows, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section thirty-five of the principal Act:— Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.

2 Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment.

For every year of service such contributor shall receive one-eightieth part of his annual salary, and for every fraction of a year of service that contributor shall receive a proportionate part of one-eightieth of that salary, but in no case shall the retiring-allowance exceed one-half of such salary or the sum of three hundred pounds, whichever sum is the lesser. 5

(2.) This section shall not apply to any person who becomes a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund by way of transfer under the provisions of section forty-eight of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, and who at the commencement of this Act was a contributor to any other superannuation fund within the meaning of that section. 10

Section 23 of principal Act amended.

3. Section twenty-three of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the word "March" in paragraph (a), and substituting the word "July." 15

Section 30 of principal Act amended.

4. Section thirty of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a.) By inserting, after the words "ill health," the words "or for any other reason":

(b.) By inserting, after the words "without salary," the words "or at a reduced salary." 20

Section 32 of principal Act amended.

5. Section thirty-two of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting after paragraph (e) thereof the following paragraph:—

"(ee.) If he dies while still in the Public Service and leaves a wife surviving him, the same amount of compensation shall be payable out of the Consolidated Fund to his personal representatives as would have been payable to him if he had retired compulsorily from the Public Service immediately before his death, and no moneys shall be payable out of the fund except the amount of his contributions." 25 30

Section 33 of principal Act amended.

6. Section thirty-three of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting after the words "service of any contributor" the words "or as to the amount of any contributor's salary within the meaning and for the purposes of this Act." 35

Persons affected by Orders in Council under section 47 of Act of 1908 may in certain cases withdraw from fund.

7. (1.) When, by Order in Council under section forty-seven of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, any place or office in the Public Service is declared not to be or to cease to be subject to Part II of the principal Act, any person who at the date of that Order in Council holds any such place or office, and who is a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund in respect of that place or office and not otherwise, may, within twelve months from the date of that Order in Council, elect, with the consent of the Board, to cease to be a contributor to the said fund, and upon such election he shall be entitled to receive a refund of the whole amount contributed by him to the fund, less any sums already received by him therefrom. 40 45

(2.) Any person who at the commencement of this Act is a contributor to the said fund in respect only of a place or office in respect of which an Order in Council under the said section forty-seven has been issued before the commencement of this Act may, within twelve months from the commencement of this Act, elect, with the consent 50 of the Board, to cease to be a contributor to the said fund, and upon such election he shall be entitled to receive a refund of the whole amount contributed by him to the fund, less any sums already received by him therefrom.

5 (3.) Every election under this section shall be in writing under the hand of the contributor, and shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Public Service Superannuation Board.

8. Section forty-eight of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended by
10 omitting from subsection one thereof the words "within one month thereafter," and substituting the words "after an interval not exceeding fourteen clear days in duration."

Section 48 of amending Act of 1908 amended.

9. Section sixteen of the Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893 (relating to compensation for loss of office), shall not have or be
15 deemed to have had any application to any person who becomes or has heretofore become a contributor to the Public Service Superannuation Fund or to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund.

Section 16 of Civil Service Insurance Act, 1893, not applicable to contributors to superannuation funds.

20 Teachers' Superannuation.

10. (1.) In the case of every person who becomes a contributor to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund after the commencement of this Act, and who thereafter retires from the Education service under such circumstances that he is entitled to an annual retiring-25 allowance from the said fund, his retiring-allowance shall be computed as follows, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section twelve of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908:—

Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.

30 For every year of service such contributor shall receive oneeightieth part of his annual salary, and for every fraction of a year of service that contributor shall receive a proportionate part of one-eightieth of that salary, but in no case shall the retiring-allowance exceed one-half of such 35 salary or the sum of three hundred pounds, whichever sum is the lesser.

(2.) This section shall not apply to any person who becomes a contributor to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund by way of transfer under the provisions of section forty-eight of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, and who,
at the commencement of this Act, was a contributor to any other 40 superannuation fund within the meaning of that section.

11. (1.) The definition of "Education service" in section two of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby extended so as to include service as a professor in any University College—that is to say, in Auckland University 45 College, Victoria College, Canterbury College, or the University of Otago.

Education service to include University professors.

(2.) Section twenty-nine of the said Act is hereby amended by omitting the word "professor" in subsection one thereof, and nothing in that section shall be so construed as to apply to the employment 50 of any person as a professor in any of the aforesaid University Colleges.

4 Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment.

Persons now in office as University professors may elect to become contributors.

12. (1.) Every person who at the commencement of this Act holds office as a professor in any of the University Colleges aforesaid may at any time within twelve months after the commencement of this Act elect to become a contributor to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund. 5

(2.) Every such election shall be made in writing under the hand of the person so electing and delivered to the Secretary of the Teachers' Superannuation Board or to the Minister of Education.

(3.) If any person so entitled to elect to become a contributor does not so elect within the time aforesaid, he shall not at any future time, whether in respect of the same or any other appointment, be entitled to become a contributor to the fund. 10

(4.) If any person who becomes a contributor to the said fund in pursuance of this section thereafter retires from the education service under such circumstances that he is entitled to an annual retiring-allowance, his retiring-allowance shall be computed in the same manner as that of other persons who become contributors to the said fund after the commencement of this Act, save that there shall be added to the said allowance as so computed an annual sum equal to a one-hundred-and-sixtieth part of his annual salary for every complete year of the aggregate period of his service (whether continuous or not) as a professor in any such university college or colleges as aforesaid prior to the commencement of this Act. 15 20

Section 6 of amending Act of 1908 amended.

13. Section six of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended— 25

(a.) By inserting, after the words "ill health," the words "or for any other reason":

(b.) By inserting, after the words "without salary," the words "or at a reduced salary."

Section 32 of amending Act of 1908 amended.

14. Section thirty-two of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended by inserting after paragraph (e) thereof the following paragraph:— 30

"(ee.) If he dies while still in the Government service and leaves a wife surviving him, the same amount of compensation shall be payable out of the Consolidated Fund to his personal representatives as would have been payable to him if he had retired compulsorily from the Government service immediately before his death, and no moneys shall be payable out of the fund except the amount of his contributions." 35 40

Right of election to become contributors to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund revived.

15. (1.) Every person who by virtue of section two hundred and twenty-five of the Education Act, 1908, had at the date of the passing of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, a right to elect to become a contributor to the Teachers' Superannuation Fund may at any time before the first day of July, nineteen hundred and eleven, if he still remains in the Education service, elect, by notice in writing to the Secretary of the Teachers' Superannuation Board, to become a contributor to the said fund on condition of the payment by him into the fund of such sum, computed in the manner prescribed by regulations, and on such further conditions as the Teachers' Superannuation Board, having due regard to the interests of the fund, determines. 45 50

(2.) All sums so payable into the fund by any person so electing shall be fully paid by him before the first day of July, nineteen hundred and eleven, or before such later date as the said Board determines, and in default of such payment by him he shall cease to be a contributor to the fund.

(3.) Every person so becoming a contributor shall be subject to the provisions of Part I of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908.

(4.) The date at which every such person shall be deemed to become or to have become a contributor, and the length of his service prior to that date, and the percentage of his salary to be contributed to the fund shall, subject to regulations, be determined by the Board in fixing the conditions of his admission as a contributor.

16. Section thirty-five of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended by inserting after the words "entitled to count" the words "or as to the amount of any contributor's salary within the meaning and for the purposes of this Act."

Section 35 of amending Act of 1908 amended.

20 Government Railways Superannuation.

17. (1.) In the case of every person who becomes a contributor to the Government Railways Superannuation Fund after the commencement of this Act, and who thereafter retires from the service of the Government Railways Department under such circumstances that he is entitled to an annual retiring-allowance from the said fund, his retiring-allowance shall be computed as follows, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section eighty of the Government Railways Act, 1908:—

Computation of retiring-allowances in the case of future contributors.

For every year of service such contributor shall receive one-eightieth part of his annual salary, and for every fraction of a year of service that contributor shall receive a proportionate part of one-eightieth of that salary, but in no case shall the retiring-allowance exceed one-half of such salary or the sum of three hundred pounds, whichever sum is the lesser.

(2.) This section shall not apply to any person who becomes a contributor to the Government Railways Superannuation Fund by way of transfer under the provisions of section forty-eight of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1908, and who at the commencement of this Act was a contributor to any other superannuation fund within the meaning of that section.