

New Parliament.

Mr. Smith.

SCHOOL INSPECTION.

ANALYSIS.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| Title. 1. Short Title. 2. Act to be read as part of "Education Act, 1877." 3. When Act to come into operation. | 4. Governor to appoint Inspectors. 5. Removal of Inspectors. 6. Government to defray costs, and charge Education Boards. |
|--|---|

A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to regulate the Inspection of Public Schools.

Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The School Inspection Act, 1884."

Short Title.

2. This Act shall be read with and as part of "The Education Act, 1877."

Act to be read as part of "Education Act, 1877."

3. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

When Act to come into operation.

4. All Inspectors of Public Schools shall be appointed by the Governor, and all Inspectors holding appointments at the time of coming into operation of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed by the Governor, who shall have all the powers conferred on the Education Boards by "The Education Act, 1877," for the appointment or removal of such Inspectors.

Governor to appoint Inspectors.

5. The Inspectors so appointed shall, not less than once in every three years, be removed from one education district to some other district.

Removal of Inspectors.

6. From and after the coming into operation of this Act the salaries of School Inspectors and all cost of inspection shall be defrayed by the Minister of Education, but shall be recoverable from the Boards of the several education districts.

Government to defray costs, and charge Education Boards.