PART I

CIVIL AND CRIMINAL JURISDICTION

2. Commencement—This Part of this Act shall come into force on a date to be appointed for its commencement by the Governor-General, by Order in Council. 5

3. Interpretation—In this Part of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, “Commissioner” means a Commissioner for Atafu or for Fakaofu or for Nukunonu appointed under section 9 of this Act.

4. High Court of Niue may exercise jurisdiction in Tokelau Islands—(1) The High Court of Niue shall have all jurisdiction, whether civil or criminal, which may be necessary to administer the laws of the Tokelau Islands in the same manner in all respects as if that jurisdiction had been conferred upon that Court as a separate Court of Justice in and for the said islands. 10 15

(2) In the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred on it by this section, the High Court of Niue may sit either in the Tokelau Islands or in Niue.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this Part of this Act, a Commissioner of the High Court of Niue or a Justice of the Peace for Niue appointed under Part III of the Niue Act 1966 shall not exercise any jurisdiction in respect of the Tokelau Islands. 20

5. Civil jurisdiction of Supreme Court extends to Tokelau Islands—The civil jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of New Zealand shall extend to the Tokelau Islands, and may be exercised in New Zealand in respect of those islands in the same manner in all respects as if those islands were for all purposes part of New Zealand. 25 30

6. Criminal jurisdiction of Supreme Court in respect of Tokelau Islands—(1) The criminal jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of New Zealand shall extend to acts done or omitted in the Tokelau Islands which are offences against the laws of the Tokelau Islands and which, if done or omitted in New Zealand, would be indictable offences, and may be exercised in New Zealand in respect of such offences accordingly in the same manner as if they were indictable offences committed in New Zealand. 35

(2) Except in the case of an offence in respect of which, pursuant to the Crimes Act 1961, the Supreme Court has jurisdiction notwithstanding that the offence was committed outside New Zealand, the jurisdiction conferred by subsection
5 (1) of this section shall be exercised only in respect of persons found in New Zealand.

(3) In respect of any offence which is within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court under this section, the like proceedings before Justices of the Peace or a Stipendiary Magistrate may 10 be taken in New Zealand as in the case of offences committed in New Zealand.

(4) The punishment to be imposed by the Supreme Court for any such offence (not being an offence in respect of which, pursuant to the Crimes Act 1961, the Supreme Court
15 has jurisdiction as aforesaid) shall be that which is provided for that offence by the laws of the Tokelau Islands.

7. High Court of Niue may state a case for the Supreme Court—A case may be stated by the High Court of Niue exercising civil or criminal jurisdiction in respect of the 20 Tokelau Islands for determination by the Supreme Court of New Zealand in the same manner as the High Court may state a case in the exercise of its jurisdiction in respect of Niue.

8. Appeal from final judgment of High Court of Niue—An
25 appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court of New Zealand from any final judgment of the High Court of Niue exercising civil or criminal jurisdiction in respect of the Tokelau Islands in the same manner as from any final judgment of the High Court exercising its jurisdiction in respect of Niue.

9. Appointment of Commissioners—(1) The Governor-General may appoint fit and proper persons to be—

11. Appeal from Commissioners—Any party to any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, before a Commissioner may appeal from the judgment of the Commissioner to a Judge of the High Court of Niue in the same manner as a party to any proceedings before a Commissioner of that Court may appeal from a judgment of the last-mentioned Commissioner to a Judge of the Court pursuant to the rules of the Court. 35
