PART I.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION.

4. All regulations hereafter made shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall take effect on such publication, unless a subsequent date be specified therefor in the Order in Council, and shall be laid before Parliament within fourteen days after the making thereof if Parliament be then sitting, or, if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament.

Future regulations to be laid before Parliament. New provision.

5. The Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council, make, alter, or revoke such regulations as he may deem necessary for all or any of the following purposes:—

Governor's powers to make regulations for administration of Act.

(a.) For dividing the colony into districts for the purposes of this Act, and parting any district into subdivisions, and assigning names thereto respectively :

1881, No. 4, s. 16.
1890, No. 18, s. 5.
1890, No. 19, ss. 4, 5, 6, 7.

(b.) For determining in which district or subdivision any land intersected by any district or subdivision shall be included :

(c.) For regulating the duties of Inspectors of Stock, Registrars of Brands, and all other officers generally, or in particular circumstances, as the case may be, and for the management of offices :

(d.) For imposing fees and charges for anything authorised by this Act, and for prescribing by and to whom and when such fees and charges shall be paid :

(e.) And generally for such purposes as he may deem necessary or expedient for carrying out the objects and purposes of this Act in all matters of detail whatsoever.

6. Any Order in Council made under this Act may declare that the provisions thereof shall apply to one or more kinds of stock, and may also declare that the provisions of any such Order in Council shall apply to the whole colony, or only to such part or parts thereof as the Governor shall direct or appoint.

Regulations may be of limited or general force.
1881, No. 4, ss. 6, 7.

All Orders in Council made under this Act shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in this Act; and all persons offending against any such Order in Council shall, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding five hundred pounds, or such smaller sum as by such Order in Council may be provided.

7. Until other regulations shall be made under the authority hereof, such of the Orders in Council and regulations made under the several Acts hereby repealed as are in force at the time of the commencement of this Act shall be the regulations under this Act in respect of the several subject-matters to which such Orders in Council and regulations respectively relate.

Existing Orders and regulations to continue. Consequential.

8. In and by any regulations made under this Act the Governor in Council may prescribe the maximum and minimum penalties for the breach thereof in such manner that the maximum penalty for any offence shall not exceed in any case the sum of five hundred pounds.

Penalties for breach.
1881, No. 4, s. 19 amended.

PART II.

STOCK DISEASES.

Appointment and General Powers of Inspectors.

Governor to appoint Inspectors and other persons.
1881, No. 4, s. 11.
1890, No. 19, s. 9.

9. The Governor may from time to time appoint and remove a Chief Inspector of Stock, Inspectors of Stock, and temporary Inspectors, and such other officers as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. The several Chief Inspectors and Inspectors of Stock holding office at the commencement of this Act under the authority of "The Sheep Act, 1890," shall, until other appointments are made, be respectively Inspectors of Stock under this Act, and shall, for the purposes of this Act, be considered duly appointed Inspectors. 5

Inspector not to be interested as owner
or dealer in stock.
1881, No. 4, s. 15.
1890, No. 19, s. 9.

10. No Inspector shall be either directly or indirectly an owner of or dealer in stock, or shall act as the agent of an owner of or dealer in stock in the district or subdivision in his charge. 15

Penalty for taking unauthorised fees.
1881, No. 4, s. 15.
1890, No. 19, s. 17.

11. If any Inspector shall receive any payment or consideration for the performance of any act, matter, or thing authorized or directed by this Act, other than the salary payable to him, he shall be dismissed.

But nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any Inspector from demanding or receiving any fees or charges authorized by this Act. 20

Powers of Inspector.
1881, No. 4, s. 23.
1890, No. 19, s. 10.
Amended.

12. Every Inspector shall have power to enter at any time into any conveyance, or upon any land or premises, or on board any vessel, for the purpose of inspecting any stock, and may give the owner notice to muster such stock at a place and on a date to be named in such notice, and shall have all such other powers and authorities as may be necessary for enabling him to enforce the provisions of this Act and the regulations, and may direct the owner of any diseased or infected stock to take such measures as regards their treatment, or to do such other acts, as in the opinion of the Inspector shall be necessary to eradicate or check the spread of disease. 25 30

In case of resistance
Inspector to use all necessary force.
New provision.

13. Every Inspector is hereby empowered, in case of resistance, to use all necessary force to effect an entry upon any land or premises or into any conveyance, or on board any vessel, and to obtain and, for the purposes of this Act and the regulations, maintain possession of any stock, fodder, or fittings there found, and for the purposes of this section shall have all the powers of a constable. 35

Inspector may declare infected areas and places
where disease exists.
1881, No. 4, s. 26
amended.

14. Any Inspector, on receiving information of the supposed existence of disease, or having reasonable ground to suspect that disease exists, or has within the preceding three months existed, in any place, shall proceed to that place with all practicable speed, and shall inquire into the existence of disease in such place, or in any other place, in the manner hereinafter set forth:— 40

(1.) He may call upon all persons concerned in or having the charge, control, or management of any such stock suspected or said to be diseased to give evidence before him as to the facts within their knowledge relating to such stock. 45

(2.) If any person, after having received notice to attend for that purpose, shall refuse or neglect to attend, or to answer any inquiries put to him by the Inspector under the authority of this Act, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds and not less than one pound.

5 (3.) If any person, in giving such evidence or in answering such inquiries, shall make any statement knowing the same to be false, he shall, on conviction thereof before a Resident Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds and not less than five pounds, or to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months.

10 But nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any person to give any evidence or answer any inquiry which would render him liable to any criminal prosecution.

15 (4.) If it appears to the Inspector that disease exists or has within the preceding ninety days existed among such stock, or on the land inspected or examined by himself or any other Inspector, he shall so determine, and shall declare such land to be an infected place, and shall forthwith notify the Chief Inspector, who shall cause notice of the fact to be published in the Gazette and in such newspapers circulating in the district or subdivision where the disease has been ascertained to exist as he thinks fit.

20 Such notice shall particularly describe the place and area intended to be affected by the declaration, and until released such place and area shall be deemed to be an infected place and area from which no stock, fodder, or fittings shall be removed except under the direction of an Inspector.

25 The provisions of this section shall not be deemed to apply to stock infected or affected by the diseases actinomycosis, cancer, or tuberculosis.

30 15. If, upon examining any stock, an Inspector shall believe the same to be diseased, he is hereby authorised and empowered to kill one or more of such stock, for the purpose of deciding whether such stock are diseased or infected with an infectious or contagious disease; and Inspector may kill one or more head of stock.

New provision.

35 If found to be affected with disease he may deal as provided in the last preceding section with the remainder of such lot or drove of stock; or,

40 If the stock are travelling or astray he shall place such stock on the nearest available land, and where there is no danger of other stock becoming infected, and declare such land to be an infected place.

45 16. Any Inspector may, whenever necessary, employ any person or persons to assist him in carrying out the provisions of this Act and the regulations, and may pay such remuneration to such person or persons as he may deem reasonable, and the owner through whose neglect, omission, or other default, or by reason of the infection or removal of or other dealing with whose stock, the expenses of such employment shall have been incurred, shall repay the same to the Inspector on demand; and in default of payment such expenses may be recovered in any Court of competent jurisdiction by or on behalf of an Inspector, or such stock, or a sufficient number thereof,

Inspector may employ assistant.
New provision.

50

or any other stock of the same owner, may be seized and sold by order of the Chief Inspector to pay such expenses, together with the costs of seizure and sale.

Inspector may destroy diseased stock.
1890, No. 18, ss. 8, 9.

17. Any Inspector may seize and destroy or cause to be destroyed any diseased stock on any land, or any diseased stray stock, or diseased travelling stock, or any diseased stock found in any slaughter-house or yard or yards attached thereto, or in any saleyard, or any public yard or yards, or on any land or other place at which stock may be offered for sale or exhibition, and shall keep a record of all stock so destroyed, with description, brands, and marks thereof, the name of the disease, and the locality where destroyed.

Penalty for obstructing, &c.,
Inspectors.
1881, No. 4, s. 23.
1890, No. 19, s. 11.

18. Every person who obstructs or hinders any Inspector in the exercise of his powers or in the performance of his duty, or who fails or neglects to obey any lawful direction of an Inspector, is liable, for every such offence, to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and not less than two pounds.

Inspector not liable for loss.
New provision.

19. No Inspector shall be liable for any loss or damage occasioned to any owner of stock by any act of such Inspector, unless such damage shall be occasioned by his wilful neglect or default.

Introduction of Disease Prevention.

Governor may appoint quarantine-grounds.
1881, No. 4, s. 20.

20. The Governor may, from time to time, in each port or place within the colony, by Proclamation, set apart and define quarantine-grounds for the detention of imported stock, or for one or more kinds of imported stock, and from time to time may vary, alter, or redefine or abolish any such quarantine-grounds.

The cost of erecting the necessary buildings and fencing shall be defrayed out of any moneys that from time to time may be appropriated by the General Assembly for the purposes of this Act.

Quarantine-grounds to be under charge of Chief Inspector.

All quarantine-grounds, and all erections, buildings, fences, and appurtenances thereon, shall be under the charge of the Chief Inspector.

All quarantine-grounds appointed for the purposes of any Act hereby repealed shall be deemed to have been so appointed under this Act.

Regulations for prohibiting or restricting introduction of stock.
1881, No. 4, ss. 16, 40.
1890, No. 19, ss. 40,
41, 42.
Amended.

21. The Governor may, from time to time, by Order in Council, make, alter, vary, or revoke such regulations as he may deem necessary for all or any of the following purposes:—

- (a.) For prohibiting or restricting the importation or introduction of stock, or of any one or more kinds of stock into the colony, or any part thereof, either generally or from such countries, colonies, or places and during such periods as may appear to him necessary or expedient for the purpose of preventing the introduction into the colony of any disease affecting stock:
- (b.) For the seizure and destruction of diseased stock introduced into the colony:
- (c.) For restricting the introduction into the colony of any fodder or fittings, and for the seizure, destruction, or sale of any fodder or fittings improperly introduced or moved, or found with or about any diseased or infected stock:
- (d.) For the declaring of the several diseases affecting stock:

- (e.) For prescribing certain ports at which stock or any particular kind or kinds of stock may be introduced :
- 5 (f.) For the regulation, management, and control of quarantine-grounds, and for prescribing the disposal and treatment of stock while in quarantine, or in transit thereto or therefrom :
- 10 (g.) - 15 (h.) For the inspection of stock introduced, or about to be introduced, into the colony :
- (i.) For prescribing the term during which stock intended to be introduced into the colony shall remain in quarantine :
- 20 (j.) For regulating the charges to be made for conveying stock to and from quarantine, and for their maintenance and inspection while in quarantine :
- (k.) For regulating the duties of masters of vessels in relation to any stock, whether intended or not intended to be introduced into the colony :
- 25 (l.) For prescribing the manner in which persons coming into contact with foreign stock or any vessel, conveyance, or fittings used for foreign stock shall be disinfected :
- (m.) For the confiscation and destruction of stock, fodder, and fittings in certain cases : and
- 30 (n.) Generally for all or any such purposes as he may deem necessary for preventing the introduction of disease.

22. Every person who wilfully, without the written permission of the Minister, introduces or causes to be introduced into the colony the virus of any disease, whether or not such virus be in an 35 attenuated form, is liable on conviction for such offence to imprisonment for any period not exceeding two years.

Punishment for introducing virus of disease.
New provision.

Spread of Disease Prevention.

23. The Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council, make, alter, or revoke such regulations as he may deem necessary
 40 for all or any of the following purposes :—
- (a.) For the seizure and destruction of diseased or infected stock :
 - (b.) For the eradication and for preventing the spread of any disease :
 - 45 (c.) For declaring any land or premises to be an infected place, and for prohibiting or regulating the movements of stock and persons into, in, or out of such infected place :

Regulations for preventing spread of disease.
 1881, No. 4, ss. 16, 40.
 1890, No. 18, s. 5.

- (d.) For the management of stock in an infected place :
- (e.) For prescribing the treatment and remedial measures to be adopted and taken in respect of diseased or infected stock, and of stock suspected of being diseased or infected, or of any one or more kinds of such stock : 5
- (f.) For declaring infected areas from which no stock, or no one or more kinds of stock, and no fodder or fittings, shall be removed, except in accordance with the regulations :
- (g.) For restricting and regulating the moving of diseased or infected stock : 10
- (h.) For prohibiting or regulating the manner in which stock shall be driven or allowed to pass from one district to another within the colony :
- (i.) For prohibiting or restricting the introduction, removal, travelling, or moving of stock, or of any one or more kinds of stock, into, from, and within such areas and places, and during such times, as may appear to him necessary or expedient for the purpose of preventing the spread within the colony of any disease affecting stock : 15
- (j.) For prescribing the manner in which persons coming into contact with diseased or infected stock and land, premises, or conveyances travelled over or used by diseased or infected stock shall be cleansed and disinfected : 20
- (k.) For destroying, or prohibiting, or restricting the removal or moving of any fodder or fittings from or within any infected areas or places : 25
- (l.) For the seizure, destruction, or disposal of stray stock :
- (m.) For prescribing certain brands or marks to be used on diseased, infected, or inoculated stock :
- (n.) For the registration, inspection, cleansing, drainage, water-supply, and for the general management of dairies, milk-shops, cow-sheds, and slaughter-houses, and for providing for remedial and precautionary measures to be taken by the owners and occupiers thereof against disease : and 30
- (o.) Generally for all or any such purpose as he may deem necessary for preventing the spread of disease. 35

24. If any Inspector is satisfied that any stock are diseased, he shall give the owner of such stock notice, as required by subsection four of section fourteen, that such stock are diseased, and shall also notify to the Chief Inspector, who shall cause an inspection and report to be made of such stock by a veterinary surgeon. 40

Should the Minister be satisfied that such or any other stock are diseased, or have during the preceding three months been diseased, he may cause steps to be taken to eradicate the disease or that the diseased or infected stock be destroyed ; if the latter, such diseased or infected stock shall be destroyed by the owner, under the supervision of an Inspector. 45

Any expense incurred by the Inspector may be recovered by or on behalf of such Inspector from the owner of such stock in any Court of competent jurisdiction. 50

Inspector to notify owner if stock diseased.
1831, No. 4, ss. 22 to 24, amended.

Minister may order destruction of stock.
1890, No. 19, s. 24, amended.

25. Every owner of diseased stock, or of stock suspected to be diseased, shall, within twenty-four hours from the time when he shall have discovered or suspected such stock to be diseased, give notice thereof to the Inspector of the subdivision in which such stock are running, and shall keep the diseased stock from coming into contact with any other stock. Every person offending against or violating the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty of not less than five pounds and not exceeding fifty pounds for each and every day that he shall neglect or omit to perform the duty hereby imposed upon him.
26. Owner of diseased stock to be liable in damages to party injured.

1890, No. 18, s. 14.

But nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit or deprive any person suffering any such loss or damage of any remedy which he might have had at law or otherwise for recovering the same if this Act had not been passed.

25 Sheep Affected with Lice, Ticks, or Footrot.

42. Every owner shall, between the first day of February and the thirtieth day of April in every year, dip or caused to be dipped all longwool or crossbred sheep running on land whereof he is the occupier. For every sheep not so dipped such owner shall be liable to a fine of not more than ten shillings and not less than sixpence.

Annual dipping compulsory.
New provision.

43. If any Inspector is satisfied that any sheep in a flock are affected with lice or ticks, he may give the owner notice to dip such flock forthwith to the satisfaction of the said Inspector, or any other Inspector; but if the Inspector is satisfied that such sheep are intended and fit for slaughter he may postpone the giving of such notice to dip for a period not exceeding fourteen days.

Notice to dip sheep affected with lice
or ticks.
1890, No. 19, s. 49,
amended.

Every such owner who refuses, neglects, or fails to comply with such notice on or before the date specified therein is liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds nor less than five pounds; and, if immediately after the date of such conviction such sheep shall not be dipped to the satisfaction of any Inspector, such owner shall, upon conviction, be liable to a further penalty not exceeding fifty pounds nor less than twenty pounds, and so on for each and every succeeding conviction.

Penalty for neglect to dip after notice.

44. Section twenty-seven shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to all sheep affected with lice or contagious footrot, and to every person who drives or depastures or suffers such sheep to stray as mentioned in the aforesaid section:

Penalty for removing sheep affected with lice or contagious foot-rot.
1890, No. 19, s. 50,
amended.

Provided that, for the purposes of this section, the aforesaid section twenty-seven shall be read as if the words "five pounds" and "one pound" had been inserted therein in the place of the words "fifty pounds" and "two pounds" respectively.

Penalty on owner of sheep affected with lice or contagious footrot found in public yard, &c. 1890, No. 19, s. 51, amended.

45. If any sheep affected with lice or contagious footrot shall be found in any pound, or in any yard or yards, or on any land or other place at which sheep are offered for sale, the owner exposing the sheep so affected shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds. 5

Any Inspector if he deems it necessary may order the withdrawal from sale of any sheep affected with lice or contagious footrot until such sheep shall have been dipped or dressed to the satisfaction of such Inspector or any other Inspector, and shall give notice to the aforesaid owner of such sheep to dip or dress the same forthwith at such place as the Inspector may direct; and every such owner who refuses, neglects, or fails to comply with the aforesaid notice is liable to a further penalty not exceeding twenty pounds nor less than five pounds. But, if the Inspector is satisfied that such sheep are intended for immediate slaughter, he may withhold such notice to dip. 10 15 20

Ewes need not be dipped during lambing-time. Ibid, s. 52.

46. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or any notice given thereunder, it shall not be necessary to dip any ewe affected with lice or ticks during such time previous to or after her lambing as the Inspector may appoint; and for such purpose any Inspector may, in respect of ewes, extend any notice to dip for such time as he shall think fit. 25

Notice to dress sheep affected with foot-rot. New provision.

47. If any Inspector is satisfied that any sheep in a flock are affected with foot-rot he may give the owner notice to pare and dress the feet of such sheep forthwith to the satisfaction of the said Inspector or any other Inspector. Every owner who refuses or fails to comply with such notice on or before the date specified therein is liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and not less than one pound. 30

PART III.

RETURNS AND RATES UPON SHEEP.

Return of sheep be furnished annually. Schedule B. Ibid, s. 21, amended.

48. Every owner of sheep shall, between the first and fourteenth days of April in every year, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Chief Inspector of stock or to the Inspector of the subdivision a written return, in the form provided in Schedule B, of the total number of sheep of each sex, owned by him on the thirty-first day of March preceding, specifying in such return the ear-mark and brand of such owner; and 35 40

Every former owner of sheep who, within the twelve months since he made his last return, has ceased to be such an owner, shall nevertheless make a return to the effect that he no longer owns sheep, and shall give the names, occupation, and address of the purchaser or purchasers. 45

Every person who refuses or neglects to deliver or cause to be delivered any such return as mentioned in this section is liable for each offence to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds and not less than one pound.

5 49. Every owner of sheep shall, on or before the first day of August in every year, pay to such person as may be authorised by the Governor to receive the same, the sum of two shillings for every hundred or fractional part of a hundred sheep owned by him on the last day of March preceding, and specified in the return furnished by 10 him as provided in section forty-eight.

Yearly rate to be paid by owner of sheep.
1890, No. 19, s. 22.

15 50. All and every such yearly sum or sums of money payable as prescribed by section forty-eight shall, in case the same be not paid on or before the said first day of August, be a debt owing by the owner of such sheep to the Crown, and may be sued for and recovered in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Rates to be paid on or before 1st August.

20 If any such owner fails to pay such sum or sums on or before the above-mentioned date, the sum of one shilling for every ten shillings or part of ten shillings of the amount of such sum or sums, or on any part unpaid thereof, shall be added thereto, and such addition or penalty shall be recoverable as aforesaid.

Penalty on default.

PART IV.

MUSTERING, DRIVING, ETC., STOCK.

25 51. Every occupier of any land who shall muster his stock for either of the purposes of ear-marking, shearing, or removal from the land, shall before yarding the same, give due notice to the occupiers of all the adjoining lands of his intention so to yard his stock.

Notice to be given before mustering stock.
Ibid, s. 66, amended.

30 Any stockowner who has reason to believe that any of his stock have strayed on to any land in the occupation of any other stockowner may, by writing under his hand, require such other stockowner to give him personal notice or notice by letter of his intention to muster his stock twenty-four hours at least before yarding the same. Every person who neglects to give any notice as mentioned in this section to any such occupier or stockowner is liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

35 52. Any Inspector may, if he think fit, upon the application of any owner of stock who has reason to believe that any of his stock have strayed to and upon any land occupied by any other person, by notice, require such occupier to muster his stock, or, in the case of 40 not being an owner of stock, allow such stray stock to be mustered in a yard or pen on a date to be named in such notice, for the purpose of delivering over such stray stock to the owner thereof.

Recovery of stray stock.
Ibid, s. 64, amended.

Every such occupier who refuses or neglects to comply with any such notice from the Inspector is liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds and not less than one pound.

45 Such Inspector may, if he shall think fit, upon the application of such occupier, postpone the time fixed in the notice for the mustering and delivering of such stock.

Such occupier shall be entitled to recover from such owner any reasonable expenses incurred in mustering such stock or delivering such stray stock, as well as compensation for any unavoidable damage caused in so doing.

Persons driving stock across runs to give notice, and travel not less than five miles a day. 1890, No. 19, s. 58, amended.

53. Every person desirous of crossing any land, or any Crown lands within any hundred, other than travelling-stock reserves, with a flock of sheep, or drove of cattle or horses, shall, before entering upon any such land, or Crown lands, give to the occupier of such land, or, as to the Crown lands within hundreds to one of the Wardens or person in charge thereof, not less than twenty-four hours' nor more than three days' notice in writing of his intention so to enter or cross, and shall in such notice specify the place from which such sheep, cattle, or horses started, and their destination, which shall be by some recognised route, and the number and description of the horses, cattle, or sheep in such drove or flock, and the points and dates at which such person proposes to enter and leave such land, or Crown lands, which shall be on some recognised route. 5 10 15

The person so entering shall drive or conduct such flock or drove in the direct course of their destination, as specified in such notice, a distance of not less than five statute miles on each day whilst crossing such land or Crown lands, and shall securely close all gates on the line of route. 20

Every person offending against or violating the provisions of this section without reasonable excuse shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty of not less than two pounds nor more than one hundred pounds. 25

Stock to be driven only in daytime. New provision.

54. Every person who drives any stock upon, along, or across any highway or Crown lands at any time except between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the evening of the same day in any of the months between the thirty-first day of March and the first day of September in any year, or between the hours of four o'clock in the morning and eight o'clock in the evening of the same day in any other part of the year, unless provided with a permit to do so from a Justice of the Peace or an Inspector of Stock, is liable in respect of every such offence to a penalty of not less than five pounds, and not exceeding fifty pounds. But it shall be no sufficient excuse for driving stock at any prohibited hour that the said stock were intended for transport either by railway train or by ship departing at any particular hour. 30 35

Proviso.

Nothing in this section contained shall apply— 40

- (1.) To the owner of any stock, or his servant, driving such stock within the limits of any land in his lawful occupation;
- (2.) To any person driving any stock within the limits of any borough at any hour in accordance with any by-law of such borough in force in that behalf; nor to any person who, with the object of driving stock within the limits of any borough, drives such stock outside of such limits at a prohibited hour, but for the purpose only of arriving with the stock within the aforesaid limits within the hours prescribed by any such by-law as aforesaid; or 45 50
- (3.) To any person driving or riding a horse or horses in harness or saddle, or driving cattle in harness.

55. Every person who drives or removes any stock from any land not in his own occupation without the consent of the occupier of such land is liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds, or to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding twelve months.

Unauthorised removal of stock. 1890, No. 19, s. 65, amended.

5 56. So much of "The Impounding Act, 1884," and of every other Act, and of every by-law made by any local authority under any Act, as authorises the destruction of goats in certain cases of trespass or wandering at large is hereby repealed so far as any of the said Acts or by-laws respectively might be held to apply to branded 10 Angora goats.

Angora goats protected. Ibid, s. 60.

PART V.

BRANDS AND BRANDING.

57. In this Part of this Act, if not inconsistent with the context,— Interpretation. 1880, No. 25, s. amended.

15 "Brand" means and includes a distinct and plain mark, made as follows:—

In the cases of horses and cattle, burnt with a branding-iron into the skin of not less than two inches in length; to which may be added an ear-mark made by 20 cutting, splitting, or punching the ear, but so that in no case shall more than one-fourth of the whole ear be removed; or a tattoo mark imprinted on any part of the skin, or a metal clip affixed to the ear.

In the case of sheep, an ear-mark made by cutting,
25 splitting, or punching the ear, but so that in no case shall more than one-fourth of the ear be removed; or a metal clip affixed to the ear, or a tattoo-mark imprinted on any part of the skin; or a fire-brand on the horn or face, in conjunction with a wool-brand made with pitch, tar, 30 paint, raddle, or lampblack mixed with oil or tallow, in letters, figures, or otherwise, not less than three inches in length, on the sides, back, shoulders, hips, or rump.

"Registrar" means any Registrar of Brands duly appointed under this Act:

35 "Sheep" includes any Angora goat.

58. All sheep forthwith after shearing, and all lambs before the first of April in each year shall be distinctly and legibly branded with the registered brand of the owner; and for every such sheep not so branded the owner thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 40 ten shillings and not less than sixpence.

When sheep and lambs to be branded. Ibid, s. 15, amended.

59. In the case of stragglers or stray sheep, notwithstanding anything in this Act to the contrary, every owner in whose shed or on whose land any stragglers or stray sheep have been shorn, shall forthwith distinctly and legibly brand such sheep on the head with 45 his registered brand.

Stragglers or stray sheep shorn to be branded.

Registrars of Brands.
1880, No. 25, ss. 4, 5.

60. The Governor may from time to time—

(1.) Appoint fit and proper persons to be Registrars of Brands within the colony, and may assign any part of the colony as a district to each such Registrar, and appoint a place therein at which shall be the registration office for the district; but any Registrar may be appointed to more districts than one: 5

(2.) Appoint places at which shall be the chief registration offices for areas of the colony embracing as many districts as the Governor may prescribe, and may also appoint any Registrar to be in charge of such chief offices respectively, and to discharge the duties of Chief Registrar within any of the aforesaid areas. 10

Chief Registration Offices.

All Chief Registrars, Registrars, Chief Registration and Registration Offices, and Registration Districts appointed under any Act hereby repealed and existing at the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be appointed respectively under this Act. 15

Brands already registered to be valid.
Consequential.

61. All brands, if in accord with the requirements of this Act, which have heretofore been duly registered under "The Brands and Branding Act, 1880," shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been registered under this Act. 20

Duplicate of registers to be sent to chief office.
1880, No. 25, s. 6.

A copy of every registration effected during the month at the office of every Registrar, and of every alteration made in any register at such office, shall be transmitted within the first week of the ensuing month by the person in charge of such office to the Registrar at the chief office of the district. 25

Every register shall be open for inspection without payment by any Justice of the Peace, constable, or officer of any County or Borough Council, and by any other person, at all reasonable times, on payment of a fee of one shilling. 30

Owners of stock to register brands.
Ibid, s. 8, amended.

62. Every owner of stock shall apply to the Registrar of the district wherein his stock are running or are intended to run for a brand for registration by him, and shall deposit with such Registrar two correct copies or impressions of his brand on the forms supplied to him for the purpose; and every owner neglecting to register his brand shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds. 35

There shall be paid by the owner of every brand to the Registrar who shall register the same a fee of five shillings in respect of the registration of such brand.

Branding pigs, horses, or cattle not
compulsory.
1880, No. 25, s. 16.

63. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to oblige any one to brand any pigs or brand horses or cattle running upon securely fenced lands. 40

Similar brands not to be registered.

64. No Registrar shall register any brand likely, in his opinion, to lead to mistakes or confusion, nor any prohibited brand.

Registrar may require brands to be altered.
Ibid, s. 9, amended.

If any two owners of stock within the same district have the same or similar brands, the Registrar of the district may require the owner of the brand last registered to alter his brand. 45

In case of any dispute the same shall be determined in a summary manner by a Resident Magistrate.

Any owner who refuses or neglects to alter his brand accordingly when duly required so to do, and afterwards uses the said brand, shall be liable to the same penalties as are herein provided in the case of any person using another person's brand. 50

65. Any owner of stock having duly registered a brand may, by writing addressed to the Registrar for the district, transfer his right to such brand to any other owner, who shall pay a registration fee of five shillings for such transfer, or such first-mentioned owner may 5 relinquish his right to the said brand, and, upon the due receipt of such writing by such Registrar, he shall forthwith cause the registry of such brand in the general register of brands for the district to be transferred or cancelled, as the case may be.

Brands may be transferred. 1880, No. 25, s. 10, amended.

66. In case it shall be proved to the satisfaction of any Registrar
 10 that any brand registered by him has not been used by the owner thereof or by his authority for at least two years previously, such brand shall be considered to have been relinquished, and shall be removed from the Register.

Disused brands deemed abandoned. Ibid, s. 11, amended.

After such cancellation any other owner of stock may, on pay-15 ment of a fee of five shillings, register such brand in his own name in the office aforesaid, and with the Registrar of the district wherein his stock may be running, and may cause his stock to be branded therewith, as if such brand had not been previously registered.

67. After any owner of stock has registered a brand, no other
 20 person in the same district shall, without the authority of such stock-owner, brand any stock with the same brand, or with any brand bearing the same mark or one so nearly similar as in the opinion of any Registrar to be not readily distinguishable therefrom, or make or cause to be made any branding-iron bearing the same or a nearly 25 similar brand as aforesaid; and any person offending against this enactment shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and not less than five pounds.

Penalty for using another person's brand. Ibid, s. 12, amended.

68. The mark or impression of any registered brand upon any 30 stock shall be prima facie evidence of the ownership of the said stock by the person in whose name such brand shall be registered in the register of the district.

Brand evidence of ownership. Ibid, s. 14.

69. Every person who wilfully removes more than one-fourth of the whole ear of any cattle or sheep, whether his own property or not, is liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds nor less than 35 two shillings in respect of each head of cattle, and of each horse or sheep, so treated.

Penalty for cropping ear of stock. Ibid, ss. 71, 72, 73.

70. Every person who destroys, defaces, or alters the brand on any stock, or is party to the destruction, defacement, or alteration thereof, unless he is the lawful owner of such stock, is liable to a 40 penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and not less than five pounds for each head of stock in respect of which such offence has been committed, or, at the discretion of the convicting Magistrate, to imprisonment with hard labour for a period not exceeding two years.

Penalty for defacing brand. Ibid, s. 73, amended.

71. Every person who brands any stock with a brand which is 45 not registered, or of which he is not the registered owner, without the authority of such owner, is liable to a penalty not exceeding ten shillings and not less than sixpence for each head of stock in respect of which such offence has been committed.

Penalty for using unregistered brand. Ibid.

Special Provision.

Governor may declare ear-marks to be made only by punching.
1880, No. 25, ss. 72, 73, 74, amended.

72. The Governor may by Order in Council declare that from a date to be thereby fixed, the following provisions shall be in force in all districts and subdivisions,—

(1.) An ear-mark shall be made only by punching the ear, or any part of the edges or tip thereof, with a punch or nippers. 5

(a.) On the coming into operation of such Order in Council, every owner of stock shall, within six months from the commencement thereof, apply for the re-registration of his brand and ear-mark, and every Registrar of Brands shall forthwith cancel such registration, and may allot to such owner the same or another brand and ear-mark, and shall register without fee such brand and ear-mark so allotted for the brand and ear-mark cancelled under this section. 10 15

Provision for private ear-marks and age-marks.

(b.) Every person who, after the six months above mentioned, marks any stock in the ear with any private mark, other than with a metal-clip or tattoo-mark, or, in the case of sheep age-marks, with other than a firebrand on the face, as described in Schedule C, is liable for every head of stock so marked to a penalty not exceeding ten shillings nor less than one shilling. 20

(c.) After the coming into force of this Order in Council fire-brands on the face, as described in Schedule C, shall be the age-marks throughout the colony, but it shall not be compulsory to age-mark any sheep. 25

(2.) No Registrar of Brands shall register any brand consisting in part of an ear-mark of any description prohibited by this section. 30

(3.) Every person who wilfully brands any sheep with an ear-mark otherwise than as required by this section, is liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds in respect of each sheep so unlawfully branded, or, at the discretion of the convicting Magistrate, to imprisonment with hard labour for any period not exceeding two years. 35

(4.) So much of section fifty-seven of this Act as relates to ear-marks in sheep shall be repealed.
