5

106. The same proceedings shall be had for making, levying, collecting, and recovering any separate or special rate as are hereinbefore enacted and set forth for making, levying, collecting, and recovering general rates under this section, but as if the words "portion of the river district" were substituted for the words "river district."

10

107. All such rates shall be held by every local authority as trustee for the River Board of the district, and shall be handed over to such Board as collected.

15

Every such local authority shall be entitled to retain all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in and about making and levying, collecting, and recovering the same, and a reasonable remuneration for clerical and other work. If any dispute shall arise as to the amount so to be retained or otherwise in relation thereto, the same shall be decided by such person as the Governor may appoint for the purpose.

(2.) That a resolution of the County Council to be affected by such petition, concurring in the prayer thereof, is transmitted to the Governor.

5 132. On the proposed constitution of a new river district, it shall be sufficient if the matter of the above-mentioned petition be included in any petition presented to the Governor praying him to constitute such district; and in such case a separate petition shall not be necessary, but the resolution of the Council shall be indispensable in all cases.

Similarly as to new districts.

10 133. Every Proclamation issued under the last preceding section shall take effect on a day certain, to be specified therein; and on the coming into effect of such Proclamation—

30 All property within the river district rateable under this Act shall be rated thereunder, and not under "The Counties Act, 1876;" but the rates when collected shall be paid into a separate account in the County Fund, and may be administered under "The Counties Act, 1876," but shall be applied only for the purposes for which the same were levied.

35 (3.) Every County Council constituted a River Board shall have not only the powers of such Boards under this Act, but also all powers granted to such Boards under any other Act of the General Assembly.
