In every such case the provisions of this section shall apply as so varied, and the employer shall furnish returns accordingly.

(3) The exercise by the Commissioner of his discretion under subsection (2) of this section shall not in any case exempt an employer from his liability to pay any payroll tax, notwithstanding that it may have the effect of varying the time for payment of any payroll tax.

The executor or administrator shall be chargeable with, and assessable and liable for, payroll tax or further payroll tax in respect of those chargeable wages in the same manner in which the employer might have been chargeable, assessable, and liable had he remained alive. 10 15 20 employer, although he has not made a return, is liable to pay payroll tax,—

25 the Commissioner may make an assessment of the amount on which, in his judgment, payroll tax ought to be levied and of the amount of that tax, and that employer shall be liable to pay the tax so assessed, save in so far as he establishes on objection that the assessment is excessive or that he is not chargeable with payroll tax.

30 (3) Where an employer is dissatisfied with any decision

(5) As soon as conveniently may be after an assessment or amended assessment is made under this section, the Commissioner shall cause notice of the assessment or amended assessment to be given to the employer liable to pay the payroll tax or further payroll tax. 10

(6) Where any payroll tax or further payroll tax assessed under an assessment or amended assessment made under this section is not paid within the time specified in section 17 of this Act, or within such further time as the Commissioner allows under that section, the Commissioner may, in any case where he considers that the circumstances warrant it, specify in the notice of the assessment or amended assessment such later date as he, in his discretion, determines for the payment of that payroll tax or further payroll tax and, in that event, that payroll tax or further payroll tax shall be payable on or before that date. 15 20 25

(7) The omission to give any such notice under subsection (5) of this section shall not invalidate the assessment or in any manner affect the operation thereof. 25

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, in any case where, in the opinion of the Commissioner, the return so made is fraudulent or wilfully misleading, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner—

(a) Where an assessment has not been made, to make an assessment at any time:

- 15 (b) Where an assessment has been made, to alter the assessment at any time so as to increase the amount thereof.

20. Objections to assessments—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, an assessment made under section 18 of this Act shall be subject to objection in the same manner as an assessment of income tax levied under section 77 of the Land and Income Tax Act 1954, and the provisions of sections 29 to 34 of that Act, as far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, shall apply to an objection to an assessment made under the said section 18 of this Act as if—

- (e) Any matter in respect of which it is expressly provided in this Act, or in any provision of the Land and Income Tax Act 1954 applied to payroll tax by this Act, that there shall be no right of objection to the decision or determination of the Commissioner. 20

21. Employer leaving New Zealand—Where the Commissioner has reason to believe that an employer may leave New Zealand before any payroll tax or further payroll tax becomes due and payable by him, the payroll tax or further payroll tax shall be due and payable on such date as the Commissioner fixes and notifies in writing to the employer. 25

- 10 (2) No amount of additional payroll tax in excess of $500 in any case shall be remitted or refunded under the proviso to subsection (1) of this section except with the approval of the Minister of Finance, given either specifically with respect to that case or generally with respect to a class of cases.
- 15 (3) Any amount imposed by way of additional payroll tax under this section shall be in addition to any other penalty to which the employer may be liable, and shall for all purposes be deemed to be of the same nature as the unpaid payroll tax in respect of which it is imposed, and shall, except to the extent
- 20 that relief is granted in respect thereof under the proviso to subsection (1) of this section, be recoverable accordingly.

35 Provided that where the total amount of wages that would have been chargeable wages in the period that commenced on the 1st day of April 1970 and ended with the 31st day of July 1970 would have been less than $2,600 if payroll tax had been payable in respect of chargeable wages paid or payable in that period, there shall be allowed a further 40 deduction from the total amount of chargeable wages paid or payable by the employer in the specified period of the amount by which the general exemption which would have been allowed in that first-mentioned period exceeds the amount that would have been chargeable wages in that period if payroll tax had been payable in respect of chargeable wages paid or payable in that period:

- (b) Any wages (not being wages of any of the kinds which are exempt from payroll tax under section 7 of this Act) paid before the 1st day of August 1970 shall, to the extent that they are paid in respect of a period on or after that date, be deemed to be chargeable wages and to have been paid on that date: 5
- (c) Any wages (not being accrued holiday pay or accrued long-service leave pay) paid or payable in the specified period shall, to the extent to which they are paid or payable in respect of a period before the 1st day of August 1970, be deemed to have been paid and payable before that date. 15

5 Chairman of the Committee.

(6) The Committee shall, within the scope of its jurisdiction, be deemed to be a Commission of Inquiry under the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, and, subject to the provisions of this section, all the provisions of that Act, except 10 sections 11 and 12 (which relate to costs), shall apply accordingly.

New

 - (b) Has made application in writing to the Committee 5
within 1 month after the date upon which he is liable to make any payment of payroll tax in respect of any chargeable wages paid or payable to any persons who are engaged by him in the performance of that contract, or within such later time as the 10 Committee, in its discretion, may allow; and
 - (c) Establishes to the satisfaction of the Committee that, by reason of the terms of that contract, payment of the full amount of that payroll tax would result in a serious deterioration in the financial stability and 15
viability of his business,— the Committee may determine that the employer shall be relieved from liability to pay payroll tax to such extent and on such terms as it determines.

- (13) Upon receiving notice of any such determination 20
