1951, No. 54

3. Section thirteen of the principal Act (as substituted by section three of the Social Security Amendment Act 1951) is hereby amended by omitting from subsection three the words "one hundred and forty-nine pounds ten shillings" and substituting the words "one hundred and seventy-five pounds ten shillings".

Age Benefits

Increasing rate of age benefits.

4. (1) Section sixteen of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from subsection one the words "one hundred and forty-nine pounds ten shillings", and substituting the words "one hundred and seventy-five pounds ten shillings".

(2) Section four of the Social Security Amendment Act 1951 is hereby repealed.

Section 17 of principal Act amended.

5. (1) Section seventeen of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:

(a) By omitting from paragraph (b) of subsection two the words "two hundred and twenty-seven pounds ten shillings", and substituting the words "two hundred and fifty-three pounds ten shillings":

(b) By repealing the proviso to the same paragraph, and substituting the following provisos:

“ Provided that in the case of a married man to whom this paragraph applies the Commission may, in its discretion, increase the rate of the benefit by an amount not exceeding one hundred and seventy-five pounds ten shillings in any year in respect of his wife:

“ Provided also that no benefit shall be payable to a married person to whom this paragraph applies at a rate which, together with any benefit received under this Part of this Act by the wife or husband of the applicant, as the case may be, exceeds the aggregate of the rates of age benefits which could be paid to the applicant and his wife or her husband, as the case may be, if each were entitled to an age benefit:”

(2) The second proviso to paragraph (b) of subsection two of section seventeen of the principal Act (as added by paragraph (b) of subsection one of this section) shall come into force on the first day of November, nineteen hundred and fifty-four.

(3) Section five of the Social Security Amendment Act 1951 is hereby repealed. 1951, No. 54

15. Section twenty-two of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection two (as substituted by section eighteen of the Finance Act (No. 2) 1948), the following subsection:

“(2A) Where the marriage of any woman who is in receipt of a widow’s benefit under paragraph (a) of subsection two of this section is dissolved by divorce, the Commission may, in its discretion and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, continue the benefit as if the marriage had not been dissolved; and in any such case the provisions of section thirteen of the Social Security Amendment Act 1943 shall, with the necessary modifications, continue to apply as if the marriage were still subsisting.

1943, No. 19;
reprinted 1948,
Vol. II, p. 1349

16. (1) Section seventy-five of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting in paragraph (a) of subsection one, after the word “widow”, the words “or widower”.

Amending provisions applicable on death of beneficiary.

(2) Section seventy-five of the principal Act is hereby further amended by adding to paragraph (a) of subsection one (as amended by section twenty of the Social Security Amendment Act 1949) the following additional proviso:

1949, No. 38

“Provided also that where any person, while in receipt of an age benefit, widow’s benefit, or invalid’s benefit, dies leaving a widow or widower or any dependent child or children the Commission may, in its discretion, continue the benefit to such date, not later than the end of the month next after the month in which the beneficiary died, as the Commission thinks fit.”

17. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the principal Act, the Commission may, in its discretion and in accordance with any general or special directions of the Minister of Social Security, in respect of the period commencing on the fifteenth day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, and ending with the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, increase the rate of any benefit under Part II of the principal Act to a rate not exceeding the appropriate rate prescribed by the principal Act as amended by this Act.

Authority to increase rates of benefits from 15 September to 31 December 1953.

(2) In determining any application for an increased benefit under this section the Commission may take into account such factors of economic significance (including any bonus received by the beneficiary from the Social Security Fund) as the Commission thinks fit.

(3) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the fifteenth day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

PART III

MEDICAL AND HOSPITAL BENEFITS, AND OTHER RELATED BENEFITS

Commencement of this Part.

18. Except as otherwise hereinafter provided, this Part of this Act shall come into force on the first day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-four.

Payments in respect of hospital
treatment afforded by Hospital Boards.

19. The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section ninety-two, and substituting the following section:

“92. (1) Where any person who is entitled to claim hospital benefits in accordance with this Part of this Act, or any member of the family of any such person, receives any hospital treatment as hereinbefore defined in or at any hospital maintained by a Hospital Board, there shall be payable to that Board, out of the Social Security Fund, such amount in respect of that treatment as may be prescribed.

“(2) The amount so paid to a Hospital Board in respect of the hospital treatment afforded to any person shall be paid to and accepted by the Board in full satisfaction of all claims by the Board in respect of that treatment.”

Payments in respect of
hospital treatment in private hospitals.

20. The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section ninety-three, and substituting the following section:

“93. (1) Where any person who is entitled to claim hospital benefits in accordance with this Part of this Act, or any member of the family of any such person, receives any hospital treatment as hereinbefore defined in any private hospital, there shall be payable out of the Social Security Fund, to the licensee or other person entitled to claim payment in respect of that treatment, the same amount as would have been payable in respect of that treatment if it had been afforded by a Hospital Board.

“(2) Any amount paid under this section in respect of any hospital treatment received by any person shall be in partial satisfaction of any claim by the licensee or other person to whom the payment is made in respect of that treatment.”

21. The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section ninety-three (as substituted by the last preceding section), the following section:

Payments in respect of hospital treatment in institutions.

“93A. (1) In respect of hospital treatment afforded in any institution or place recognized and approved by the Minister as a hospital for the purposes of this Part of this Act to persons who are entitled to claim hospital benefits in accordance with this Part of this Act, or to members of the families of any such persons, there shall be payable out of the Social Security Fund to the person entitled to claim payment in respect of that treatment such amounts as may be prescribed.

“(2) Unless the Minister otherwise determines in any case or class of cases, any amount paid under this section in respect of the hospital treatment of any person shall be in partial satisfaction of any claim by the person to whom the payment is made in respect of that treatment.”

22. The principal Act is hereby amended by adding to Part III, as from the commencement of that Part, the following heading and section:

Regulations prescribing payments in respect of benefits.

“Regulations

“101A. Without limiting the general power to make regulations conferred by section one hundred and forty of this Act, it is hereby declared that regulations made under that section for the purpose of prescribing payments to be made out of the Social Security Fund in respect of any benefits provided under this Part of this Act—

“(a) May provide for the calculation of the payments by reference to the individual patients or other persons receiving the benefits or in any other manner:

“(b) May, in relation to hospital benefits, prescribe different rates of payments for different classes of hospitals defined in the regulations; and may provide that the determination of the Minister as to the class in which any hospital is included shall be final.”

New

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Assessment of banking companies for social security charge.
1941, No. 18,
s. 3

23. (1) The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section one hundred and twenty-five, the following section:

“125A. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and of section one hundred and forty-eight of the Land and Income Tax Act 1954, every banking company shall be assessable and liable for social security charge in the same manner as if it were a company other than a banking company.

“(2) For the purposes of section one hundred and twenty-five of this Act a banking company shall be deemed to be resident in New Zealand if its head office is in New Zealand, but not otherwise.

“(3) Dividends derived from a banking company that is resident in New Zealand shall be exempt from social security charge.

“(4) Dividends derived from a banking company that is not resident in New Zealand shall be exempt from social security charge if and so far as the Commissioner is satisfied that they have been paid out of income derived by the company from New Zealand after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and forty.”

(2) This section shall apply with respect to the charge on income derived during the year ending with the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, and during every subsequent year.
