A BILL INTITULED

AN ACT to impose Duties of Customs and Excise and to amend the Law relating thereto. Title.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Tariff Act, 1907.

Short Title.

No. 81—1.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act the term "Tariff" means the Schedules to this Act setting forth duties of Customs and exemptions from duties of Customs.

PART I.

DUTIES OF CUSTOMS AND EXCISE.

Existing duties and exemptions repealed, and new duties imposed.

3. All duties of Customs, and all exemptions from such duties, as specified in the Schedules to the Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1888, the Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1895, the Customs Duties Amendment Act, 1900, and the Preferential and Reciprocal Trade Act, 1903, and also all duties imposed by the Governor under section seventeen of the Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1888, are hereby repealed, and there shall be levied, collected, and paid to the use of His Majesty on all goods imported into New Zealand or entered for home consumption after the coming into operation of this Act the several duties of Customs mentioned in Schedules A and B to this Act.

Exemptions from duties of goods in Schedule B.

4. The goods mentioned in Schedule B hereto shall, except as otherwise provided for in that Schedule or in Schedule E, be exempt from duties of Customs if imported into New Zealand or entered for home consumption after the coming into operation of this Act.

Special duties on goods in Schedules C, D, and E if not the produce or manufacture of some part of British dominions.

5. There shall be levied, collected, and paid to the use of His Majesty on all goods specified in Schedules C, D, and E hereto, and not being the produce or manufacture of some part of the British dominions, if imported into New Zealand or entered for home consumption after the respective dates hereinafter specified in this section, in addition to the duties (if any) authorised under Schedules A and B hereto, the duties of Customs following, that is to say:—

- (a.) On the articles specified in Schedule C, if so imported or entered after the coming into operation of this Act, an amount equal to the amount payable on these articles under Schedule A: 30
- (b.) On the articles specified in Schedule D, Part I, if so imported or entered after the coming into operation of this Act, an amount equal to one-half of the amount payable on these articles under Schedule A. 35
- (c.) On the articles specified in Schedule D, Part II, if so imported or entered after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and eight, an amount equal to one-half of the amount payable on these articles under Schedule A: 40
- (d.) On the articles specified in Schedule D, Part III, if so imported or entered after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and eight, an amount equal to twenty per centum of the amount payable on these articles under Schedule A: 45
- (e.) On the articles specified in Schedule E, Part I, if so imported or entered after the coming into operation of this Act, duties of Customs equal to twenty per centum of the value for duty as defined by the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882, or its amendments; 50

Tariff.

5 (f.) On the articles specified in Schedule E, Part II, if so imported or entered after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and eight, duties of Customs equal to twenty per centum of the value for duty as defined by the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882, or its amendments :

10 (g.) On the articles specified in Schedule E, Part III, if so imported or entered after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and eight, duties of Customs equal to ten per centum of the value for duty as defined by the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882, or its amendments :

15 (h.) On the articles specified in Schedule E, Part IV, if so imported or entered after the coming into operation of this Act, duties of Customs specified in the said Part of the said Schedule.

20 6. (1.) With regard to all articles mentioned in Schedule C, D, or E hereto, the full duty shall be levied, collected, and paid as if they were not the produce or manufacture of any part of the British dominions, unless there is produced to the Collector an invoice of the goods having written or printed thereon a certificate signed by the sender or consignor, in such form as may be prescribed by the Minister of Customs, stating that the articles are bona fide the produce or manufacture of some part of the British dominions
25 named in the certificate. No such invoice shall relate to any goods other than those to which the certificate refers.

Certificate to be produced to Collector that goods the produce or manufacture of some part of British dominions.

30 (2.) On the importation of any articles mentioned in Schedule C, D, or E hereto, the importer or his agent, in addition to the particulars required to be given on the entry of dutiable goods, shall state, to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief, the country of which such articles are the produce or manufacture, and shall satisfy the Collector, by declaration or otherwise, of the truth of such statement.

35 (3.) If the Collector has reason to believe that any such articles are not the produce or manufacture of the country mentioned in such invoice, certificate, or statement, he may detain them for examination; and if after due inquiry he is satisfied that such invoice, certificate, or statement is false, the articles shall be forfeited and dealt with as directed by the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882,
40 in the case of forfeited goods.

Forfeiture of goods on false invoice, &c.

45 (4.) Every importer, or agent of an importer, who produces any such invoice or certificate, or makes any such statement, knowing the same to be false in any particular is liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds, or, at the option of the Minister of Customs, to a penalty of treble the value of the goods specified in such invoice.

(5.) In any proceedings under this Act the onus of proof that any goods are the produce or manufacture of some part of the British dominions shall be on the importer.

Onus of proof on importer.

50 (6.) In the case of parcels sent by post or through a forwarding agency, the Collector may dispense with the certificate required by this section, if evidence satisfactory to him is produced that the goods are the produce or manufacture of the British dominions.

(7.) The Governor may from time to time, by Order in Council gazetted, make regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this section, and may impose penalties for the breach of any such regulation not exceeding one hundred pounds, and in particular may prescribe the classes of goods which shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be the produce or manufacture of the British dominions or of any specified country. 5

Repeal.

(8.) Sections two to eleven of the Preferential and Reciprocal Trade Act, 1903, are hereby repealed.

Act not to affect duties as fixed in pursuance of treaty with South African colonies.

7. Nothing in this Act shall be so construed or shall so operate as to conflict with the schedule of Customs duties and exemptions contained in the Order in Council made by the Governor on the seventh day of January, nineteen hundred and seven, for the purpose of carrying into effect a certain treaty therein referred to, and made between the Government of New Zealand and the Governments of certain colonies in South Africa: 10 15

Provided that, notwithstanding anything in the said schedule, no higher duty shall be levied on any goods the produce or manufacture of the said colonies than that which would be levied under this Act on the same goods if they were the produce or manufacture of some other part of the British dominions. 20

Articles which may be manufactured in manufacturing warehouse.

8. (1.) The articles in which spirit is a necessary ingredient, permitted to be manufactured in any warehouse or place of security approved and appointed under section twenty-six of the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882 (hereinafter called a manufacturing warehouse), shall be limited to the following articles when made under such conditions, in such quantities, and according to such formulæ as may from time to time be approved by the Minister of Customs, that is to say: Perfumed spirit, spirituous preparations for the toilet, culinary or flavouring essences, and medicinal preparations (excepting medicated wine or wine mixed with food). 25 30

Scale of duties on such articles.

(2.) Before delivery from any manufacturing warehouse there shall be paid to and for the use of His Majesty a duty on such articles in accordance with the following scale, that is to say:—

On perfumed spirit....	{ Twenty shillings the liquid gallon.	35
On toilet preparations which are subject to sixteen shillings the liquid gallon on importation	{ Twelve shillings the liquid gallon.
On toilet preparations which are subject to twenty-five per centum duty on importation	{ Six shillings the liquid gallon.	40
On culinary and flavouring essences	{ Twelve shillings the liquid gallon.
On medicinal preparations (excepting medicated wine or wine mixed with food) containing more than fifty per centum of proof spirit	{ Ninepence the pound.	45
Medicinal preparations (excepting medicated wine or wine mixed with food) containing fifty per centum of proof spirits or less	{ Free.	50

(3.) The Minister of Customs may prohibit the manufacture of any article included under the foregoing headings, if in his judgment such manufacture is detrimental to the revenue derived from the duty on spirits.

(4.) If at any time the Collector is satisfied that any article made in a manufacturing warehouse has not been prepared strictly in accordance with the formula approved by the Minister of Customs, or that any article the manufacture of which has been prohibited by the said Minister under the authority of this section has been made in a manufacturing warehouse, the said Minister may by writing under his hand revoke the appointment of the warehouse in which such article has been so prepared or made.

Minister may revoke appointment of manufacturing warehouse.

(5.) For the period of two years after such revocation no person who was in occupation of such warehouse at the time of the revocation shall be competent to make application for the reappointment of that warehouse, or for the appointment of any other warehouse, and if he becomes the occupier of any manufacturing warehouse the Minister of Customs may revoke the appointment thereof.

(6.) Sections nine and eleven of the Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1895, are hereby repealed.

9. (1.) This Act shall be deemed to have come into operation on the seventeenth day of July, nineteen hundred and seven, and to have been in operation since the commencement of that day.

Repeal.

(2.) Notwithstanding the last preceding subsection, sections sixteen to twenty-eight of this Act shall be deemed to have come into operation on the passing of this Act, and not at any earlier date.

Commencement of Act.

10. The several Schedules to this Act, together with the notes to such Schedules, shall be deemed to be part of this Act in the same manner as if they had been contained in the body thereof.

Schedules and notes thereto deemed part of Act.

11. (1.) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, every resolution of the House of Representatives passed on or after the sixteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and seven, and before the passing of this Act, purporting to impose any duties of Customs or excise, or to create any exemptions from such duties, shall be deemed to have taken effect and to have had the force of law according to the tenor of such resolution, and to have so continued until the passing of this Act, or until altered or revoked before the passing of this Act by a resolution of the House of Representatives.

Certain resolutions of House of Representatives deemed to have had force of law.

(2.) Every such resolution as is mentioned in the last preceding subsection shall be deemed to be revoked on the passing of this Act.

12. (1.) No additional duty shall be chargeable in respect of goods cleared during the currency of any such resolution as aforesaid by reason merely of the fact that the duties or exemptions imposed or created by such resolution have been altered by any subsequent resolution or by this Act.

No additional duty because of subsequent alteration.

(2.) When any duty has been paid under the authority of any such resolution in excess of the duty payable under this Act, the Collector may allow a refund of such excess, if he is satisfied that the goods on which such duty has been paid are still in the possession of the person who paid the same.

Refund of duty in excess in certain cases.

13. (1.) This Act shall not take effect in the islands situated within the boundaries set forth in the Schedule to the Cook and other Islands Government Act, 1901, until a day to be determined by the Governor by Order in Council gazetted.

Act not to apply to Cook Islands until so determined by Order in Council.

(2.) All Orders in Council made under the authority of the said Act and affecting the Customs duties or exemptions in the said islands shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding this Act until revoked or altered by a subsequent Order in Council.

(3.) Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of section ten 5 of the said Act, or of section five of the Cook and other Islands Government Act Amendment Act, 1902, or of section three of the Cook and other Islands Government Act Amendment Act, 1903.

Goods delivered on security subject to duties in force at time of delivery.

14. All goods delivered upon a deposit or other security for duty 10 before the passing of this Act shall be liable to the duties in force or deemed by virtue of this Act to have been in force at the time of such delivery.

Printing-paper exempt in certain cases.

15. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, printing-paper imported by and for the use of the proprietor of any registered 15 newspaper shall be exempt from the duty imposed thereon by Schedule E hereto, if imported and entered for home consumption on or before the last day of December, nineteen hundred and eight, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Collector that such paper was imported under a valid contract entered into before the sixteenth day 20 of November, nineteen hundred and three, for the supply of such paper for a period not exceeding three years.

PART II.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Governor may determine duty to be paid when article imported is substitute for other article.

16. (1.) The Governor may from time to time direct that any 25 article imported into New Zealand, which in the opinion of the Minister of Customs is a substitute for some other article, or which in the opinion of the said Minister possesses such properties that it can be used or is intended to be used for a purpose similar to that for which some other article is used, shall be admitted to entry either 30 at a rate to be fixed by the Governor in proportion to the degree in which it approximates in its properties or uses to such other article, or free of duty if such other article is free of duty.

Repeal.

(2.) Section seventeen of the Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1888, is hereby repealed. 35

Duty payable when separate articles imported in mechanical combination.

17. Whenever an article is imported in mechanical combination or connection with an article bearing a lower rate of duty, or with an article free of duty, the Collector may refuse the admission of such composite article at any rate other than the highest rate chargeable on any of the mechanically combined or connected articles taken 40 separately; but the Minister of Customs may, at his discretion, permit a separate classification of each article, or may admit the whole article under such heading of the Tariff as appears to him just.

Duty on trade samples, &c., may be calculated upon actual quantity or weight thereof.

18. Notwithstanding anything in this Act or in any other Act 45 relating to the Customs, the Collector may admit absolute alcohol, spirits of wine, and spirits, for scientific, medicinal, perfumery, and toilet purposes, and also trade samples and presents from abroad to residents in New Zealand, in packages of any size, and at a duty calculated upon the actual quantity or weight in cases where such 50 duty is leviable by quantity or weight.

19. Whenever an article is imported which bears a proprietary name, or which has a composition which is not clearly disclosed on the label of the package, and it is, in the opinion of the Collector, necessary for the purpose of ascertaining the duty payable to have such article analysed, the fee for such analysis shall be such as the Minister of Customs may direct, and shall be paid by the importer.

Certain articles be analysed for purpose of ascertaining duty, and fee for analysis paid by importer.

20. (1.) All goods not produced or manufactured in New Zealand shall, on reimportation into New Zealand, whether duty was paid upon them on their first importation or not, be liable to the same duties, rules, regulations, and restrictions as if then imported for the first time :

Duty on goods reimported into New Zealand and not the produce or manufacture of New Zealand.

Provided that goods subject to ad valorem rates of duty which are temporarily exported from New Zealand for repairs or otherwise may be admitted to entry on being returned to New Zealand at a duty calculated upon the cost of such repairs, or upon such value as may be lawfully assessed, if satisfactory proof is produced to the Collector of the exportation of the goods, and that the goods have not been absent from New Zealand for more than two years from the date of exportation.

(2.) All goods the produce or manufacture of New Zealand brought back into New Zealand, and being of such a kind that if produced or manufactured elsewhere than in New Zealand they would be liable to any duty of Customs on importation, shall be liable to the same duties, rules, regulations, and restrictions as goods of the like kind produced or manufactured in England, unless the same are brought back within five years from the time of the exportation thereof, and it is proved to the satisfaction of the Collector that they are the produce or manufacture of New Zealand, in which case the same may be entered by bill of store containing such particulars as the Minister of Customs may direct.

Duty when reimported goods are produce or manufacture of New Zealand.

(3.) All goods so entered shall be delivered free of duty, except where a duty is payable in New Zealand on the like goods produced or manufactured in New Zealand upon delivery for home consumption, in which case the same duties as are at the time of the return of the goods to New Zealand leviable on such goods shall be paid.

(4.) Where a drawback has been obtained on exportation from New Zealand on any goods produced or manufactured in New Zealand, such goods shall, upon return to New Zealand, be liable for an amount of duty equal to the drawback payable on exportation of the like goods at the time of such return.

(5.) Section ninety-one of the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882, is hereby repealed.

Repeal.

21. The Minister of Customs may classify any medicinal preparation or any preparation claimed to be a medicinal preparation under any other heading of the Tariff, if in his judgment such preparation is fit for use or can be easily rendered fit for use as a beverage, flavouring-essence, toilet preparation, perfumed spirit, or as an article or spirituous ingredient in an article subject to a higher rate of duty than a medicinal preparation.

Medicinal preparations may be otherwise classified by Minister in certain cases.

22. Where any dispute arises as to the true meaning and application of any terms used in the Tariff and therein printed in italics, Minister to decide disputes as to interpretation of Tariff.

the Minister of Customs may determine such dispute in such manner as appears to him just, and his decision thereon shall be final.

23. Section twenty-four of the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882, is hereby amended by inserting after the words "such premises" the words "upon payment of such fee, and."

24. In the event of any bonded or manufacturing warehouse, sugar-refinery, or other premises for which an annual fee has been paid being destroyed or closed, the Collector may refund a proportion of such fee, calculated from the time at which the premises were so destroyed or closed until the end of the year for which the fee was paid.

25. (1.) Where printed matter liable to Customs duty is included in any mail, whether addressed to separate individuals or not, duty shall be paid on such matter (including the envelope or other covering) before its delivery from the post-office.

(2.) If such printed matter has been posted to the order of any person in New Zealand, or of any person having an agent in New Zealand, the said duty shall be payable by such person or agent, and in any other case the said duty shall be payable by the person who posted the said printed matter or by his agent (if any) in New Zealand.

(3.) The Postmaster shall notify the person or agent so liable as aforesaid, if his name and address are known to the Postmaster, that such printed matter is detained pending payment of the duty.

(4.) If duty is not paid on any such printed matter within six months after the arrival thereof, it may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Minister of Customs directs.

26. (1.) Where goods are sent to New Zealand for direct or ultimate delivery to any specified person in New Zealand, such person shall be deemed to be an importer of the goods, notwithstanding that he may not be possessed of or beneficially interested in the goods at the time of importation or while they are in the control of the officers of Customs, and the definition of "importer" in section two of the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882, is hereby extended accordingly.

(2.) Where in respect of any goods there are more importers than one, the Collector shall have the same power with regard to all of them as he has with regard to the importer by or on whose behalf entry is offered or passed.

27. (1.) Notwithstanding anything in section thirty-nine of the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882, it is hereby declared that where entry is offered or made of any goods liable to ad valorem duty in respect of which goods any agreement or arrangement, whether provisional or complete, for delivery thereof, after clearance at the Customs, to any purchaser in New Zealand has theretofore been made, the true and real value of goods the subject of the entry shall be deemed to be the amount paid or to be paid therefor by the New Zealand purchaser, less a fair allowance for freight and insurance and duty (if any), to be assessed by the Collector of the port at which such entry is presented.

(2.) In cases where the amount paid or to be paid by the New Zealand purchaser cannot be immediately ascertained, the true and real value shall be assessed by the Collector at such sum as he determines to be the fair market value in New Zealand of the goods, less such fair allowance as aforesaid.

(3.) Assessments made by the Collector under this section shall be final and conclusive.

28. Every person making an entry in respect of goods to be delivered by such person shall at the time of entry deliver to the Collector a correct list of the persons to whom and the places at which the goods are to be delivered, and shall declare to such list, and such declaration shall form part of the entry.

Declaration by agent when making entry.

29. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with the Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882, and the several Acts incorporated therewith ; but these Acts shall, in so far as they conflict with this Act, be construed subject to this Act.

Act to be incorporated with Customs Acts.

30. The following enactments and parts of Acts are hereby repealed, that is to say :—

Repeals.

- Sections two to five and Schedule A of the Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1888 ;
- Sections two to four and Schedules A and B of the Customs and Excise Duties Act, 1895 ; and
- Sections two and three and Schedules A and B of the Customs Duties Amendment Act, 1900.

SCHEDULES.

NOTE.—The headings of the respective classes in Schedules A and B are used solely for convenience of classification, and shall not in any way affect the interpretation of the Tariff.

The word "iron" includes steel, or steel and iron combined.

Neither steam-engines, nor parts of steam-engines, nor boilers (land or marine), nor feed-water heaters, fuel-economizers, steam superheaters, or mechanical stokers are included in the expression "machines" or "machinery" as used in the Tariff.
